Purcell is usually regarded as an Irish name, though the most famous man so called, Henry Purcell, the composer, was English. Both English & Irish Purcell's are of Norman descent, the latter being found mostly in the contiguous counties of Kil Kinney and Typperary. The picturesque ruined castle of Laoughmoe, the seat of the head of the family, is well known landmark near Thurles, to be seen from the mainline halfway between Dublin and Cork.

Although Norman, the Purcell's did not come to Ireland until some years after the Anglo-Norman invasion of 1172, when they became adherents of the great Butler (Ormand) family. In Irish the name is written Puirseil. They were found as Bishops of Ferns and of Waterford and as abbots of Holy Cross and St. Johns, Kilkenny, but also as staunch fighters in the Irish cause. ### Generation No. 3

3. THOMAS<sup>3</sup> PURSELL (JOHN<sup>2</sup>, THOMAS<sup>1</sup>) was born April 9, 1720, and died 1779 in Loudoun Co., Virginia. He married MARY VAN HOOK Abt. 1741. She was born 1723, and died 1771.

Notes for THOMAS PURSELL:

From Gladice Pappas

*Taken from P.F.J.(Purcell Family Journal) July 1974 - - "That he was the Thomas later in Loudoun Co., Va., lacks positive proof, but there is strong tradition among descendants of the latter that he had come to Loudoun Co., Pa. The tradition also identifies his wife as Mary Van Hook, whom I tentatively equate with the (granddaughter of Mary Van Hook)(change in parenthesis made by Mrs Winchester) daughter of Lawrence Van Hook of Monmouth Co., esq, whose "Will" was dated July 14, 1724, probated Aug 14, 1724 (N.J. Wills, 11478 F.)

The said Lawrence Van Hook owned farms in Hunterdon Co. When he died he had adult sons and at least one married daughter, so it is possible that Mary (van Hook) Pursell was of the ;next generation. Thomas Pursell was a woolweaver, founded the town of Hillsboro Va., and established a blanket factory there. He died in Loudoun Co., in 1779; (J. Estelle Stewart King, Abstracts of Wills .... in Loudoun County, Virginia, 1757 - 1800, Beverly Hills 1941, pp 23 f.) Though all the sons were of age, none were named executor, perhaps because they were absent in the Army. Instead, Robert Jamison and James McIlhenny were appointed.
Witnesses: Josiah White, James McIlhenny and Richard Smith.

Notes for MARY VAN HOOK:

Notes: Oct 14, 1998
From Gladice Pappas
10-b Venetian Way
Indian Harbour Beach
Florida 32837

Mary Van Hook was the daughter of Henry Van Hook and the granddaughter of Lawrence Van Hook of Hunterdon Co., N.J. These early Van Hook's were skilled in wool weaving. There is little doubt that Thomas Pursell(Purcell) learned from the Van Hook's to make wool blankets. (from Purcell Family Journal Oct 1984).

Dr. Geo McCracken reports: Thomas Pursell, son of John Pursell by his wife Hannah, was baptized at the Readington Dutch Church, Hunterdon Co., N.J. 9 Apr 1720. That he was the Thomas later in Loudoun Co., Va. lacks positive proof, but there is a strong tradition among descendants of the latter that he had come to Loudoun Co. from Bucks Co., Pa. The tradition also identifies his wife as Mary Van Hook, whom I tentatively equate with the daughter of Lawrence Van Hook of Monmouth Co, Esq., whose will was dated 14 July, 1724. Probated 18 Aug, 1924 (N.J. Wills, 1:478 f). The said Lawrence Van Hook owned farms in Hunterdon Co; he had when he died adult sons and at least on married daughter, so it is possible that Mary Van Hook Pursell was of the next generation.

