Notes for Nicholas Harley Kleinhuizen:

Military Service Mar 1, 1945 until Dec 30, 1946

Dad entered the Army at Ft. Snelling outside of Minneapolis along with several others from the area. From there he rode a troop train to Jefferson Barracks, Mo. for in processing, shots, and clothing issue. He then got back on a troop train and arrived at Camp Joseph T. Robinson outside of Little Rock, Ark. on Mar 3 or 4 for 12 weeks of basic training. He said when they got the occasional pass they would take the bus to North Little Rock and then walk over the bridge into Little Rock. He said he and Gerald and Jack Kreps visited with Ben DeBoer at the University of Arkansas. Upon completion of boot camp he took the train to Willmar via Sioux Center and Minneapolis, arriving on July 21 where his dad picked him up and took 10 days leave. His brother Junior drove him back to Willmar on Aug 3 where 3 buses were waiting to take the soldiers back to a troop train in Minneapolis. He said he had to ride the bus standing up as the buses were over full. He spent 3 days on the train with stops in St. Louis and Ogden before arriving at Camp Adair in Oregon on Aug 7. He said the train was very hot so they rode with the windows open but hot cinders and smoke often came in. The seats were also two man wood seats. He spent 1 week at Camp Adair before again leaving for Oakland, Ca. There he was tagging for a ship to the Japanese theater. He said he spent a couple days in Stockton filling barrels with gasoline for shipping. He boarded a LSV (Vehicle Landing Ship) for the transit. He departed on 25 August 1945. By the time they passed under the Golden Gate Bridge the seas were already taking it's toll and when they hit open water there was spaghetti all over. To this day he dislikes spaghetti. It was 15 days zig zagging across the Pacific before they landed on Ulithi in the Philippines on 8 Sept. On 9 Sept he departed Ulithi and arrived in Manila on 13 Sept. He disembarked the ship on Sunday 16 Sept. He spent ten days in tents. There were a lot of ships sunk in the Manila harbor from the previous years of fighting. Here he saw his first Tournapole (heavy earth moving equipment). He then departed Manila on 26 Sept aboard a Liberty ship to Okinawa arriving 28 Sept. The ship returned to sea to ride out a storm and returned to Okinawa on 2 Oct. Once in Okinawa he again spent a week in tents but this time a typhoon came through. As you can imagine a tent is not a good place to be during a typhoon. They sand bagged the tents but still had to abandon them in the middle of the night. They made there way to a cave but it too was unsafe. There was a dud (unfired shell) in the cave and then the rain started to make the mud to fall in. Their duffel bags were washed away but they found them back a couple days later. Several ships washed up on the shore. The local bunch on men did there best to stay together, often jumping from one assigned truck to another. They once found a grenade and threw it and it went off. They took off running through what turned out to be a mine field. Dad said that sure was dumb. On 13 Oct he boarded a ship to Korea. No one knew where that was. They landed on 20 Oct in Inchon and rode a train to Poosan and then trucks to Chin Hay where he stayed in Japanese barracks. He was assigned to the 164th Field Artillery, 40th Division on 25 Oct. He stood guard duty during elections and guarded jails. He then was sent to Seoul via train and assigned to the Dept of Agriculture, Livestock section at HQ Co USAMGIK (United States of America Military Government In Korea) on 12 Feb 1946. He worked on the 4th floor of the capital building. He and two others had a jeep assigned to them. They were Sgt Bueler, Dad, and a Lt. Joplin. They would have to go out the dairy farms and would often stay overnight. They would have to account for all the grain and make sure they had what they needed. When staying out they would stay in the house and sleep on grass mats on the floor but it was nice and warm. He lived in an open bay barracks and. When not working he played a lot of softball and cards. Duty consisted of various guard duties.

On 21 Oct 46 (the world series was on) he shipped out of Inchon and stopped in Yokohama on 25 Oct. About midway out of Yokohama they encountered a big storm but no one got sick this time. He arrived in Seattle on 6 Nov and then moved to Ft Lewis, Wa where he boarded a train for Ft Sheridan, Ill. He said the train went right through Renville. He remembers looking down main street as it went through. He said it was a fast and smooth train. He spent 2 days out processing at Ft Sheridan. He then had his first airplane ride from Chicago to Minneapolis. He then took a bus to Willmar where Mom's oldest sister and husband happened by and gave him a ride home. He was home at the end of Nov of 46 on terminal leave and was officially discharged on 30 Dec 46. His awards included Sharpshooter BAR, Machine Gun, M-1, Korean Campaign, and Good Conduct. His promotions were; Pfc to Cpl 14 May 46, Cpl to Tec 4 21Aug 46, Tec 4 to SSgt 23 Sept 46. His service number was 377891449.

