Generation No. 1

1. Henry Christopher² Meyer (John¹) was born Abt. 1703 in Kerback, Palatinate, Prussia, Germany, and died 1781 in Muhlbach, Lebanon Co., Pa.. He married Anna Kunigunta Abt. 1718 in Germany. She was born 1697 in Kerback, Palatinate, Prussia, Germany, and died in Muhlbach Lebanon Co., Pa..

Notes for Henry Christopher Meyer:

Taken from Meyer Genealogy by Henry Meyer 1890

Henry served a term of 7 years in the Prussian army in Germany. Before entering the army, he became engaged to a young lady. While serving his term in the army, his girl fell in love with another. Henry pretended to be quite indifferent about his former sweetheart, and while passing her home, in going to and from work, he whistled and sang and other ways showed his indifference. She relented and sent for him and a reconciliation took place. He was a fine singer, which is said had its effect in changing the young lady's feeling. They were married.

Mr Meyer had to make a certain sum of money to pay his taxes so he took his pigs to market to sell. Meeting some of his comrades, they went to a tavern, where the money was soon spent, the taxes remained unpaid. Money and pigs gone, and being extremely poor, he became dissatisfied with his bad lot and resolved to emigrate to America.

He work in the service of Queen Anne to pay for his transportation, arriving in New York Harbor about 1723 with his wife(Anna) and two children. They stayed in New York about 2 years, then took a boat to Philadelphia and from there walked to Muhlbach (Mill Creek).

They arrived about 1735. Their possession were exceedingly limited, an axe, two tin plates, some clothing.

Our ancestor settled permanently at a "beautiful spring" or small stream known as "Muhlbach in Lancaster Co., Pa., now in the south eastern corner of Lebanon co., Pa. The spring supplied the homestead with water and was also full of trout. The first cabin was about 10 X 12, one store, with a low standing door, 2 small windows(one had 2 panes), and a chimney at one end. (At the time of Henry Moyers book (1890) three houses had been built on the land and it was still owned by descendents of the original immigrant Meyer.

No one knows for sure where Henry and Ana died or when. It is probable that they are buried at the old Mulbach Church Cemetery, being the most convient site, and where their descendants are buried, but no tombstones or records have been found. Many graves at this cemetery have no markers, some tombstones exist with no inscription some Have inscription and no names, many are defaced, and worn with age.

She was born in Germany. He married (2) Susanna Ream 1750 in Mulbach, Pa., daughter of Peter Ream and Susan. She was born Abt. 1730 in Germany, and died Bef. 1811 in Freeburg, ., Pa.

Notes for Jacob Meyer Sr.:

Jacob Meyer, who lived at Muhlabach, was an intimated friend of Andrew Morr. Both families moved to a new home, beyond the Susquehanna River, together. Mr. Morr located east while Mr. Meyer pitched his tent the same distance west of where Freeburg is now located. Freeburg, then, was the intervening farm between the Morr and Meyer farms, and was owned by Andrew Straub, the founder of Starbustown (Freeburg).

During the Revolutionary War, Jacob moved his family back to Muhlbach Homestead. (for security). He was drafted and served in the army along with his oldest son Philip. Henry was connected with an organization called "Home Guards" that protected the settlement against the Indians. They returned to Penn's Twp before the close of the war.

Jacob was not a large man but held a kindly disposition and was not inclined to be quarrelsome, but it is said that he seemed rather pleased when he heard that his sons came off victorious in their many pugilistic contests. Both he and his wife are buried in the old cemetery at Freeburg Pa: though neither has a tombstone with an inscription. Their son John George is buried in the same cemetery as well as Christopher, their other son.

Notes for Susanna Ream:

An Old power of attorney, in Henry Meyer possession, given by Jacob Meyer Sr., to his son Michael, dated 1801, mentions his wife as being "Susanna Ream" daughter of "Peter Ream" of Dauphin Co., Pa. The instrument was given to secure the wife's legacy and seems to be positive evidence as to her maiden name. The paper alludes to her as being deceased.

DISCOVERED DEAD

Grandson Finds retired farmer Shot to death; funeral on Monday.

The death of Walter Irvin Moyer, 62 year-old retired farmer who was found shot to death in the little shed in the rear of his home at 901 Padon Ave. early Saturday morning was pronounced an evident suicide case by John A Riehl, chief of police.

Moyer was found by his grandson, Dale Bird, sitting in a slumped position in an old rocking chair with a blanket pulled over his lap. Bird went to the shed at approximately 9:15 am. A 410 gauge shotgun was found on his left side.

Chief Riehl, who talked with Ethel Moyer, a daughter, related that between 8 and 9 o'clock Moyer was in the house listening to the radio. Miss Moyer asked him if he would go to the grocery store and get a loaf of bread. He said he would in a few minutes.

Shortly after he left the house supposedly to get the bread and was not seen again until his grandson found him in the shed shot just above the heart.

Riehl referred to Moyer's ill health which he had suffered for some time as the only motive of the apparent suicide.

Moyer came to Blackwell in 1914 from Streator, Ill, where he was born September 3, 1874. He was a member of the First Christian Church of Blackwell and also a member of 100F lodge.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 3:30 PM at the First Christian Church conducted by the Rev. E. W. Harrison. The body will lie in state from 2:30 to 3:30 PM and the casket will not be opened after the services. Burial will be made in the 100F Cemetery. Roberts mortuary is in charge.

Survivors are two daughter, Ethel Moyer and Mrs. Jesse Bird both of Blackwell and two grandsons, Dale Bird and Max Bird.