Daniel came to Burlington, Iowa with his widowed mother in 1836, after his father passed away. In 1849, Daniel (age 25) Joined the Gold Rush to California, struck it rich: however, on the way home he was robbed, beaten and lost all his fortune. He married Margaret Bazel in 1858 and moved to Ninger City, Minnesota where he engaged in the grocery business. After the Civil War broke out he volunteer for service and was assigned to Company F. 7th Minnesota Volunteers. He fought against the Sioux Indians under Colonel Sibley. Daniel was then sent south and took part in many battles in Kentucky and Tennessee.

According to the National Archives Records, Daniel hurt his spine at the Battle of Wood Lake in the fall of 1862. He was then sent to Camp Douglas, Chicago, Illinois and was discharged. Stated on his records he was also a carpenter and farmer. He went back to Burlington, Iowa and purchased a piece of land south of the town and became involved in farming.

Schofield Barracks No. 1

St. Louis, MO.

To The Honorable E. CW. Stanton, Sect. of War;

Sir

I wish to be released from a shameful sentence pronounced against me, Feb. 11, 1864. Charge with deserting one Regiment and joining another. I am not guilty. I could have proved it, if I had been allowed witnesses. This was maliciously done by my Capt. John Kennedy Co F. 7th Regt. Minn. Inf. I can prove this by Officers and Privates in said company. My sentence is eighteen months or the duration of my time, close confinement and hard labor; all pay due and coming pay; bounty; allowances stopped. If you please, I would like to have you look into the matter seriously. Not only myself, but my wife and four children suffer by my being confined. They depend upon my wages for support, and are now entirely destitute of money and friends. These are the facts in my case and I can prove them. The 7th Minn. had all furloughs for ten days. My officers told me to go home and stay until I was notified when and where to meet them. I was given this privilege because I lived in southern Iowa and would be on the way if the Regt. went by river, if by way of Chicago, but one days travel to catch them. I asked for a pass, was told it was not necessary, but to satisfy me, gave a few lines which were of no use to me. The Regt. was sent to join Rosencrance; My Lieut. Lorenzo W. Collins wrote to me from Ft. Snelling, Minn. Oct. 6, 1863 to be in Chicago on the 10th same month. The letter was mailed the 10th consequently I did not get it in time. I left home from Burlington, Iowa the 16th Oct. Arrived in Chicago the same day. Went to the Soldiers Home the same evening. Registered my name Co. and Regt. Went to the provost Marshall the 18th (as the 17th was Sunday). Stated the matter. He said he could not help me said not known where my Regt. was. I asked him if it would not be well to stay a few days and see if my Capt. would not write to me. He Said yes, I inquired of other authorities as to the place where my Regt. was could get no information. I left word with my wife if any letters from my Capt. came for me or her to forward them to me at Chicago. None came. The Regt. arrived at St. Louis was detailed for duty in the city. My Regt. left here about the 25th of April 1864. Previous to this Gen. Rosencrance refined orders for all Cpts. to take their men who were in Guard House along with their Regt. I was left in prison. I was arrested in Chicago by my Capt's orders while waiting to hear from him. He claims that I joined a Calvary Regt. But cannot tell what one. My name I never put on any papers for such a Regt., while in Chicago I became acquainted with a Recruiting Officer. He tried to get me to enlist in a Calvary Regt. I told him that I belonged to the Army and would not. Was waiting to hear from my Regt. so that I could go to it. Next day by chance stepped into his office. He again tried to induce me to join some Regt. I would not. Well then stay with me in my office and I will pay your board until you hear from you Regt., or go away. I assented. After being here about a week was arrested by order of the Provost Marshal, or one coming from him. He (IE) Provost Marshal said I belonged to a Calvary Regt. He arrested me because my Capt had sent my description list as belonging to Infantry. He would give me no chance to prove no Calvary enlistment. But-put me in jail. As soon as transportation came, I was sent to St. Louis without having a chance to write anyone, or get my cloths. But before getting to St. Louis I was sent to Chattanooga. My Capt. at my trial swore that I had enlisted in a Calvary Regt. I stated to him how it was. Whether he misunderstood me or not I cannot say but he swore against me. No papers exist to show what I am charged with, except what his testimony may be written upon. He came to see me after trial, but only insulted me. I asked him how he could do as he had done and consider himself an officer and a gentleman of honor. He said hush I won't hear any lies ( lies ). I could see all such mens necks stretched you have no excuse. Could have come to the Regt. as well as not. My men must come up to time or suffer the consequences. I think he punished me as I was easy to get hold of. I have written to Mr. Ignatus Donnelly a Representative of Minn. and I refer you to him as to my character. And in conclusion will say that all the officers of my Regt. were willing to sign a petition for revocation of my sentence, except my Capt.

