Mr. J. W. Brabham
Lowell, Ohio

If in making preperation to come this way you will allow about one half days visit to each Brabham in this State, that is making two visits in a day you would just make acquaintanse of the family. We have a fine country now munch prettier, and perhaps a little better off than the time "General Sherman marched to the Sea". As to the history of the family you may have noticed that one of the chief divisions in Holland is the Dutchey Brabant. Now just from the sound of our name it is my idea that ours is of this same country. That is a dutch name.

This is an old province even having been called by its present name back during the time of Ceasar and later in Chartemange Reign.

So it is quite plansable that immegrants from the old country went to England and there began our ancestry.

In 1407 there was a battle between the army of King Henry IV and the rebellious Scott under Percus at a place called Bram(b)ham moor, this is now called Branemar. On the map of Scotland this town was a small village of less than ten thousand inhabitants it is situated in the North East part of Scotland, in the South East part of Aberdeen Shire. This I thank corrected our name and this is the habitation of our fore fathers.

But we find evidence also that the Brabham's lived in England. We note that Chambers Encyclopedia says that Joseph Brabham was born Yorkshire, England and was an inventor. also John Brabham born at London, England 1774 and died at Brompton in 1856 at the age of 72 years. He was a famous tenor singer having appeared at convent Gordon and Lane Theatres. Also Johnus Brabham born at Hamburg in 1833 was a great composer of note and was introduced by Shumann.

One of our fore father married a Scotch Lassie, this may be the Scotch side of the case.

It was my great great grandfather who came to America with his two brothers, one settled in Virginia and of his life you know the history. Another settled in South Carolina, Clarendon County, near the town of Manning his descendants now live in that part of the country. Spelling his name Bradham. The other brother settled in lower Carolina in Barnwell County at what is commonly known as Bufords Bridge, this being a neighborhood and not a town.

This last is my great great grandfather his name or his sons name I do not know; that son had three sons (possibly) Archibold, who's wife was Miss. Graham he later moved to Alabama where he reared a family. The next brother (name unknown) had two sons John M. and Hampton.

John M. Brabham's children are as follows; Frank, Marion, Arthur W. and Lewis A. My great grandfather's name was Joseph Joniah Brabham, Sr. He married a Kirkland and his children are Susannah, Robert, Joseph Joniah, Jr. The last name being that of my grandfather. He married Susannah McMillian. He was a member of the secession convention in 1860 and was in two miles of his home that the first movement for the secession was held. He was for many years clerk of Barnwell County never having been defeated in his entire career. He died in 1880, his children are; H. J., Julia B., James, C. R. ( my father) Frank, Agnes died at 15 Hattie, Lizzie dead, and William M.

My father is a merchant and a farmer he married Mannie Manzo, who's father came direct from France. The children are as follows; Clarence, Robert, Vance, Wells, Agnes, McKay, Mabel M., William. Gladys dead, and Robert, is dead. My Mother died in 1895 and my father married again to Buena Vista Samuel they had two children, Buena Vista and Lois Evelyn.

You are doubtless tired of this subject; but a great subject requires much space and a great name is not made in one generation. Trusting that Brabham's of the North and the South will meet some day and that we shall both work to make the name greater that it already is and that there will be no North or South in Brabham history.

I am yours most sincerely.

3. THOMAS<sup>2</sup> BRABHAM, SR (JOSEPH JOSIAH<sup>1</sup>) was born September 4, 1756 in England, and died July 10, 1834 in Leesburg, Loudoun County, Virginia. He married HANNAH March 6, 1783 in Leesburg, Loudoun County, Virginia. She was born Abt. 1760, and died Bet. 1808 - 1861.

Notes for THOMAS BRABHAM, SR:

This information was compiled by Anna Brabham Osborne.

The states herein are given and collected from the letters of M. William Brabham of Bamberg, South Carolina; and from documents prepared for the Brabham reunions; one held at Benedict, Nebraska, Sept. 1, 1908, and the other at the farm home of Thomas Jefferson Brabham near Eugene, Oregon, Nov. 26, 1908.

