Litsey Family

Compiled by Doris E French

This family history is not complete. It is only the information I have been able to gather since the start of my interest in putting together a family history.

I have tried to be as accurate as possible with the data I had at the time of this printing. There are no doubt errors and omissions which I regret. I have included information from news clippings and various people and sources which at times may not be correct.

Any corrections or additions anyone has to offer would be most welcome as I continue to work on this project. You may contact me or my daughter.

[OBITUARY] from: Oskaloosa Weekly Herald - Mar. 10, 1887.

THE LATE JOHN MOORE

MOORE - Died, near Rose Hill, Mahaska Co. IA., Mar. 5, 1887, Mr John Moore, in the 64th. year of his age.

Mr. Moore was born in Vigo Co., IN., Feb. 14, 1824. His father, Wm. Moore, died in his 87th. year, and his mother is still living, being nearly 100 years. old.

John Moore and Catherine Litsey were married in Park Co. IN., Sept. 20, 1849, and 2 weeks after their marriage they loaded in a two-horse wagon all they possessed and set out for IA., settling in this county, near the farm where Mr. Moore died. There were born to them 12 children, 4 sons and 8 daughters, 10 of whom are living and 9 attended their father's funeral. The names of the daughters are Elma, Lou, Mary, Vada, Nina, Siddle, Lizzie, and Allene. Lizzie died quite young, but Allene was in her 14 th. year, a large lovely girl, much admired for her good qualities of head and heart. The names of the sons are Edward, George B., Albert and Alfred. These children were all born in Mahaska Co., and by the energy and industry of parents and children Mr. Moore left at death one of the best farms of 320 acres in the county, with good buildings very conveniently arranged upon it.

The writer was called to attend the funeral, and to the family and a large assembly of neighbors and friends endeavored to encourage all to put their trust in God and hope for the grand results in the final development of his purposes toward all our race. The service consisted in reading a portion of the 15th. chapter of 1st. Corinthians, followed by a song by selected singers and prayer. Then a portion of 1st. John, 4th. chapter was read, from which the words, "God is love," in the 16th. verse, were selected as a motto to discuss the nature, wisdom, power and final consumation or completion of God's love to mankind; that all are the children of one common Father, "who made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth," and sent his son to die for all, and that life and immortality were brought to light through the death, burial and resurrection of Christ, and Christ having risen from the dead, a safe and sure guarantee that all will be made alive in him. But knowing the prejudice of some against any being saved unless they have a certain kind of experience before death, the speaker having some knowledge of the history of the human race, and the unnumbered millions that have died without the knowledge of Christ here, and if ever benefited by his death and resurrection it must after they enter the next world, and the very idea of narrowing down God's love and the labors of Christ for man's salvation, to this little world, and the very few, comparatively speaking, that are converted in Christian countries, is a sad compliment to God's love and the universal sacrifice of Christ for the sins of the world.

In conclusion the writer will make some allusion to the life and habits of Mr. Moore. In many respects Mr. Moore set a bad example. The writer had had some experience in doing a little business with him. At such time he was always John Moore, did the proper and right thing, and in visiting him at his house he was a gentleman. His widow told me after his death that when he was John Moore he was a good husband and father, and an accommodating friend and neighbor. But like thousands of others he contracted a bad habit, and too often, under the influence of that habit he would be wreckless, which brought him into many difficulties, that seemed to cover and stultify the good he had done. Christ said of his murderers, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." After the noble example set forth in the above request, let us cultivate more charity for the erring. John Moore is dead. "His love and hatred and envy have perished; neither has he any more a portion forever in all that is done under the sun." The great apostle of the Gentiles once said of himself that he was a blasphemer, a persecuter, and an injurious person, yet he obtained mercy, confessing with all his intelligence that he did these things ignorant of what he was doing. The closing hymn was then sung,

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep."

The religious seivces being over, Mr. McCurdy took charge of the funeral. The face and chest were exposed to full view, and that large assembly took their leave. Then came the family amid sobs and sighs and looked upon that face for the last time. The beautiful case was then closed, and the procession soon formed and moved away to the Old Rose Hill cemetery, where sleep many of the old pioneers and others who have fallen long since the first interments. The casket was lowered into the grave, and a few appropriate words were spoken, dismissing with the apostolic benediction, after which Mr. McCurdy thanked the people for their aid and presence.