which were necessary.

Very Respectfully yours
Daniel Purcell

Captain

I am in receipt of your letter asking for information in the case of Daniel Purcell.

He obtained a furlough in September last by the terms of which he was to join the Regt. at Winonne, Minn., a point of rendezvous on the 6th of Oct. 1863, but a verbal understanding was had that if he joined us at Chicago, Ill. in the 10th nothing would be done to him as he was to visit his family at Davenport, Iowa during the time of his Furlough.

I told Purcell that I would write him the moment we received notice indicating the day we should start.

This I did my letter being written on Oct. 3rd. Being in camp several miles from a Post Office I gave this letter with three others to Captain Kennedy who was about visiting St. Paul requesting him to mail them. This he neglected to do and they remained in his possessions until the 9th instead, when he mailed them at La Cross, Wisc. as our Regt. was passing through that place.

That letter informed Purcell that we should pass through Chicago on Oct. 10th and it is my impression that I informed him that we were ordered to St. Louis, MO. I am told that he has that letter now in his possession.

Purcell was not heard of after until his unit reported as a deserter and from information received we judged him to be in Chicago, Ill. I at once forwarded a description list to that place and in a few days was notified that he had been arrested, while a member of a Calvary Regt. having enlisted, drawing his bounty and cloths. He was afterward forwarded to this city and brought with him part of his new Calvary cloths.

He admitted to Capt. Kennedy that he had gone to another Regt. giving as a reason that upon his arrival in Chicago, IL. he could not learn where the Regt. had gone to. This was a falsehood for our Regt. was kept over night by the Chicago people, and their newspapers had quite flattering notices of it and all mentioned our destination.

As soon as we learned of his arrival in the City, Capt. Kennedy called to see him, and shortly afterward I called at the prison where he was confined. I went there with friendly feelings toward him but when asking him for an explanation of his conduct, he coolly informed me that he had to make that if he had enlisted in another Regt. it could not be proved and that he could clear himself of the charges of desertion. I never seen him afterward until his trial when I appeared as a witness. I did not remain during the trial and do not know his line of defense.

As to his charge that he was convicted through the malice of his Captain. I can say of my own personal knowledge that it is false in very particular Capt. Kennedy attended court as a witness, gave his testimony and went away immediately he did not even feel interested enough to lay before the Court this letter from the Pro. Marshall which stated that Purcell was at time of his arrest a member of another Regt.

I believe his case to be and needing severe punishment. He has applied once to Co. Marshall Cand'y 7th Regt. Minn. Vols. for assistance and after carefully examining his case the Col. absolutely refused to interfere.

I am Captain

DEATH OF DENMARK PIONEER

Daniel Purcell passes away at age of 78- formerly resided near Burlington.

Denmark, Iowa, July 8-----Daniel Purcell, for a long time a resident of Des Moines county, but who of late years has made his home in Denmark, Lee County, this state, died at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, July 1, 1902. His demise was not unexpected. For several months his family realized that the end was near. Although he passed away peacefully, his last illness was attended with much suffering, and the end came through heart failure. Daniel Purcell was born September 9, 1824, in Harrison county, Indiana, and removed with his widowed mother to Iowa in 1839 and settled near Burlington. In the spring of 1858 he removed to Mankato county, Minnesota, and engaged in the retail grocery business. Five years later, in the spring of 1863, he enlisted as a volunteer in the civil war, joining the Seventh Minnesota. After a short campaign under Colonel Sibley against the Sioux Indians, he was sent south, where he took part in a number of battles. His life as a soldier greatly impaired his health, and his death, partly due to age, was hastened by exposure in the service.