After completing his military obligation he worked for uncle John Builthuis on the farm for one year (1947). He then worked for seven years for Bergess Construction of Clara City / Prinsburg (48 - 55) as a mechanic. He then went out on his own and started Nick's Repair in a quonset building of Klass Mulder where H&L now has a parking lot. Dad had one end and H&L had the other. He was in that location for one year (1956). It was quite cold in that building during the winter. He then had the Champlin Station (the building just east of NAPA) in 57 and 58. He then teamed with his brother-in-law Muff and started Clara City Implement where he was the mechanic. They sold and repaired Farmall and International Harvester equipment. They started manufacturing farm equipment and were told by International Harvester they couldn't do that so they got out of the franchise and moved back to Renville in 1962 and started K&M Manufacturing and Repair. Dad worked on the repair side of the business and custom made almost anything you could imagine from steel and run a machine shop. Dad retired in Oct of 1990.

Notes for Clarence Kleinhuizen:

This article came from "The Sacred Heart News" in about 1945.

Sgt. Clarence Kleinhuizen formerly of Raymond, has written an interesting letter to his parents , Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Kleinhuizen, telling of the entry of his tank outfit into Paris, at the time the allied armies liberated that city.

From somewhere in France, he wrote:

"Theres one place I'll never forget, and that's the capital. We were the first tanks to roll into the City of Paris, and I never saw so much cheering, weeping and crowds of French people. In fact I was driving the first tank-No. 1, and do you know the crowds made it impossible to get through, they were crying because they were so happy to see us.

"And I will never in all my life been kissed so much as there; men and women and babies and also nice young girls. Its the French custom even when they meet each other on the street they kiss each other on both cheeks. They even kissed our dirty hands.

"One old woman, in broken English said, with tears in her eyes, 'my stomach is empty but heart is full of happiness

"You see the Germans took all the food while they were in Paris and when they left took everything they could. But that picture seems to stay in my mind, the cheering and weeping crowds. It almost made me feel like crying at times, when an old woman would come up to you, crying because she was so happy, and saying she waited four years for us to come.

"Oh there's much I could write about, but this all happened the 25th and 26th of August. I wish I could tell you where I am now but that will have to wait awhile.

"I feeling fine and everything is going quite well."

Sgt. Kleinhuizen has sent home a large number of souvenirs and he wrote to his parents "I suppose they seem funny to you but when I get home and explain them it will be different. Some of them have a long story behind them."

Sgt. Kleinhuizen entered the service November 3, 1942 and in 1943 arrived in North Africa. He was at Casablanca and Oran, took part in the Sicilian campaign un-and that is where the copy of the article I have ends.

Albert Klaas Kleinhuizen was born in Ulrum, Netherlands, March 8, 1842. His father was Klaas Albert Kleinhuizen, born in the same locality Feb 7, 1815. Paternal grandparents, Alberts Hendricks Kleinhuizen and Trientje Van Oosten. The subject of this sketch grew up at Ulrum, and attended school in Vierhuizen, Groningen, Netherlands. he was drafted into the army under the then existing law of 1861. in 1862 he went to Gravenhage to serve in the life guards of the king and queen, called the Grenadiers and Jagers, Third Battalion, Third Company L, No. 2267. In 1864 he was mustered out and went back to his native village, Ulrum, where he worked with the farmers till 1867, when he married Martje Eijes Wiersum, daughter of Eije Freerks Wiersim and Aaltje Klaas Zuidema. Mrs. Kleinhuizen was born at Ulrum Dec 1, 1840. In 1867 Mr. Kleinhuizen came to America, landing in New York July 1st. He took up residence in Chicago, went through that memorable experience, the Chicago fire. He escaped with life and property, although the fire was so near his home that everything was packed up to save if possible if the fire should come that way.

On April 1 1886, he came to Kandiyohi county and took possession of a quarter section of land that he had bought from Prins & Kock on August 15th the previous year. He was one of the first Holland settlers to locate in the township. The land is in section 15, town of Holland, two miles from Prinsburg, eight miles from Raymond and sixteen miles from Willmar. The distance to school is sixty rods.