THOMAS BALLINGER.

DEATH OF HENRY LITSEY

Henry Litsey, age about 75, died at his home near the Narrows of Sugar Creek last Monday of heart disease after a short sickness. He was widely known. During the Civil War he served in the 14th. Calvary. Funeral services will be held probably, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the residence, depending on the arrival of his daughter, Frona, who was in the west.

[OBITUARY] from: Rockville Republican, Dec. 6, 1905

Henry Litsey, born April 11, 1833, died Nov. 20, 1905, age 72 years, 8 months, 9 days.

Henry was the 11th. child of the family of 15 children of Henry and Nancy Litsey. Entering, as early as 1820, this homestead where we have met today, to pay the sad rites to this beloved brother, husband, father, grandfather and uncle. Here grandfather Litsey toiled and labored to clear this land, which was a dense forest at that time, to build a home to rear his family. Here at this same home, Uncle Henry was born, has lived and died.

He was a volunteer soldier in the Civil War, enlisting the 31st. day of July 1862, for 60 days service, being honorably discharged at the end of that time, and again enlisting December 18, 1863, for three years service, performing his duties faithfully until he was released Sept. 1, 1865, at the close of the war.

May 6, 1869, he was united in marriage to Caroline M. Day, who still survives him. To this union five children were born: Elmer, Luther, Saphrona Ellen and Laura Ida Nevins and William, the later dying in infancy. Two brothers, Edward D., and Ulysses Grant, and three sisters, Adeline Moore, Katherine Moore and Mary Louise Bacus, survive him. His life was one that was open and frank and without deceit. He was kind to and a lover of children. His conversation was encouraging. He was always just the same Henry, and in his death one more home is broken - husband's, father's and grandfather's chair is empty. His face has passed from our sight.

Judge not: the workings of his brain
And of his heart thou canst not see;
What looks to thy dim eyes a stain.
In God's pure light may only be a scar,
Brought from some well worn field,
Where thou wouldst only faint and yield.

Mrs. Keller was twice married, her first husband, Henry Litsey, dying several years ago. Richard Keller, to whom she was later married, died about a year ago. She was a woman well liked in the neighborhood in which she resided and was ever ready to care for the afflicted and to work for good of the community. Besides the daughters she is served by two sons, Elmer, of Marshall, and Luther, of Portland, Ore. Funeral services, largely attended, were held at the Methodist church in Marshall, of which she was a member, Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. R.E. Nolan, burial in Bethany cemetery .

EDWARD D. LITSEY

Edward D. Litsey, son of Henry and Nancy Litsey in whose memory we are gathered here today, was born in Howard township, Parke county, IN., on Jan. 7, 1836; died in Marshall, IN., Feb. 27, 1918, aged 82 years, 1 month and 20 days.

The subject of this sketch grew to manhood, experiencing the life of a pioneer and helping to create, out of the wilderness, a beautiful and productive community. When the call of his country to preserve the Union came, he in Aug. 1861, enlisted in Co. "I", 31st. Indiana Inf. and gave faithful and loyal service. On Dec. 31, 1862, being so seriously wounded at the battle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., as to unfit him for further duty, he was honorably discharged Mar. 9, 1863, at Louisville, KY.

On Dec. 31, 1863, he was married to Agnes S. Nelson, and to this union were born 4 daughters: Etta, now Mrs. J.N. Hobson, of Peshastin, WA. ; Stella, now Mrs. Z.B. McClure, of Grand Junction, CO. ; Florence, now Mrs. George Newlin, of Indianapolis, and Leona, now Mrs. C.D. Smith, of Marshall.

While yet a young man, he, with his wife, identified themselves with the Bethel Newlight church near their home and continued his relationship until the changing of community interests made it impossible to sustain the church longer and it ceased to exist.

Mr. Litsey spent all of his active life on the land which his father entered from the government, building up a happy and prosperous home thereon, and only leaving it to reside in Marshall when the infirmities of age compelled him to retire from active life. Always taking a deep interest in the affairs of his community, he was ever on the side of progress and right and morality. He was always interested in his old comrades in arms and the affairs of the Grand Army of the Republic. The few remaining members of which will miss his companionship and presence until the last and never ending reunion of the eternal camping ground.

This kind and loving father leaves, with sad hearts, a faithful wife, 4 daughters, 7 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, one brother, U.S. Litsey of Fountain county and a host of relatives and friends.