Mr. Purcell was married three times. His third wife was formerly Miss Margaret Bazel, and seven children survive him. One daughter Carrola, died in her eighteenth year and lies at rest in the Avery cemetery, West of Burlington. Most of the children are married. Two daughters, Mrs. T. F. Bazel and Mrs C. E. Brown, live near Denmark. One son, Charles E. lives in Denmark. One daughter, Mrs. J. H. Greer, resides in Kewanee, IL. This daughter was unable to be present at the funeral owing to sickness in her family. Another daughter, Mrs. Arthur Brown, lives near Sumner, MO. Mr. Purcell is also survived by a half-brother, Ebenezer Riddle, of Quincy, IL and one step-brother, Robert Riddle of Denmark, Iowa. The Deceased's home surroundings were pleasant and he made friends wherever he went by his kind disposition and charitable ways.

Mr. Purcell's life was one of varied experiences. He had traveled extensively in the United States, visiting California in 1851 and coming home by way of the Isthmus of Panama and Cuba. Mr. Purcell was not a member of any church, but his nature was thoroughly imbued with the religious ideal that true religion consists in doing good to one's fellow men.

A short but impressive funeral service was held at this home and he was laid to rest at 11 o'clock am July 3rd in the Denmark Cemetery. The family of the deceased greatly appreciate the kindness shown them during their time of sorrow.

William was a farmer and resided in Indiana and married there and left probably in 1852 after the birth of their first child. Some of the Purcell Family Journal data is incorrect (I think I gave it before learning some of the facts) He lived in Iowa until about 1865, moved to Bates Co., Missouri where he remained for 30 years. In June 1870 Wm and family were living in Pleasant Gap, Bates Co., Mo. in Feb. 1870, it is believed that his 1st wife died between Feb. and June 1870. Sometime between 1890 and 1900 William and some of his family left Missouri and went to Payne Co., Oklahoma where he lived until his death.

It is believed that William and his family may have gone to Iowa from Indiana when his uncle Jesse Purcell moved there in the early 1850's. Jesse settled in Harrison Co., and William settled in Appanoose Co. (the journal has it that they were mentioned in the 1850 Census of Iowa - an error... he was listed in the Parke Co., Ind. census that year living with his father James Purcell). There is a record of sale of land, 1859, in Appanoose Co. between William James Purscell and William Hunter, Mary's father.

William James Purcell obituary -

"William J. Pursell was born in Indiana 15 Oct, 1829 and died 7 June 1909, being 79 years, 7 months and 21 days old at the time of his death. He moved to Missouri and from there to this country at the time of the opening. He had been married twice. Eleven children were born to him, 9 of which are still living, five of them being present at the time of his death. He has been a sufferer for many years and death finally came as a relief. Mr. Purcell has been a member of the Christian Church since his youth and remained faithful until the last. The funeral services were conducted by J.M. Morris and the body was laid to rest in the Mt. Hope Cemetery. (The Ripley Mail, Ok. Fri. 11 June 1909)

Notes: from Ms Marilyn Scarbrough 560 N. St. Apt.N8907 Washington D.C. 20024-4605.

On June 28, 1860, William J. Purscell was 29 years old and farming in Douglas Township, Appanoose County, Iowa. Both his parents were from Kentucky. With him were his wife, Margaret E. In this census, the nearest neighbors of the Purscell's were a family named Hunter, also farmers. W. Hunter was born in Ohio and 62 at the time, his wife Rachel who had been born in Indiana was 52. They also had five children living with them, 14 year old William M., 11 year old Noah, 9 year old Martha, 6 year old Phoebe, and 3 year old Julia. (It is possible that W. Hunter is William Hunter and the father of Margaret.)

