Notes for Jacob M. Domer:

Elder Jacob M. Domer was born in Rockland township, Venango County, Pa., on the fourteenth day of December, 1830. He was the second son of a family of six sons and four daughters.

His marriage to Margaret Bollinger occurred May 7, 1850. His wife was a member of the Church of God, and was a helpmeet in the truest sense. Their union was blest with three children, two sons and one daughter.

Shortly after his conversion he entered the work of the ministry, and was licensed in 1856. At this time his work of usefulness to the Church properly begins. During his ministerial career he served the Venango, New Brighton and Westmoreland circuits, the latter for eight successive years, a part of the time in connection with Elder Peter Loucks.

In 1868 he was appointed to the Venango circuit, and in the early part of 1869 he moved to Barkeyvill, where, in connection with other points on the circuit, he continued to preach until about five weeks before his death. His first appointment, a number of years before, was in that county, and it also proved to be his last field of labor.

During the year 1872 his health continued to fail, and on November 9th resulted in congestion of the lungs. He grew rapidly worse, and on Friday morning, November 15th, he passed away, aged forty-one years, eleven months and one day.

The funeral services were held at Barkeyville, November 17th. The discourse was preached by Elder P. Loucks, his long and intimate friend. His body was laid to rest near the church. Tuly his works have followed him.

*Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ,
And, while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Savior's joy.*

Notes for George Simon Domer:

For a few years after his marriage, George Simon Domer worked on a farm that had been owned by his father, Mathias, in order to keep it going after his father's death in 1850. He bought his own farm in 1858. It was 74 acres of land located on East Sandy Road near Smith's Corners in Rockland Twp.

In 1855 George became an Evangelical minister and founded the Domer Evangelical Chapel on his farm. A small school, known as Domer School, was built next to the church. The church was still standing in 1984, but the school had been destroyed some time earlier.

Notes for Thomas Emerson Bond Mattern:

My grandfather used to talk about his uncles, John and Bondy. My grandmother knew them only slightly, because her mother was a first cousin of Elizabeth (Domer) Mattern (hence our double relationship). I may have mentioned that my grandparents met via this family connection.

My grandma told me that when she was a little girl she was having dinner with Bondy and his family and that Bondy got up from the table with the butcher knife and announced to everyone that he was going down to the stable to kill their horse. His wife called for her sons and told them to go and stop their father before he sent the horse to its final reward. My grandfather always said that Bondy was under the influence of painkillers such as morphine and laudenum and that he got addicted while being treated for some sort of ailment such as a kidney infection. My grandfather was only 14 when Bondy died, so I would guess that he heard these details from his father.

The house that my grandparents lived in from 1922 until 1986 was the home in which Bondy and his family resided ca. 1900. (2825 Fifth Avenue, Altoona, PA). Originally purchased in 1895, Bondy sold the property to his brother Robert about 1903, who in turn sold it to my grandfather. The garage in the back yard supposedly was made from the lumber that was salvaged from the stable where the unfortunate horse resided.