Mr. Kleinhuizen took a leading part in the organization of the township and school district. he was one of the first organizers and members of the Prinsburg congregation of the church of Christian Reform, was an elder for many years, and during the periods when the church has had no resident pastor a large share of the care of the same was borne by him. Mr. Kleinhuizen has always labored for the moral welfare of the community. The history of Holland township would be incomplete without a biography of Mr. Kleinhuizen. It is stated in the history of this township that the immigrants were a hard working, God-fearing people. It is a curious fact that in the settling of new communities its character in nationality, religion and morality is generally determined by the first settlers. After Mr. Kleinhuizen moved into Holland he was employed by the company to induce other Hollanders to immigrate to the township. his friends in Chicago were almost all members of the Christian Reformed church, who knew him as a man of integrity, and the result to-day is that most all the Hollanders in the colony belong to that denomination. As long as that church stands it will be a monument in remembrance of his work and care.

Two years ago Mr. Kleinhuizen sold his farm to his son Nicholas, and retired from active management. He resides at Prinsburg, near the church.

The following children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Kleinhuizen: Grietje, aged 35, now living at Lansing, Ill.; Aaltje aged 33; Klaziena, died at her home July 10, 1901, at the age of 28; Eije, died at Chicago, Feb. 6, 1878, aged 3 1/2 years; Nicholas Alberts, aged 27, farming near Prinsburg; Nellie, aged 25; Trientje, aged 23; Tillie, died March 30, 1901, at the age of 1 1/2 years; Albert Edward, aged 18, at present attending school in Willmar.

Holland Christian Reformed Church

The first services in the vicinity of Prinsburg were conducted in February, 1886, by Rev. H. Bode of Wellsburg, Iowa. At a meeting held at the Prinsburg schoolhouse on April 29, 1886, Rev. Bode, assisted by Elder E. Eiten of Wellsburg, Iowa, organized a congregation under the name of "The Holland Christian Reformed Church." The original members of the congregation were A. K. Kleinhuizen, E. Visser, E. Poortinga, J. Ham, W. Flym, A. Huizenga and others. The same year a church was erected at Prinsburg. The dimensions of the building were 22x32x14, and the cost about $600. The firm of Prins & Koch, land agents, donated $300 towards building the church. This building was used as a place of worship until the year 1902, when the present fine church building was erected. The old building is now used as a consistory. The new church is a frame structure, 44x66x18, with tower. It has a basement with heating plant. The total cost was $6,000. The church is equipped with an organ, purchased in 1901.

A Sunday school was organized in the congregation in 1889.

The present membership of the church is 122. Since its organization 120 have been baptized in the congregation. The first class confirmed consisted of Jacob Meigerenz and William Flym.

Rev. J. H. Schultz was the first regular pastor of the church. He took charge of the congregation on July 4, 1894, and served till Nov. 1, 1897. Rev. W. Heyns was called as his successor, and served from April 28, 1898, to February, 1901. Rev. Gerretson took charge of the congregation on Oct. 24, 1901, and served until April, 1904. Rev. Burgraaf, the present pastor, took charge on Nov. 11, 1904.

The following have served as elders of the congregation: A. K. Kleinhuizen, 1886-1903; H. Kramer, 1886-87; Jan Ham, 1888-89; E. Bolt, 1889 to date; K. Theget, 1894 to date; M. K. Greems, 1899-1903; T. Stob, 1903 to date; G. Ledeboer, 1903 to date.

The following have served as deans of the church: H. Visser, 1886-92; A. Huizenga, 1892-95; J. W. Flym, 1892-99; E. Stob, 1899-1900; B. Terpstra, 1899-1900; W. Wieberdink, 1899-1902; G. J. Brink, H. J. Roelofs and H. Berghuis, 1902 to date.

School District No. 84

On Feb. 29, 1888, a petition was presented to the board of county commissioners asking for the establishment of a new school district. including sections 7 to 36, inclusive, town of Holland. The petition was granted July 23, 1888, and the district established as No. 84.

The district was organized at a special school meeting, held at the Prinsburg church, Sept. 21, 1888. A. Kleinhuizen was elected director; R. Roelofs, clerk; E. Poortinga, treasurer. It was decided to build the schoolhouse at Prinsburg, and lots 1, 2 and 3, block 4, were secured as a site. A special meeting, held Jan. 2, 1889, voted to issue bonds for a loan of $300 from the state fund. The schoolhouse was built the following spring at a cost of $319.70.

In 1893 it was found that the schoolhouse was too small to accommodate the pupils, and, as the town had been settled up rapidly, it was decided to move the old schoolhouse to the northeast corner of section 15, and build a new schoolhouse one mile south of Prinsburg. It was voted to issue bonds for $400 for this purpose. The new schoolhouse was built in the summer of 1893, at a cost of $400. In 1897 it was decided to divide the district, and the southern part was set off to form district No. 103. In 1900 an addition was built to the schoolhouse, making it 20x36 feet in size. The cost of the addition was $129.