And so this honored citizen and soldier who lived to see so many changing and stirring scenes in this life, we say, "Hail and farewell."

Funeral services were held at the Marshall Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Boyer of Waveland. Burial in Bethany cemetery. Bearers of the pall were, H.S. McCampbell, Claude Kelley, Silas Dooley, Earl Litsey, H.A. Henderson and Ora Newlin.

MRS. A.C. LITSEY PASSES AWAY AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

Came of Sturdy English Parentage Leaves four Generations to Mourn Her Death

-----
Mrs. Agnes C. Litsey, 91, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C.D. Smith, at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

She had been suffering of heart trouble for sometime and angina pectoris finally caused her death.

Having lived in Parke County most of her life, Mrs. Litsey was very well known in this vicinity. She has shown a great deal of interest in the progress of Marshall and the modern ways and means of the world in general. She belonged to only one club, the Marshall Sewing Club, but she found much enjoyment within that circle and attended regularly. She was a member of the old New Light Church which once was established north of Marshall. After it was discontinued she did not join another.

Mrs. Litsey was a member of a family of 10 children and the daughter of James and Jane Nelson. Mr. & Mrs. Nelson came to this country from England and Mrs. Litsey, the first American of the family was born on a farm near Bloomingdale. Her parents both lived to be nearly a century old, her father having died at the age of 92 and her mother at 99. Mrs. Litsey attended the district school at Bloomingdale and later the old Bloomingdale Academy. For several years she taught in the district school there.

On Dec. 31, 1863, she was united in marriage with Edward D. Litsey. They lived on a farm 2 miles north of Marshall until the year of 1914 when they moved to the property in Marshall, now owned and remodeled by C.D. Smith. They were the parents of 4 daughters, all of whom are living. Mr. Litsey died in Feb., 1918 and since that time she lived with her 2 daughters, Mrs. Etta Hobson of Wenatchee, WA., and Mrs. Smith of Marshall. For the past 2 years she spent her entire time here.

The survivors, other than those mentioned above are 2 daughters, Mrs. Z.B. McClure of Grand Junction, CO., who attended the funeral, and Mrs. George W. Newlin of Indianapolis; 2 sisters, Mrs. Linda Cook and Miss Belle Nelson of Marshall; 2 brothers, George Nelson of Coffeetown, KS. and Alex Nelson of Marshall; 7 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild.

The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. The Rev. William B. Chancellor of Lafayette officiated and was assisted by the Rev. H. Ray Sigler, pastor of the church. The Rev. Mr. Chancellor was a very good friend of Mrs. Litsey and it was her wish that he have charge of her funeral. Ora Newlin sang "In the Land Where They Never Grow Old" and the Chapman quartet rendered several numbers. The interment was at Bethany Cemetery.

(In another similar obituary the following was added)

She went "Like the passing of the sunlight,

When the well spent day is done;

Or the fading of the star-beam

In the brighter day begun.

"Like the ripened sheaves of autumn

When the reaper's task is o'er,

Or the last look toward the vessel

Which has sought a fairer shore."

[OBITUARY] from: Waveland Independant - May 1, 1908

MRS. ULYSSES LITSEY died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Myers near Wallace, April 22 at the age of 64 yrs, 4 mo. and 18 days. She suffered a paralytic stroke about 4 years ago, but death was caused by pneumonia. Funeral services were conducted at the Lutheran Church near Wallace, by Rev. Isaiah Whitman. Interment was in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Juliett Orpha Litsey was the d/o Husten & Hannah Dooley who at the time of her birth resided in Parke Co. It was there that she spent her early life and grew to womanhood. On March 20, 1862 she married Ulysses L. Litsey. To them 4 children were born, one dying in infancy. The others: W.G. Litsey, of Spokane, WA.; Mrs. Emma Myers of Wallace and Mrs. Ida Deer of this place, with the husband, survive. At the age of 17 she united with the Newlight Church at what was known as the Spunky Point Church, under the pastorate of Rev. Joel Thomas. In this faith she continued steadfast through life, adorning it with a Godly walk and converstaion, and while ever ready to do a good deed or speak the kindly work that true religion demands of all, yet it was to the sick and afflicted that she was especially drawn, and many remember with grateful hearts her ministrations of love and mercy in her home. She was a loving wife, an affectionate mother, a true friend, a good neighbor and a Christian woman in the true sense of that term.