Shortly after Ida May was born in 1866 the family moved to Joplin, Jasper County, Mo. In 1873, William Purscell married again and in the 1880 census, he was 49 years old and farming in Walnut Township, Bates County, Missouri with his wife Juda A. who had been born in Illinois, age 39 and eight children; 22 year old Henrietta, 20 year old Mary, 16 year old James L., and 14 year old Ida M., 6 year old John, 4 year old Zachariah, and 1 year old Roy; and 13 year old Hattie Leonard (born in Iowa and whose father was from Virginia.

In 1890 - June 18, 1900, William and Juda were living in Pawnee Township, Payne County, Oklahoma with John, Zachary, Roy, Hattie and Ida May who had moved in with her three children after her husband Ezra Armstrong died in 1897. (Is it possible that Zachary was named for his grandfather, Zac Clary who was married to Margaret Hunter.)

In 1910, Juda A. Purscell was 68 years old and reported as the head of household, farming in Pawnee Township, Payne Co., OK. It states she bore 5 children and 4 were still living. She and her father were born in Illinois and her mother had been from Ohio. Living with Juda were her 33 year old widowed son, Zachariah W. and his three children; 9 year old Carl, 5 year old Ollie M., and 4 year old Willie. The children were born in Oklahoma, their father in MO., and their mother in Kentucky.

Notes for CHARLES E. PURCELL:

Burial: Long Creek Cemetery.

from: History written by Brett Van De Walker, Columbia College, 1995 English Class

Charles was born in 1866 on a farm in Denmark, Iowa near his grandparents farm. Charles taught at White School, located north of St. Paul, Iowa. My great grandmother, Elizabeth Parshall was one of his students. He was 12 years older than she. English was Charles's greatest subject. he wrote poetry which was published in local newspapers around the Burlington, Iowa area. One of his published poems is as follows:

The Old Bottom Road

Lead us from the city through its archway of stone,
With its fine gravel road-bed the hardness of bone,
Over culverts and bridges, out past the old mill,
Through cuts and through ridges, and well graded fill,
From Hinson Hill outward to old Stony Glen,
And thence again northward but nowhere its end--
Reaching out into yesterday to memory's abode,
Where dwelleth recollections of that old bottom road.

Like a lacing of yellow through a fabric of green,

That road from the city to the north may be seen,
Reaching far out to the mystic unknown,
Bordered by trees that for ages have grown,
And the beautiful vista stretching of fro the east,
To the lover of nature is a veritable feast,
And a debt paid in full that nature has owned,
Is that beautiful and dreamy old bottom road.

Guarded by bluffs upon which the sun smiles,
As they wind in and out for miles upon miles,
Those green crested hills in their bold, rugged grace,
Beam down on the springs that gush from their base;
A sip of whose nectar from a coconut shell,
Is far sweeter than a draught from the biblical well,
And the fine marble fountains of old ancient Rome,
Pales in comparison to their settings of stone.

When an infant and restless I was lulled back to sleep,
By the sound of the waters in their musical leap,
From those fountains of youth, and I grow young again,
When I visit the scenes in old Stony Glen;
The spring on its hillside was my youthful companion,
and the stream that ran through that miniature canyon,
Sparkled and gurgled as outward it flowed.
To the realms of sunshine on that old bottom road.

And a lover's delight when the clear autumn moon
In the sky overhead shone brightly at night--
A charming incentive for the vows they might plight;
To those thus inclined as was often the mode,
A most sacred place was that old bottom road.

An now a man grown, I still take delight,
In traveling that road by day or by night;
I'm charmed by the magic which its beauty supplies,
And reverence the source upon which it relies;
I'm charmed by the memories that cluster around
This beautiful thoroughfare that leads out of town---
Out in the country where my care I unload,]
When e'er I travel that old bottom road.