The district has maintained not less than eight months of school each year since 1891. In 1899 it was decided to employ none but first grade teachers. The school is well supplied with apparatus. The free text book system was adopted in 1895. A library was purchased in 1897.

The following is an excerpt from Robert Swierenga's "Dutch Chicago" pages 564 - 566.

Chicago from the beginning was the major jumping-off point for the western agricultural frontier. Many Hollanders who had come off farms in the old country longed to get back. Tenancy was one way, but their chief goal was to live on their own land. Yet, land prices had risen to the point that few could afford to buy.

Land developers and promoters knew their situation and routinely advertised in the Dutch-language press to lure urbanites with promises of inexpensive and fertile land in the West and South. In the 1880s, for example, Close Brothers & Co of Chicago, a firm that controlled hundreds of thousands of acres of virgin lands in northwest Iowa and southwest Minnesota, ran a large advertisement in DE GRONDWET regularly in the 1870s, seeking thousands of tenants to develop their lands. One ad in 1886 read (in translation): "New Dutch Colony in Pipestone County, Southwest Minn, not more than 50 miles from Orange City. We have in Pipestone County alone more than 100,000 acres of outstanding lands for agriculture and cattle raising. Every sort of grain and vegetable can be grown here with the same success as in Illinois and Iowa. A fully warranted deed of title is guaranteed. Land obtainable for cash or on easy credit."

The same issue of the paper carried an ad of A. Boysen & Co of Chicago, offering fertile land for $7-9 per acre in the new Dutch colonies in the same areas of Minnesota that Close Bros was pushing.

Reformed and Christian Reformed Church officials likewise encouraged colonization in Minnesota, and to a lesser extent in South Dakota. The Christian Reformed church weekly, DE WATCHER, ran numerous articles and advertisements promoting Minnesota lands. In 1885, Frederikson & Co, a Chicago and Minneapolis land agency, in cooperation with the Dutch house of Prins & Zwanenburg in Amsterdam, Groningen, and Harlingen, offered thirty-four thousand acres of the "best first-rate land" at $6-8 per acre for a "Nieuwe Hollandsche Kolonie" at Olivia, Minnesota. The lands in the counties of Renville, Kandiyohi, and Chippewa lay along the Chicago, Milwaukee, & St Paul Railroad, only twelve miles from the stations at Willmar and Kerkhoven.

In Chicago, prospective colonists were to contact J. Berghuis at 899 (new numbering 2207) W. Lake Street, who periodically took groups of prospective colonists to Minnesota for only $10 round trip. They were housed in the Hollandsche Hotel of P. Haan in Olivia, who also acted as the firm's local agent.

DE WATCHER editor, the Reverend Lammert J Hulst, penned an enthusiastic boomer article that he ran in the column next to the advertisement in July 1885. It recommended the colony at Olivia in the most enthusiastic terms and announced that several Chicagoans had purchased lands after a June excursion; Jan Vander Mey bought 80 acres, Willem and George Knott 320 acres, and George Knol 120 acres. Other Hollanders in Chicago who wanted to own their own farms should take note and act promptly.

By 1889 Dutch colonization in Minnesota was taken over by the Chicago-based company of Prins and Koch, headed by Theodore F Koch and his partner, Martin Prins, both Netherlanders. Koch began in business as a partner in the firm of Prins & Zwanenburg of Groningen, exporting Holstein-Frisian cattle to the United States. At the same time, he recruited emigrants for the Holland-America Steamship Company of Rotterdam. Koch and Prins also acted as agents for several railroad companies, including the Lackawanna & Western, Nickel Plate Road, Erie, Wabash, and the Chicago and St Paul.

Koch and Prins themselves emigrated to America in 1889 and shortly thereafter jointly purchased thirty-four thousand acres in Kandiyohi County, Minnesota, from the president of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St Paul Railroad at $4 per acre. From their headquarters in Chicago, first at 51 S Clark Street and later in the Unity Building at 181 W Washington Blvd, the firm began recruiting colonists both in the Netherlands and in America for the colony of Prinsburg, Minnesota. They offered land at $6-8 per acre, one-third cash down.

