SOURCE: Patricia Hulit Reid (r46247) of Granville, Ohio (jopar-at-adelphia.net), email dated 27 July 2004 with attached ahnentafel chart entitled "Ancestors of Elizabeth Lorraine Pennington" (Well documented data is in the file for Patricia Reid.)

There is a question about which John Campbell married Mary Ann Colwell, daughter of Morris Colwell and Sarah Jane [393a] Stidham. The two John Campbells in question are the son of Samuel and Narcissa Campbell, and the son of Samuel's brother, Isaac Campbell and Polly Baker.

In the 1850 and 1860 census for Isaac Campbell, there is a son, John Campbell listed, and also a female, Mariah Campbell. Some think this Mariah is John's wife, Mariah Colwell, also known as Mary Ann Colwell. The Lucy listed in the 1860 census enumeration for Isaac Campbell would be John and Mariah/Mary Ann's daughter. However, John Campbell and Mary Ann Colwell were not married until 8 May 1855. Why would John be living with Mariah in 1850 in his father's home? Is Mariah actually a daughter of Isaac Campbell, rather than a daughter-in-law?