(Charles also collected rocks and fossils. Geodes and crinoids are especially common in the area where he lived)

NORTH OAK SCHOOL

Near the beautiful river where sunbeams quiver,
And glance from the silvery steam,
Where the zepher breeze from the northern leas,
Whisper ever of a sylvan dream,
Where the rugged bluff in patches of green and buff,
Smiles down on the bright shore line'
Where wooded isles stretch away for miles,
In a tangle of wild grape vine---

Stands North Oak School, and its gentle rule,
Is a memory of hope and joy,

That grows more dear with each coming year,
Like the gift of a precious toy;
And the building old so stanch and bold,
Like the forest oak so firm
Has sheltered us all with its daily call
For many a bygone term.

What the echoes could tell from the clanging bell,
That graces its quaint old towers!
What joyous mirth has there its birth,
At the close of the long school hours!
The tasks there begun, the struggles there won,
Our memories will hold dear forever;
The life's lessons we sought the after years brought,
As the result of our youthful endeavor.

Notes: from Ms Marilyn Scarbrough 560 N. St. Apt.N8907 Washington D.C. 20024-4605.

Aunt Bet is probably Phoebe E. (Elizabeth). Her two sons worked on the railroad. Aunt Bet believed firmly in dreams and one night she dreamt Rollie had been in a train wreck and his head was bandage. Sure enough, it was true, but he wasn't hurt badly. (Story related by Francis Seadler.)

There seems to be a deference of opinion as to middle name. John's mother Catherine's last name was Clemons, Clemmons or Clements as noted on several documents. Possibly it was changed over a period of time.

Bill Dowell remembers about John Clement Dowell.
He was kinda independant kinda, he would only eat certain foods like Meat & Potatoes, stayed with Uncle "Bill" for a while, then stayed with Otis Dowell for awhile.

Marriage Notes for FRANCES PURSCCELL and BRADY SATTERFIELD:

Notes from Marilyn Scarbrough July 16, 2000.

They had three children and Mr. Satterfield left when the third child was born.

Notes for IDA MAY PURSCCELL:

Notes, Birth & Death Date: from Ms Marilyn Scarbrough 560 N. St. Apt.N8907 Washington D.C. 20024-4605.

In the same township lived Martha J. Potter, a 62 year old widow from Illinois was farming with her 36 year old widowed son, Willis, and his 7 year old son Arthur F. Potter.

Willis and both parents were born in Illinois, Arthur was born in Oklahoma and his mother was from Texas. Juda Purcell and Martha Potter were sisters.

Daddy said Maurice Howeth believed in signs and signs might be to brand calves. Grandma said signs didn't have to be on Easter Sunday. She said she sold chickens and men wouldn't buy on Saturday. She found out they were Seventh Day Adventist's and refused to sell on the Sabbath. Grandpa took string beans to the store to trade for groceries.

Frances remembers Grandma tying (Frances & Sylvia) to the bed posts. A neighbor boy had told them he knew they could see a man with a lion and so they went - - it was a picture of Daniel in the Lion's Den at church. They stayed outside the church and talked until almost dinner time. Grandma was worried and told the girls she would untie them if they promised never to do it again. Sylvia immediately promised but Frances was so stubborn, she didn't relent for hours because she hadn't done anything wrong!!

Ida May had her picture taken as a young woman in Hume, Missouri. She and her stepsister, Hattie Leonard, used to go to parties together. Before going out, Juda would tell the girls to eat a full meal so they would eat like ladies when at a party. Ida May said she always held her hands up above her heart so the veins wouldn't show.

The Butler First Christain Church is as old as the city itself. The land was laid out in 1850, became the county seat in 1856 and at that time they erected a building that became the school and church. The city was burned in the Civil War and in 1876 the church bought land just east of the square to build the present church.

