2 John Smart, Exeter (Newmarket), came from county Norfolk to Hingham in 1635 with wife and two sons (Cushing mss., Reg. 15: 27). He did not sign the Exeter combination, but shared in divisions in Dec. 1639. Lists 375ab, 376ab. In 1647 Thomas and Esther Biggs successfully sued him and wife Margaret for slander; in Mar. 1648 in court for abusing John Stanyan while serving an execution and at same court Stanyan sued him (sr.) for assault. Abraham Perkins was allowed costs in suit of John sr. in Apr. 1649. In Oct. 1649 John (not called 'sr.') and Robert were sued for the meeting house debt. Edward and William Hilton depose in 1678 that 'old Goodman Smart deceased several years before 1652.' His widow was living 24 Nov. 1654. Children: John. Robert. Daughter (or possible step-daughter), married John Wedgwood (2). The son John was possible defendant with Robert in 1649, and Christopher Lawson's suit same year. In 1653 he deeded to nephew John Wedgwood land formally his father's. In a suit over marsh on south west side of John Goddard's Creek, in 1678 John Ault, about 73, deposed that John Smart mowed it 12 years before Dover was a township, 16 years together; the Hilton's deposition about the two brothers there after their father died.

Came from the county of Norfolk, England to Hingham, Mass. with his wife and two sons and in September of that year drew his house lot there. He came to Exeter in time to receive an assignment of one acre and 16 poles of the Meadows 'next the town' which implies he had cattle and goats. The lands he first took up appear to be situated on the eastern or Stratham side of the river and he did not subscribe to the combination, but he was a public spirited citizen and joined with others in an agreement to purchase Wheelright's house to be used as a parsonage. He lived in the Northerly part of the town now Newmarket, and his descendant's live there still.

John Smart was first of the name in New England. In the year 1635 he with his wife and two sons, John Smart, Jr. and Robert, came from Norfolk Co., England, to Hingham, Mass. They first landed at Charlestown, Mass. and as there were no roads probably went by water to Hingham, 14 miles. There were 206 persons who came from Norfolk Co., England to Hingham, Mass. during the years 1633 to 1639. Their leader was Peter Hobart, their minister, with his family and other relatives who came from Hingham, Norfolk Co, England. There were also several by the name of Gilman. John Smart drew his house lot in Sept. 1635, but Lincoln's history of Hingham doesn't mention him again I think, and he did not stay there long. In 1639, he with his wife and two young sons moved to Exeter, New Hampshire.

Notes for MARY HILTON:

Source: (1) Charles Mack, <http://genforum.genealogy.com/smart/messages/1626.html>

I do not believe that Rebecca daughter of William Hilton and Rebecca Simmons was the wife of Robert Smart b about 1625. William Hilton was born about 1632, Noyes, et al, Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire, p 336, and was the son of Edward Hilton, bp at Northwich, co Chester, England, 9 June 1596 and the first permanent settler in New Hampshire, op. cit., p 331. William is too young to have fathered a Rebecca who could be in court with her husband Robert Smart in 1654, op. cit., p 641.

It also appears that Robert Smart's wife Rebecca was a second wife and not the mother of his children. Phillip Howard Gray in Penobscot Pioneers, Vol. One, Alley Bakeman Smart, Penobscot Press, Camden, ME, devotes a chapter to John Smart of Exeter, and discusses his son Robert, commencing with the following at pages 93 and 94: "the widow Rebecca renounced administration to her stepson Robert I I Dec 1703 and said son took administration 13 Dec 1703, with Winthrop Hilton and Jonathan Hilton as sureties (Probate Records of the Province of New Hampshire 1907 v 1 p 508?509). The renunciation makes it virtually certain that Rebecca was a second wife, not mother of the children."

Phillip Howard Gray concludes that Robert Smart's first wife was Mary Hilton, as follows:

The name of the first wife, and thus mother of the children, is wholly missing from the records. However, the close relationship between the Hiltons and the Smarts suggests she could have been a Hilton, more likely a daughter of William' Hilton than his brother Edward' Hilton because of the age factor; one might note that when William Hilton's wife (speculatively a Winslow) arrived in Plymouth about 10 July 1623 she had two children with her, most likely William bp 22 June 1617 and Mary bp 11 May 1619 (Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire p 334?335 and note that this Mary is not satisfactorily accounted for on p 333 although there is a feeble attempt to do so). Until something proves me wrong, I assume that Robert Smart married, within a few years of moving to Exeter aka Squarnscot with his father, MARY² HILTON. Children by the first wife, regardless of who she was, were: i. Robert' Smart Jun, was married 25 Sept 1674 by Mr. Samuel Dalton, commissioner of Exeter, to EleanorDudley aka "Elnell Pratty", patently the sister of Elizabeth Dudley who was married on the same day by the same justice of the peace to Kensley Hall (Provincial Deeds of New Hampshire Volume A in script reproduced on LDS film 015,410 and printed in NEHGR 1854 p 224); and ii. JOHN' (Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire p 641).