She leaves 3 brothers, 1 sister, a husband, 1 son, 2 daughters, 8 grandchildren, and many other friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

The following clipping was found in her Bible, which she no doubt treasured because it breathed the spirit in which she bore the long years of suffering from which death brought welcome release:

" I'm weary, weary, O so weary,
Is the journey nearly o'er?
Do you see the loved ones beckoning,
Standing on the other shore?
Can you see one sign of welcome
For a soul, weak with despair?
Guide , O guide me to you heaven;
There is rest - just over there!"

SUDDEN DEATH OF A HOWARD WOMAN

This community was greatly shocked and surprised Monday to hear of the death of Miss Delia Bacus of Howard, who passed away at an early hour Monday, following a stroke of paralysis, Sunday afternoon.

She had been in her usual health and Sunday she attended the M.E. Sunday school, taught her class in the absence of the regular teacher, and attended the regular church service, being a loyal and faithful member of the church. After the services she went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Hayes for dinner, and after dinner was listening to a radio program when it was noticed she suddenly leaned her head on her hand, apparently dozing, and when interrogated said she was ill. She was given attentions and a physician was called, but by that time she had passed into a coma, and did not again speak. She was taken to the home of her niece, Mrs. Cecil Green, where she passed away early Monday morning.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church, Wednesday at 2:30, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W.C. Chappell, a large number of friends and neighbors attending. The choir sang favorite hymns, with Miss Maxine Mays at the piano. Interment was in Grace Lawn cemetery.

The obituary as follows was read at the services:

Comfort Ardelia Bacus was born May 28, 1866, near Ward Mill, Park county, Indiana and departed this life on March 20, 1933, at the age of 66 years, 9 months and 22 days.

When about 3 years of age she was stricken with spinal meningitis, which left her a cripple the rest of her life.

She came to Kansas, with her parents in 1882, settling in Elk county on a farm west of Howard, where she grew to womanhood. In 1906 she with her parents moved into Howard where she lived until the time of her death. She united with the Methodist church in 1904, where she was a faithful and loyal member until the very hour of her death. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, also a member of the Ladies of the G.A.R., Collumbia Circle No.91.

She was preceded in death by her mother in 1909 and her father in 1919, one sister Marguerite E., who died in infamcy. She leaves to mourn her loss one sister, Effie Moore of Kingman, Indiana; two brothers, L.A. and E.H. Bacus of Howard, several nieces and nephews and other relatives and a host of friends.

DEATH OF AARON CLUM

Aaron Clum of tjhis county died at Eureka Springs, Ark. July 22. He had been there for several weeks with the vain hope that his rapidly failing health might be benefitted. His death, while no surprise to those who knew his condition, was nevertheless a great shock to the entire community, for but a few months ago he was a splendid specimen of physical manhood.

Mr. Clum was born in Williams county, Ohio, March 14, 1840; moved to Oakland county, Mich. when but a child, where he grew to manhood and where in 1864, he was married to Adaline Franklin. In 1871 they came to Kansas and settled where he has ever since lived in this county. About 20 years ago his wife died, and on New Years Day, 1878, he was married to Mrs. Kate McKey. To this union there were born 3 sons and 1 daughter, the daughter dying in infancy. The wife and 3 sons survive him.

Aaron Clum's life has been an active one. He has conducted large farming and stockraising interests, besides buying and shipping live stock, and in his business has always been honorable and energetic. He leaves his family well provided for.

The funeral was held at his late home, Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. D.K. Steel.

An immense crowd of neighbors and friends from all the surrounding country were there to do the last honors to the dead, and the remains were interred at the Cresco cemetery. The mourning family have the heartfelt sympathy of all.

[MGS] Mary died of Typhoid Fever & Pneumonia.

[OBITUARY] from: Waveland Independant - July 12, 1918.