The Brabham family had its rise in the Duchy of Brabant in Central Europe in the time of Charlemagne. The original family name was Brabant. This Duchy still exists. The northern half is in Holland and is still called North Brabant. The southern half is in Belgium and is known as South Brabant. King Albert of Belgium is of this Duchy and of the original family of Brabant.

Members of the family migrated to England. There the name became Brabham. Chamber's Encyclopedia mentions a Joseph Brabham who was an inventor. Also a John Brabham who was a famous tenor singer. He appeared in Covent Garden and Drury Lane Theaters (1774-1856). Also a Johannus Brabham born in Hamburg Germany (1833). He was a composer of note and was introduced by Shumann.

Three Brabham brothers emigrated from England, landing in America, Sept. 1, 1783. One settled in Clarendon County, South Carolina. His descendants still live in this section and spell their name Bradham. Another settled in Barnwell County. The South Carolina Brabham were strong secessionists. One was a member of the Secession Convention 1860. He was also a member of the legislature during the war and afterwards. He was the father of M. William Brabham whose researches of the annals of the Brabham family is here used.

The third brother settled in Loudoun County, Virginia. He was a shoemaker. Early in eighteen hundred some of his descendants made their way to Washington County Virginia. From these have come the large Ohio branch of the family. It is this branch that has gathered in the reunions. At the Benedict, Nebraska reunion, the hammer with which the founder of the Virginia-Ohio branch of the family applied his trade was presented to the youngest male representative of the family. Thomas Jefferson Brabham, of Eugene, Oregon (on the birthday-celebration-reunion) was the father of twelve children. At the time of the reunion there were ten children living, thirty-six grand children and thirty-one great-grand children. Seventy Brabham's all of them residing in Oregon were at the reunion.

The so-called pure- Virginia branch of the family are the descendants of the son of the Brabham brother (shoemaker), who settled in Loudoun County Virginia, and carried on the family in that state. This son did not move into Ohio, but stayed in Virginia. Many of his descendants still live in Virginia. He was the grandfather of the compiler of these notes, Anna Brabham Osborne. His children were Jane (Mrs. Joseph Combs), Mary (Mrs. Richard Alexander), Sarah (Mrs. David Alexander) Thomas Jefferson (father of the compiler), Frances Marion, Violinda (Mrs. James Moran).

Brabham, John P.

Living the life of a retired famer in the pretty village of Lovington, Moultrie County, Illinois, where he has a neat and attractive home, our subject has reached that period of life at which he may be pardoned if he extalts in his good birth and parentage. In truth he was well born and a native of the State that boasts so many men who have attained great fame ar statesmen and orators. Almost contemporary with Jefferson, Lee, Harrison and many others of the men who have enriched the historical pages of their Stste by valient eord and deed. John P. Brabham, early grew up with a keen appreciation of oratory and statesmanship, for did he not in his earliest infancy breath in the very atmosphere that created orators?

Our subjects father was John Brabham, who was born in Loudoun County, Va. His mother was Mary Elizabeth Power also of Virginia. After their marriage they settled in Loudoun County, VA. and remained there for a long time. In 1835 they determined to strike out in a new direction and removed to Morgan County, Ohio, where they lived for two or three years. They next removed to Washington County, Ohio, where the decease of both occurred. It is not remarkable that they did not accumulate munch wealth for they had fourteen little mouths to feed. However, as time passed the little ones grew to manhood and womanhood, becoming independent fact, that of this large family all reached maturity and had families of their own. The first break in the home circle was caused by the death of the youngest child, a daughter, who left two children.

Our subject was the fourth child in order of birth, first opening his eyes in Loudoun County, Va., his natal day on the 14th of April, 1818. With his father and family he went to Ohio when seventeen years of age and continued under the home roof untill his marriage, which event took place December 23, 1840, in Washington County, Ohio, his bride being Miss Doeshe E. Webster, a daughter of John and Mary (Burries) Webster, the fromer of whom died in Hardin County, Ohio. After the death of her husband, who was accidentally killed by the discharge of a rifle, Mrs Webster returned to Washington County and there remained untill her death. She had eight children of whom Mrs. Brabham was the third. Her birth took place in Morgan County, Ohio, July 24, 1824.

