Margaret Cunningham came to America with her cousin Katherine Breslin, about 1905. Though aunt and niece, they were about the same age. They married brothers William and Henry Kniefel, Germans in Idaho and lived in Mountain Home Idaho. Katherine had left Ireland while her brothers and sisters were too young to remember her. In 1952 at the funeral of William Diskin, son of Beatrice (Breslin) Diskin, who had been killed in Korea, she met her sister Helen for the first time.