MISS MARY MYERS , 19 years of age, oldest daughter of M/M O.L. Myers of Howard Twp. died at the home of her parents Friday morning at 10 o'clock after little over 3 weeks illness of typhoid fever which developed into pneumonia. The immediate cause of Miss Myer's death was the breaking of an abcess on her lung. Miss Myers was a favorite in her community and popular with a large circle of friends. She was a graduate of Marshall H.S. Class of 1917, and took an active part in all work for the betterment of the school and her classmates. During the recent war chest drive her ability and patriotism was recognized and she was honored by being named Twp. sec. The excellent record of this unit was attributed in a large extent to her untiring efforts and ability. Miss Myers for several years has been assistant correspondent to the Tribune. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church in Marshall, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. G.K. Kenaton of Crawfordsville, assisted by the local pastor. The funeral was one of the largest attended of any ever held in the northern part of the county. Six young ladies, classmates of Miss Myers, acted as bearers of the pall and six young women served as flower bearers. - Rockville Tribune.

[OBITUARY] from: Elk Co., KS. paper - March 8, 1917.

GEORGE LITSEY DEAD

George Litsey was born in Howard, Kansas, January 24th. 1889, and passed away in Denver, Colorado, March 1st. 1917, after a long and lingering illness of tuberculosis. George lived in Howard in his school days and a host of friends both young and old, feel the loss with a deep regret.

His mother, Mrs. Deed Tinker, brought the body to Howard Saturday night, from Denver, where he was buried, taking the body to the cemetery from the train, where a beautiful and impressive service was held. Mrs. Tinker was accompanied by her friend, Mrs. N.R. Pratt Jr., from Denver.

George was a kind and affectionate son, a disposition of worth and he bore his sufferings to the end without complaint.

Mrs. Tinker has the sympathy of this entire community in her great loss.

Quite a large crowd of friends met the funeral party at the train, Saturday evening. The remains were taken at once to the cemetery escorted by several auto loads of people. It was dark by this time, but the autos were circled around the grave and the headlights brilliantly illuminated the scene. It was quite cold and the ground was covered with snow, so the service was brief. Rev. Kearns read a selection from the burial ritual, a male quartette composed of Whit and Ben Eby, Thos. E. Thompson and Frank Dobyns sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and the service was concluded with prayer. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers, and the entire service while brief and unusual, was beautiful and impressive .... George Litsey was a grandson of the late George W. McKey, and the last of his generation of Mr. McKey's descendants, two other grandchildren having preceded him to the grave.

Death A Week Before Discovery
John M. Hill Lived Alone North of Goff

Death, certified by Coroner Robert Popkess to have been the result of heart disease and acute indigestion, is believed to have come to John M. Hill, 60, a farmer one and a quarter miles north of Goff on or about Feb. 12 or 13 but the body was not discovered until Friday, the 19th. He lived alone.

Coroner Popkess, who was summoned after a neighbor, Mr. Clelland, found the body, said that an Atchison Glove dated the 13th. was still in the mail box. Mr. Popkess said tha Mr.Hill was a regular attendant at Odd Fellow Lodge and his friends wondered about him. Mr. Hill had complained of illness.

Mr. Hill's stock suffered intensely in their owner's absence . Of four cows, standing in stanchions, one was dead. Two horses were tied in their stalls. The chickens, some dead, were penned in.

Mr. Hill's body the Coroner said , was completely frozen. It was in bed.

John M. Hill was one of Goff's first rural mail carriers and was regarded as a progressive farmer. He was born and reared near Goff. YOUTH DIES AT HOME NEAR TOWN

DEATH ENDS LINGERING ILLNESS THAT BAFFLED SKILLED SURGEONS MORE THAN THREE MONTHS; BURIAL AT BETHLEHEM.

Thomas Doswell Claybrooke, age thirteen years, died at 4:40 o'clock Wednesday morning, July 20, 1932, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R Claybrooke, three miles East of this city, his death being attributed to a complication of diseases that baffled the most skilled surgeons for more than three months.

Young Claybrooke submitted to two operations during the early stages of his illness at Elizabeth Hospital at Lebanon but failed to respond to treatment and was returned to the hospital several weeks ago for further examination. Surgeons at that time delcared nothing could be done to relieve his suffering and he was returned to the family home to spend the remaining days of his life. He bore his suffering with marvelous patience and faced the final dissolution without wavering in his childhood faith, realizing death was but a release fom his sufferings here.

Besides his parents, deceased is survived by three sisters, Misses Mary Frances, Elle and Beulah Claybrooke, and three borthers, Morrie, J. R., and Hurbert Claybrooke.

Funeral services, conducted by his pastor, the Rev J. N Binord, were held at the Baptist Church in this city at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, interment following in the family lot in Bethlehem Cemetery.