Notes for ELEANOR DUDLEY:

Source: (1) Charles Mack, <http://genform.genealogy.com/smart/messages.1629.html>

Philip Howard Gray, author of a series of volumes on Penobscot Pioneers published by the Penobscot Press, Camden, ME, believes that Eleanor Partley was really Eleanor Dudley, daughter of Samuel Dudley of Exeter and granddaughter of Thomas Dudley of Roxbury, governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Gray identifies the elusive "Elnell Pratly" as Eleanor Dudley in Penobscot Pioneers, Vol. Two, Bray Closson Howard, at pages 62-63, as follows:

A complete list of Samuel Dudley's children does not exist. Noyes, Libby & Davis maintain that the deeds of the 50-acre lots into which his 600 acres were finally divided in 1707 prove his 12 heirs, but proving survivors does not necessarily prove all births (the dividing of the 600 acres in 1707 is in the unpublished probate and land records v 4 p 616; v 8 p 70, 73; v 9 p 134, 135, 285, 602, 745, 746 for which see LDS films 1001351 and 016193). The children by Mary 2 Winthrop were Thomas 3; John 3; MARGARET 3 Samuel 3; and Ann 3 (ibid p 209). Children by Mary Byley were Theophilus 3; Mary 3; Byley 3; Mary 3 (again); and Thomas 3 (ibid). Known children by his third wife Elizabeth were Elizabeth 3; Stephen 3; James 3; Timothy 3; Dorothy'; Rebecca 3; and Samuel 3 (ibid). To the latter group we must add Eleanor 3, who is without doubt the mysterious woman in the marriage record in Volume A of the Provincial Deeds of New Hampshire (film 015410 in LDS collection) which reads "25 7 mo 1674 Robert Smart Jun' & Elnor Pratly both of Exeter joyned in marriage before Mr. Samuell Dalton commissioner". If one writes the surname Dudley in cursive script and doesn't bring the loop of the capital letter down far enough, and if the flourish on the second occurrence of the same letter is incomplete, one could have a name easily read as Pratly by a county clerk ignorant of Exeter families. Immediately before this entry is one which reads "25 7 mo 1674 Kensley Hall & Elizabeth Dudley both of Exeter were joyned in marriage before Mr. Samuell Dalton Commissioner". In a word, two sisters were married in the same town on the same day by the same magistrate!

Notes for FRANCIS SMART:

Source: (1) Charles Mack, <http://genforum.genealogy.com/smart/messages/1627.html>

Robert Smart b abt 1718 does not appear to be a direct descendent of Robert smart, Jr. b about 1646, but may be the son of Francis Smart, grandson of the John Smart who was the brother of Robert smart Jr. b abt 1646.

Phillip Howard Gray in his Penobscot Pioneers, Vol. One, Alley Bakeman Smart, Penobscot Press, Camcen, ME, includes a chapter on John Smart of Exeter, father of Robert Sr. and grandfather of robert, Jr. b abt 1646. The entry regarding Francis Smart appears at pp 95 and 96 as follows:

FRANCIS 4 SMART was probably born around 1685, taken captive to Canada in 1692 but returned by 1718 when he was the master of a Kittery fishing vessel from which young Jonathan Partridge was accused of stealing eels (Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire p 641). Francis Smart is a shadowy figure not known to have had any children, yet the fact that the Kennebec brothers John and Robert both had progeny named Francis is more than suggestive, it is compelling. Such additional records as I've been able to find for this person follow.

