Generation No. 1

1. Mr<sup>1</sup> Schipmann was born Bef. 1694 in Germany, and died Abt. 1717 in On Board a ship traveling to Wales. He married Ester Schipmann Bef. 1713 in Hamburg, Germany. She was born Abt. 1685 in Hamburg, Germany.

Notes for Mr Schipmann:

Unknown Schipmann was born about 1694 in Germany. Esther Unknown was born about 1685 in Hamburg, Germany. They were married before 1713 in Hamburg, Germany. They lived about 8 miles southwest of Hamburg, Germany on the Elbe River.

Schipman died on board a ship on its way to Wales, England, shortly after 1717, where he hoped to earn passage to New Jersey in America by working in the Shipyard. He was buried at sea.

Esther Schipman settled in Wales, England with her two sons and married Nicholas Gage, who had a son by his first marriage name David Gage. While in Wales the two boys changed the spelling of their name to Shipman which is the English spelling.

Joseph, Daniel and their step brother David were not very old when they embarked on a trip across the ocean where they only knew each other.

Notes for Jacob Shipman:

Will of Jacob Shipman:

In the name of God Amen, I Jacob Shipman of Rutherford Co. in North Carolina, being in low state of bodily health but of sound mind and memory considering the frailty of nature and uncertainty of the present life do make this as my last will and testament.

First and above all things, my soul I give nto God that gave it and my body I commit to the dust from whence it came to be buried with a decent Christian burial and as for my worldly estate with which the Lord has been plentiful to bless me, I give and bequeath in the following manner, viz:

I give all by estate, real and personal to Sarah my beloved wife during her life to raise and educate the children at her discretion and after her death to be equally divided among the children as follows:

To John Shipman, my son, I give five shillings and to Elizabeth Burleson, my daughter, five shillings and to Edward Shipman and Abraham Shipman and Damiel Shipman and Matthew Shipman, my sons, five shilling each to be paid them when they arrive at the age of seventeen years of when they marry and it is my will and devise that at the discretion of Sarah my beloved wife that what remains of my estate real and personal be equally divided among all of my sons aforementioned and if what I have already given to John Shipman, my son and Elizabeth Burleson, my daughter, shall not be judged an equal share with the rest that it be made up to them out of the estate.

I do hereby make, ordain, constitute and appoint Sarah my beloved wife Executrix and Edward Shipman my brother Executor of this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the ninth day of November Anno Dom one Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Four.

Signed and sealed in the presence of    His Mark    Jacob Shipman    William Riggi    Simon Kuykendall    Alexander Davidson    Simon Kuykendall