These men knew that without a church it was virtually impossible to start a new Dutch Reformed community, so they contributed money to build a church. Within three years, all thirty-four thousand acres were sold, and a thriving Dutch Calvinist colony of 150 families was in place. The second to buy land in Prinsburg was the Chicago Groninger Albert Kleinhuizen, who became the leader of the colony. He served as elder in the church (which recently celebrated its hundredth anniversary) and put his sons on the land before dying at a ripe old age. Today the Kleinhuizen name is prominent in local telephone directories in the Prinsburg area. So many Chicagoans went to Prinsburg and the neighboring colony of Roseland that the latter was named after the Chicago suburb of Roseland.

Grandpa Herman

As grandchildren, we remember Grandpa Ledeboer as one who enjoyed singing. Sometimes, we were embarrassed by his emotional singing of the Dutch Psalms, which he loved.

While reading, he wore small horn-rimmed glasses. He sat in his captain's chair, at the big round table in front of the bay window in the dining room. Out of this window, once could view the large garden which Grandpa planted each year, and of which he was proud.

He wasn't known for his outward display of affection, but every July 4th, before the big celebration in the "grove," Grandpa would dole out a nickel or dime to his many grandchildren.

Grandpa was progressive to the extent that he bought and installed a Carbide Light System, to provide light for the home.

Grandpa had a tendency to get involved in heavy discussions. Having a brother-in-law who had the same tendencies, and occasion was used to exercise these talents. Even family weddings did not escape these discussions, as theological differences were discussed with Domonie Van Farowe.

Politics were discussed with fervor. When Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected president of the United States, his "New Deal" program caused a political division in the family. Some families were sure that disaster was at hand, while others were just as positive that F.D.R.'s plan was the salvation of the nation.

Notes for John (Jan) Kleinhuizen:

From a book titled "History of Early Chicago" by Albert D. Hager, pages 608 and 609 include references to John.

The Holland Christian Reformed Church was formed in 1878. The trustees at the time were John Kleinhuizen, A. Kleinhuizen (brother), A. Dekker, J. Prins, C. Santevoort, B. Stienstra, C Clouzing, and G. Vaarwerk. Rev. Geert Broene (father of Johannes Broene) was the first

John was a partner with Henry De Young of De Young and Kleinhuizen Contractors and Builders. The business was formed on March 27, 1882.

Edit: Johannes Broene married John's daughter Margaret. After Margaret and daughter died during giving birth Johannes married one of John's other daughters Johanna (Josie).

From Robert P Swieringa's book "Dutch Chicago" comes the following:

Members of the Christian Reformed churches were not satisfied with the nonsectarian public schools, even though they had the trappings of Christianity - prayer, Bible-reading, and hymns. The more orthodox parents wanted a school that was Reformed in doctrine and Dutch in language, so as to nurture both the church and the heritage. Thus, in December 1882, the First Christian Reformed Church, led by the Reverend Geert Broene, decided to establish DE HOLLANDSCHE CHRISTLIJKE SCHOOL (The Dutch Christian School). It opened the next month, in January 1883. From that time on, the Dutch in Roseland were divided by schools as well as churches.

The first board of the Christian school consisted of the Reverend Broene, president; Cornelius L Clousing, vice president; and members G J Vaarwerk, Jan Kleinhuizen, and Simon Dekker.

The Third Christian Reformed Church of Roseland - 1907
As the American congregation, Third Roseland earned a reputation as progressive and prosperous. The congregation published a paper, the SPECTATOR and was first in the denomination to start a teacher training class for Sunday school teachers. It also boasted that per-family tithes in the early years exceeded $75, "an amount which few churches can approach".

The congregation began in 1907 at a meeting in the First Roseland church, with Klaas Kuiper, of Second Roseland, presiding. The twenty-three persons present elected John Kleinhuizen as chair and R T Schuurman as secretary; Kleinhuizen then named to the organizing committee Harry De Boer, Abram Dekker, Simon Schoon, Thomas Thomasma, and Menno Zwart. The businessmen Arie Dekker and Bernard Vellinga, Sr, lent their support as well. Classis Illinois gave the group its blessing and within one month, in August 1907, the congregation was officially organized with 31 families, totaling 153 souls.

The first consistory included elders R T Schuurman and Charles Kleinhuizen and deacons Abram Dekker and Harry De Boer.

Referring to the First Christian Reformed Church - The group met for worship in a little schoolhouse behind Van Driel's home, while they built a small (thirty-two by forty-eight feet) church on a one-acre lot on the northeast corner of "hundred ' leventh" (111th) and State. Member Jan Kleinhuizen directed the construction, which cost less than $2,000 (including the land), and the congregation joyfully dedicated the frame church in May 1878.