Afther the marriage of the original of our sketch and his wife the young couple settled in Washginton County, Ohio, and ther continued to live until 1867, when he sold out his farm and came to this State and County, settling in Lowe Township on Section 17. On that Place they continued to live untill May, 1889, when he rented his farm and removed to Lovington, of which he has since been a resident. When a young man our subject learned the cooper's trade which he carried on in connection with farming while he lived in Ohio, but since coming to the Praire State he has devoted his whole attention to agricultural affaris.

Mr. Brabham is the owner of two hundred and fourty acres, all of which is well improved. The soil, Which is the best quality, has for years been well tilled and buildings upon the place are substancial and good. Mr. and Mrs. Brabham are the parents of five children:

Diantha C. was the first the first married to John Rigg, in Ohio, in 1864, and of that union three children were born- - Vesta, Norton m. and Arthur E. For a number of years she made her home with her parents untill in June, 1884, when she again married, becoming the wife of James Jones, and two children have come to bless this union. Walter and Wilda (twins), the latter dying at the age of two years. her two sons by her first marriage still reside with their grandparents and brighten the homes and lives of the worthy couple. Of the remaining children of Mr. and Mrs. Brabham the following is recorded:

Walter H. died when sixteen years of age, just as the golden gate of manhood was opening befor him and the prospects within its portal seemed so fair; Francis M. married Miss Rebecca Deeter; Leonidas died when a lad of eleven years; David G. married Miss Hattie Dougherty.

In political affairs Mr. Brabham has taken a fairly active interest and is a Republican by preference. He has held the office of Justice of the Peace for a long time and has also been School Trustee and School Director. Both he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and have been so connected since 1842. Nearly a half-century of chuch experience and social relationship is theirs, and they have followe the changes which have taken place in the customs of their church with interest and attention. Our subject has filled various offices in the church, and has been local preacher for yeas, also Superintendent of the Sunday-School, Deacon, and Class-Leader. His wife has been a constant and faithful companion in all his good words and works, and is a woman of beautiful Christian character, whose amiability of disposition, gentleness and kindly spirit, have ever been an example of good to those around her. Mr. Brabham was a lay delegate to the Methodist Episcopal Conference held in Bloomington in September 1891, and always strives in whatever position placed to advance the cause of religion so dear to his heart.

Transcribed from the personal notebook of Elizabeth J. Brabham- Linn Death of Uncle John taken from the Northwestern Christian Advocate.

Rev. John Power Brabham was born in the State of Virginia near Norfolk, April 14, 1818 and died at his home in Lovington, Ill. Jan 5, 1908 aged eighty-nine years, eight months, twenty-one days. He was fourth in a family of Fifteen children; nine of whom were boys and six girls. At the age of seventeen he move to Washington County, Ohio and settled near Lowell. He soon started out in life for himself beginning by learning the trad of cooper at which trade he worked more or less extensively during his residence in Ohio while resididn here he meet Miss Doshe Elizabeth Webster sought her heart and hand, and won her. They were married Dec. 23, 1840. At the present writing Mrs. Brabham is still living but is poorly and can not stay munch longer. They continued to reside in Ohio for more than a quarter of a century. Not long after his marriage Brother Brabham felt called to God to exercise his talents as a local preacher. We had been found an efficient class leader andan aggressive, sencible chirstain worker, so was readily recommended to the pressiding elder by his quartly conference for License to preach. The license bore the name of Stephen M. Merrill, presiding elder, who afterwards became known to the wold and loved as Bishop Merrill. Brother Brabham continued in gifts and grace and was ordained as the local decon and then as a local elder which relation he held to the day of his death. He came to Illinois in October 1867 and settled in Lowe Township, Moultrie County. Where he toiled with other pioneers making a fram out of the praries and also preaching far and wide. Several circuits owe their existance to this man's tireless zeal. God kindly permitted him to acquire some degree of wealth but blessed him further with character, honor and a good name. After twenty two years of residence on the farm he moved to Lovington in the spring of 1889 and has assince resided ther just across the street from our chuch. On Jan 5, 1908. the last summons came. The chariot which called for the prophet Elijah swept low by this man's door. He was ready and stepped in and was borne aloft to his heavenly home.