Among the houses which the Kittery selectmen ordered to be made defensible (as garrisons) was that of Joseph Crockett to which "...Francis Smart, Nathl Hix, Jno Norton, Alexandr Macquinery, with ye young men that now doe duty there, and ye familys Lodge therein" (E. S. Stackpole Old Kittery and Her Families 1903 p 18 1). The wording of the order suggests that Francis Smart was a family man at this time. In 1723 he was a bondsman for Elizabeth (Thomas, Roger) Deering (Genealogical Dictionary of Maine and New Hampshire p 641). At the court session of I Oct 1723 "Francis Smart appear'd in Court & was cleared of his bond for his good behavior per proclamation" (Province and Court Records of Maine 1975 v 6 p 136) and at the court session of 4 Oct 1726 "Francis Smart Appeared to this Court and was Clear'd of his bonds for his Good behavior by proclamation" (ibid p 23 1). He was called a husbandman of Kittery when for sixty pounds in good bills of credit he bought from Robert (Robert) Cutt a tract of land on the eastern side of Spruce Creek near Ashen Swamp bounded on one side by the land of Philip Carpenter (then deceased and whose daughter Mary married John Deering, brother of the aforementioned Elizabeth Deering), the conveyance dated 10 Feb 1724/5 (York Deeds 1903 v 12 f 35). We can get an idea where this land was located by noting Stackpole's map, p 65 supra, where the land of Henry Barter is given as close to present?day Cutts Pond inland of Crockett's Neck; on date of 13 Apr 1728 some 27 acres which Ebenezer (John) Moore had bought of Henry Barter was sold to John Norton, the tract being bounded on the east side by land of John Moore and Francis Smart (ibid 1904 v 13 f 204). On date of I Apr 1730, Francis Smart of Kittery, yeoman, sold one half an acre of land bounded by John Norton to the latter, Mary Smart his wife giving up her right of dowry (ibid f 204). A careful reading of this Francis Smart's will, probated 31 Dec 1750 at Kittery, indicates that he entailed property to the children of his then wife's sister, which almost surely means the property he purchased from Robert Cult. had been with money belonging to his then wife Mary Crockett, who bore him no children, and the entailment simply relieved her of the responsibility and cost of creating a will herself after her husband, then sick and weak in body, died (W. M. Sargent Maine Wills. 1640?1760 1887 p 638?640). An unknown earlier wife therefore would be the mother of his children. She is deduced to be SARAH 3 DEERING for the complicated reasons given in the Deering file, which can be interpreted to mean that the phrase in her mother's printed will "bequeath unto my Daughter Sarah Deed One shilling" is a reference to daughter " Sarah Dec'd", not " Sarah Deed", with the beneficiary being lost from the record, either by mutilation of the original document or by fumbling of Sargent's scrivener. The unrecorded children were Robert 5 b 1718; JOHN 5 b c1720; and Elizabeth 5 b c1722.

I believe that I am descended from John, the brother of Robert, b abt 1718. The two brothers had adjoining farms on Merriconeag Neck, just outside the village of Brunswick, ME. I viewed the deeds to their property at the Cumberland County Registry this last summer. I am interested in any leads to sort out these folks, particularly John's wives and children.

Philip Howard Gray has done six volumes on Penobscot Pioneers, all are in print and are published by the Penobscot Press, which is related to Picton Press, PO Box 250, Rockport, ME 04856, www.pictonpress.com, telephone 207-236-6565. I first saw them, I think, in a local town library in Maine, probably Belfast.

I am descended from John Smart, whose family bible describes him as born in Brunswick me Feb. 29, 1760. There were two Smart brothers, John and Robert in Brunswick at that time. Gray believes that both are descended from Francis Smart of Kittery, ME, whose father was John Smart of Oyster River, Durham, NH and who died in NY in 1703. John Smart's father was Robert Smart whose wives were Mary and Rebecca Hilton.

Of the two Brunswick Smarts, Robert had a son John who was among the first settlers of Bangor, ME (Kenduskeg). Gray believes that the other brother, John, had two sons, James and John. John would be my ancestor.

There are several weak links. Gray has quite an imaginative link between Francis Smart and his father John (Francis was kidnapped by the Indians along with his mother but did not return from Quebec until long after his mother's documented return). Gray also believes that the John, brother of James and born in Brunswick, died in the Revolution. Revolutionary War records do not document John's death, only listing him as killed, captured, or deserted; whereas James death is indeed documented.

Because of these points and others, I am interested in finding out as much as I can about these folks, including the descendents of Robert Smart and Elnell Pratly (or as Gray believes, Eleanor Dudley), who might indeed turn out to be my ancestors. CRM

One of Grandfather's (Joshua Smart's) brothers, I think it was Daniel, who afterwards (It was Grandfather's brother Joseph who owned this farm which was the best in town. His brother Daniel owned the farm adjoining east of it, in Searsport. Joseph was 15 mos. younger than Grandfather, and had a family of 12 children, mostly boys. I am wrong. It was his son John who had this large family, and I have lost run of them) moved to Fryburg, Me., owned the farm North of father's future purchase.

He was a farmer and mill owner and operator. He sold his interest in the mill (tide mill) at the head of Cape Jellison Harbor in what is now the town of Stockton Maine, Oct. 14, 1812. He and wife Betsey both signed the deed.

Joseph Smart moved about quite a bit during his life time and it is sometimes hard to tell just where he lived. his wife was Betsey but her last name is uncertain. Some records give it as Cronk others Rouket and still others Roux. She was of French origin and I could not be sure of her name at this time. They lived at Stockton, Swanville, and in 1833 he gave his redience as Sebec Maine.

He is said to have died in Etna, Maine at the home of his son Winthrop Smart who lived 1798 to 1873. Cannot locate records to prove the above statement.