Once while living in Dixieland, Jack said "Darn" and Ida washed his mouth out with soap. He swears, 76 years later, that he could show you the exact spot that it happened. When he was 10, he was the only child left at home, and she was always gentle and had time for him. They bought a car together but she never learned to drive. Jack drove his mother to church about 360 times between the age of 13 and 19. They used to go morning and night on Sundays and sometimes they had a prayer meeting or a ladies meeting during the week. Jack said, "Sometimes we'd sit outside the Assembly of God Church and listen to them singing, they sang livelier tunes that they did at are church. Dad quit going to church because none of the men would come over to visit him while he was sick."

It is possible that Ida May and Ezra attended the Butler First Christian Church which was as old as the city itself. The land was laid out in 1850 and it became the county seat in 1856, about the same time as a building was built for use by the school and church. In 1860 a the church occupied a separate building, but it was burned in the Civil War. In 1876 a new church building was bought just east of the square.

William Purscell had built John a house and deeded him half his homestead if he would stay and take care of he and Juda as long as they lived. John left his folks while his Dad was on his deathbed and moved to Nebraska. He later returned to OK, but never to his folks. They lived on a farm near the Ferguson homestead and in 1914 John had his Mother, Juda come for a visit--she died the next day. John sued for his half of the homestead and got it. Some of John's family were living in Parlier, CA in the 1980's.

Notes for ROY A. PURCELL:

Birth Date & Notes: from Ms Marilyn Scarbrough 560 N. St. Apt.N8907 Washington D.C. 20024-4605.
They found Charles R. at a Christian Home. They had wanted both a boy and girl and were disappointed to learn that his little sister had just been adopted the day before they found Charles. A neighbor was dying and asked Lily to raise her baby daughter, Laura M.

Roy was living in Parrington, TX sometime around 1905 because his sister and her family came to stay there hoping the climate would improve her health.

Roy was living with Laura in Colorado when he died in the early 1950s.

Frances Ferguson Seadler remembers hearing that Roy had been born two months premature and was so tiny that his crib was a shoe box stuffed with cotton. In a letter to her son, John Ferguson, dated December 2, 1946, Ida May said: "John, don't think you would remember my brother Roy, my youngest half-brother. I had been wondering if he was still living with his adopted son who was here yesterday and he is living and in good health. To think he was a 7 months baby we carried him on a pillow for three months. He only weighted 1 1/2 lb when he was born."

In his father's will 7 April 1909 it is specified that Roy lives in Ellis County, OK

Notes for FREDERICK EMMERT ROWE:

Fred's father disappeared when he was very small. He was raised by his grandmother Mary Ellen Goyer Pendroy. His middle name is for the doctor that delivered him: Emmert. (In the Des Moines Iowa Avoca, Iowa, June 21, 1999. Stopped with Harry Mc Cart to find locations of homes

The 400 block on South Oak Street, Avoca, Iowa was the area of Pendroy's house, on the corner towards the interstate. Two small houses that have been torn down, one foundation and sidewalk remains. This is where Mary Ellen Pendroy lived and dad was raised. A family named Brownman (?) lived across the road and they had mules. We took pictures of the lots.

Historical Society, we found the name of the doctor that delivered him ( D.F. Emmert, M. D.) Avoca, Iowa.)

---

Letters from Fred to his Mother in Clarinda gives his address as follows:

1929-1930 working for AT&T-----New Laguna, New Mexico

1930 working for AT&T-----Fountain, Colorado

1938 932 South Leebrick Street, Burlington, Iowa

1944 1315 North Central Avenue, Burlington, Iowa

---

Fred was an electrician by trade. Last employment was at the West Burlington Railroad Shops. He retired from that job. Fred worked at odd jobs during the depression, milkman, and electrical work. He did electrical work for Doctors to help pay the medical bills. He worked at the Iowa Ordnance Plant for several years, and while working there he grabbed on to a live power line while working on a pole. A fellow worker knocked him off onto the ground, thus saving him from death. He ended up with a very badly burned hand and from then on was never able to fully open his fingers.

