12. 2ND GEORGE W.⁷ TINSLEY (WILLIAM⁶, WILLIAM⁵, JOSHUA⁴, THOMAS S.³, THOMAS², THOMAS¹) was born Dec 1863 in Coles Co. Illinois. He married JULIA ANN LIPSCOMB 11 Nov 1884 in Coles County, Illinois. She was born 06 Apr 1867 in Coles Co. Illinois.

Notes for 2ND GEORGE W. TINSLEY:

George W. Tinsley, residing on section 10, township 18, range 52, Morrill county, is one of the prominent old settlers of that region, having located here in 1885, and remained to see the wonderful changes that have taken place in the new country, watching its growth from practically a barren wilderness to its present state of fertility, and has the proud satisfaction of knowing that this success has been due in a measure to his own efforts.. He is a man of active public spirit, and held in the highest esteem by all who know him.

Mr. Tinsley was born in Coles county, Illinois, December 12, 1864, where he spent his entire boyhood. His father, William Tinsley, was a native of Kentucky, while his mother, Susan Griffin, was born in Indiana. They settled in Illinois during their younger years. Both are now dead. When our subject attained his majority, he left Illinois and came west to Nebraska, locating in Cheyenne county, arriving here in 1885. He homesteaded on a quarter in section 10, proved up and improved the place, adding more land to his original homestead, and is now owner of about eight hundred acres, using a large part of it as range land for a herd of cattle, also cultivating about one hundred and twenty acres. He has all good buildings and improvements on the ranch, and has met with deserved success in his work, being rated among the wealthy and successful men in the section. He has a large acreage in alfalfa, furnishing abundant feed and pasture for his bees, of which is has forty colonies. He but recently took up bee culture, and has made astonishing success, raising one thousand five hundred pounds of honey in a season. The Nebraska climate is peculiarly adapted to the production of a High grade of honey.

Mr. Tinsley was married to Julia A. Lipscum, in Coles county, Illinois, November 12, 1884. Mrs. Tinsley was born in Indiana, and her parents, John and Eliza (Hutchison) Lipscum, are still living in Coles county. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley, named as follows: Clarence, married and living near Bayard; Goldie, William, Bert, Lillian, Myrtle, Vera and Lorine. They form a most interesting and congenial family, and their home is one of the bright spots that greets the traveler through the section. We take pleasure in calling attention to a view of the fine dwelling, large barn and outbuildings pictured in the illustrated pages of our work.

Our subject holds the office of treasurer of school district No. 55, and takes a commendable interest in all local affairs. In political views he is a firm democrat.

LOREN A. FRANKFORTER

Loren A. Frankforter, postmaster of Hill City, South Dakota, is interested in a number of valuable mining properties and is well known in his locality. He was born in Tobias, Saline county, Nebraska, on the 15th of April, 1880, the fifth in a family of nine children whose parents were David and Mattie (Bowers) Frankforter. Both parents were natives of Henry county, Ohio, the birth of the father occurring in 1840 and that of the mother some years later. In his young manhood David Frankforter assisted his father in saw milling and in the lumber business but at the beginning of the war enlisted in the Union army for ninety days. Later he re enlisted and was at the front throughout the entire conflict as a member of the Forty-ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Although he was wounded two or three times, he was never confined in a hospital and was on the firing line whenever his company was engaged. When peace was restored, he went to Saline county, Nebraska, and there homesteaded land, upon which he resided until about 1910. He then retired to Tobias and is still making his home there. His is highly thought of in his community and has at all times proved a good citizen. He has survived his wife for many years, her demise occurring in 1892.

Loren Frankforter received a high-school education in Tobias, Nebraska, but at the age of sixteen years began working for others as a farm hand. After spending about three years in that manner, he came to South Dakota, locating at Redfern, in the Black Hills. He was employed upon a stock ranch for about six months and then went to the northern part of the Hills, where he found work in Carbonate camp, twelve miles west of Deadwood. After two years, service there he became connected with the Montezuma mines, between Deadwood and Central, and was therefor about eight months. At the expiration of that period he worked in the mines near Pactola for six months and then returned to Redfern and three or four months he was married and returned to mining but only for a short time and then moved to Custer, where he found work in the paint mills. He remained in the connection for about two years and then located in Hill City, entering the employ of C. E. McEachron, the owner of a general store. Mr. Frankforter clerked for about five years and then returned to mining, but four months later received his appointment as postmaster of Hill City. He has since been the incumbent of that office and the work that devolves upon him is systematically and correctly done. He retains his interest in a number of mining prospects in the southern Hills and is recognized as a well-to-do resident of Hill City.

On the 30th of September, 1903, Mr. Frankforter married Miss Nettie Tinsley, who was born near Sidney, Nebraska, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley, both born in Illinois. The father, who was by occupation a farmer, continued to follow agricultural pursuits after removing from his native state to Nebraska. For a number of years past he has resided in Custer county, this state, and is now engaged in stock ranching. To him and his wife have been born eleven children, of whom Mrs. Frankforter is the fourth in order of birth. By her marriage she has three children: Gerald, born March 15, 1907; Torrence, born February 15, 1911, and Claud, whose birth occurred on the 7th of April 1913.

Mr. Frankforter is a member of the Masonic blue lodge, of which he has served as master for two years and he is the present secretary of that organization. He is loyal to the underlying principle of Masonry, that of human brotherhood, and is always willing to promote in any way the interests of the order. He is a republican and since August 15, 1911, has capably and acceptably served as postmaster of Hill City. He has resided in the Black Hills for many years and not only thoroughly understands conditions there, but is in harmony with the spirit of enterprise and progress that characterizes the section and is willing to cooperate in movements for the advancement of the district.