He married NANCY ANN WEST Oct 10, 1821 in Swanville, Waldo Co., ME. She was born Jul 27, 1800 in Belfast, Waldo Co., ME, and died Aft. 1870.

Notes for JOHN SMART:

Source: (1) Records of Archie Eugene Crosby in his 'Smart' family compendium, received and recorded by William L. Crosby, October, 1997.

There were likely several more unknown children by the marriage of John and Nancy. Edgar Smart claims there were 12 boys and 1 girl in this family. John Smart was a sailor in his working years. The 1860 census indicated he was blind (not blind, but a pauper), and the 1880 census also indicated he was a blind (and also a pauper), 80 year year old resident of Swanville, ME. Daniel, (James) Henry, Charles, Thomas and George were all soldiers in the American Civil War. (James) Henry and Charles moved to Wisconsin. Around 1860, or perhaps before that date, (before 1850) the family was divided among his neighbors and relatives to raise the best they could. His wife Nancy worked as long as she could and finished her days in the families of her sons. A daughter of Rev. Joseph A. Smart (a son of John and Nancy) tells that John was drowned in the Penobscot River when he went to 'see' the drive on the river at Lincoln. Being blind, he somehow fell into the river and drowned, and was buried at Lincoln. John provided the following advice to the young people of his day; that young couples getting married should plan for a family of 15 and settle for a dozen. He said one was sure to lose half of them by death, and one must have the other six to help till a Maine farm and to care for the old folks in their old age. When asked what he would do if such a course killed the mother he replied, that women were like the horse cars, a new one along every five minutes, if you could not catch a new one it was fun trying anyway.

Shortly after 1880 we find he went to visit his brother Joshua Smart who lived in Lincoln, Maine. While at Lincoln he fell into the Penobscot River, which flows through the village, and was drowned. In a cemetery lot owned by Joshua Smart we find a J. Smart buried. There is no marker on his grave but the town records tells us it is J. Smart. Descendants of Joshua Smart tell me that J. Smart was their father's brother and that they know he was drowned in the river and buried in that lot owned by their grandfather

Joshua. This would be the Joshua Smart born Jan. 10, 1816. He lived at Lincoln for a time and his first children Isaac and Isabelle (twins) were born in Lincoln, ME. The daughter Isabelle died soon after birth so they purchased the cemetery lot. Isabelle and J. Smart are all that are buried there as the family later moved to another town. Not much of a record on John Smart but the best I have and I think the story is correct.

Smart. -- At his home in the town of Hull, on Friday, the 25th, inst., of general debility, Charles Smart, in the 68th year of his age. Charles Smart was born at Searsport, Me., April 2d, 1829; he enlisted in the early part of September, 1862, with 6th Maine volunteer infantry and served with that regiment in the famous charge on Marye's Heights, on the Rappahannock, May 3d, 1863, when the regiment lost, out of 500 men, 167 killed and wounded, and it was in this charge that Mr. Smart received the injury that was the primary cause of his death. As the Union forces poured over the stone wall, on the heights, behind which the Confederates were lying a hand to hand conflict took place during which he received a blow from a musket across the back over the kidneys from which he never recovered and led to his discharge, the following December, when he returned to Maine. He came to Wisconsin in 1869, and settled in Sheboygan county; in Oct. 1870, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Calista A. Grant; in 1877 he came to Colby and became interested in property in the town of Hull; in 1879 he moved with his family and has made his home in the town of Hull since that time where he has been an honored and respected citizen; owing to the injury mentioned above, his health has been poor since leaving the service, for the past five or six years he has seldom left home and had not visited the city for nearly two years. He leaves to mourn him a wife, a son, Alfred, and a daughter, Mrs. Chas. Zarnke, and a son, John, and a daughter, residing in Maine, by a former marriage, and a large number of sympathizing friends. The funeral occurred at the M. E. Church, in the city, and the remains interred in Colby cemetery, Rev. J. Dix officiating.

Celebrate Golden Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smart Wedded Fifty Years. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smart, well know residents of the town of Agenda, celebrated their golden wedding last Sunday. A bountiful spread was served on the occasion and surrounded by four children, five grand children and a nephew and niece. The aged couple renewed their marriage vow made fifty years ago in the old Pine state. The table was decorated in yellow with a bouquet of beautiful yellow roses as a center piece, around which the wedding dinner was tastefully arranged. Mr. Smart had just passed the 74th mile stone and his good wife the 72nd. They are among the first settlers of this part of the country and made their home in the virgin wilderness of a trackless forest at a time when few men were hardy enough to settle except within hailing distance of the railroad. Although Mr. Smart has passed through the hardships incident to pioneer life, he is still vigorous and active for a man of his age. May the good couple live many years hence to enjoy the fruits of their labor in peace and happiness.