Fred always had large gardens and at one time grew the largest ear of corn. He won a contest for having the largest ear of corn. We grew, sweet corn, pop corn, potatoes, beets, radishes, tomatoes, peas, beans and carrots among many other things. We also had apple trees.

After divorcing Nell, Fred married Iola Graul. Iola's first husband was a friend and co-worker of Fred's at the West Burlington Shops. She had two children. She took good care of Fred and they had a nice home on the Southwest side of Burlington (1808 Delmar Street). He lived there until he was taken to the nursing home. He suffered badly with Parkinson Disease.

These notes taken on the way back from Otis Fred Dowell funeral by Dorothy Dowell as Cecil & Gordon Dowell talked in the car:

Dad was born in Kansas City, Missouri in 1889. At the age of 11 yrs in 1900 his family moved to Ripley, Oklahoma. They farmed in the Engels and Mt. Hope community.

He married Flora Rebecca Tunnel of Ripley, Oklahoma in Nov. 1912. They had 6 children. Two of the children died in infancy.

First lived in Engels community about 3 miles south of East-West junction on the road south to Cushing.

Ruth was born there in 1913. Next, moved to "The Mc Neff Place". It was located on the section of land just north of the Wal-Mart Store in Stillwater.

There Grand Dad ran a dairy and delivered bottled milk. Cecil was born on the Mc Neff Farm in 1916. Probably Bill in 1923.

Then moved to "The School Quarter" which is located where the Swan Rubber Plant is now. Gordon was born there in 1932.

Next they moved to the farm where Gordon grew up. 80 acres, 1 mile east, 1 mile north, quarter east from the school quarter

Eureka School District. Gordon graduated from Eureka H.S. in 1951.

There were 2 more classes before they closed Eureka H.S. in 1953. The school is a mink farm now.

Moved to Stillwater on Ramsey St. in 1952. Lived there about 9 mo. and bought a house on Duncan St. in 1953.

Helped organize the Stillwater Church of Christ in early 1920's. The church first met in a rented space above Ford Co.

Next meet in a little wooden frame building on 10th St. south of Grooms Furniture.

Then bought property at Sixth & Husband across from the Court House where First Federal sits. (Gordon & Dorothy attended there).

New church building built in 1962. Located at corner of Duck and McElroy St. Student Center built in 1966?

Grand Dad served on North Star School Board. Served on Production Credit Board. Church Elder for forty years.

Grand Dad loved gardening, Loved young people.

According to Dorothy Dowell, "I should note college-aged students loved Grandfather Dowell (Otis Fred). They composed a chorus for his funeral and some told funny stories about him when they came to him for help. He truly learned his lesson and followed through on loving young people."

"Hettie moved from place to place with her father and mother, but most of her young life they lived near Glencoe or Perkins, Oklahoma. When Hettie was sixteen, she married Harry Sackett. They had one son, Irvin. Irvin and his wife are living in Ponca City, Oklahoma, at this writing.

Irvin's father died soon after his birth and some time later his mother, Hettie, met and married John Daugherty. The Daugherty's lived just south of Glencoe for many years. They had three children Ruth, ruby, and Rose Marie.

At the present time Ruth lives in Oklahoma City, Ruby lives in Kansas, and Rose Marie in North Carolina.

After John Daugherty's death in 1955, Hettie moved around visiting her children in their homes. She is now living with her daughter's mother-in-law, Faye Sugg, in Cleveland, Oklahoma.

Hettie tells me that on one occasion when she and Vertis had gone for drinking water she was bitten by a rattlesnake that had eleven rattlers. Her survival was probably one of the miracles of that day. At any rate, survive she did, even though it was in August when she was bitten and she was able to walk very little before the following October."