Cnty, Virginia, and died October 3, 1874 in Watertown, Washington County, Ohio. He married (1) ANNA Bef.
1840. He married (2) AMY OLIVER October 8, 1840 in Watertown, Washington County, Ohio. She was born
February 5, 1826 in Virginia, and died July 24, 1878 in Washington County, Ohio.

Notes for WILLIAM ALEXANDER BRABHAM:

These notes came from Kerry Brabham Derrick and Kerry got these from information compiled by Alta (Brabham) Knopp on Febuary 1981 and given to Kerry's father William Wilbert Brabham.

William A. Brabham married Amy Oliver, who was of Penna Dutch descent. Their children were: Sarah, Delikah, Martha, Jefferson, Edward Melros, Mandy, Henrietta, Lucinda and Lucy. A son died of diptheria.
Edward Melros was Alta and William W.'s grandfather. Alta is the daughter of John Brabham, brother to Clovis.

The following is taken from a Times Regional Editor, Burns Harlan:

There is an old Brabham Cemetry in Warren Township, near Marrietta, Ohio. It is located along what is now Ohio 676 Watertown Rd.

William's history of Washington County (1881), says in 1856, at the death of Lucy D. Brabham, Walter Brabham fenced off for cemetry purpose a finely located lot on the Lancaster road. It adds that the property was owned by Brabham and given to public use untill 1877 when the Warren Township Cemetry Asso. was founded and the lot transferred to it.

Lucy D. Brabham's monument shows she was the daughter of W. (William) & M. (Maria) Brabham, born May 29, 1847 and died June 11, 1856. Next to Lucy D. Brabham's monument is that of Walter and Maria which says he was born Sept. 29, 1812 and died Feb. 14, 1882 and she was born March 28, 1814 and died Nov. 21, 1874. It also sasys they both were natives of Virginia.

Both William's and Andrews's histories contain brief biographies of Brabham. Born Loudoun County, Virginia, he received his early education in the common schools of that County and began the study of law with William Benton.

In 1835, he moved to Ohio, first in Morgan County and afterward to Washington County where he was engaged several years in teaching, merchandising and farming.

In 1859, after he completed a course of law study undre the preceptorship of Davis Green, he was admitted to the bar and practiced law untill his death.

William Brabham was elected prosecuting attorney in 1867 and re-elected in 1871, serving untill 1873.

Will Of William A. Brabham, per Washington County, Ohio Wills, Vol. 2, page 429, 1867-77, film 0946216, Wm. A. Brabham, Watertown, Washington County, Ohio do make my last will and testament. First my just debts be paid. Second, my wife Anna Brabham to have all my estate during her life, after which it is to be divided among my children, Delilah, Sarah, Martha, Amanda Melrose, Lucinda, Louise. No sale or appraisal of this property. I appoint Anna Brabham executor and she is not required to give security in performance of the statutes. Wm. A. Brabham, dated oct. 3rd, 1874, witness Chas Wagner, Diana Wilson. Probated 29 Oct. 1874.

The Great Brabham Reunion 1908

The birthday anniversary of Thomas J. Brabham and that of his daughter, Sarah J. Bell. which occurred November 22, was made the occasion of a joint reunion of the Brabham family units on Thanksgiving day, which was also the 125th anniversary of their progenitors celebrated on American soil. The affair was held at the home of T. J. Brabham, six miles northwest of Junction City. The Brabham forbears came from England and landed on American soil. September 22, 1783.

Thomas J. Brabham was born in Loudoun County, Virginia, on November 22, 1830. When seven years of age he moved to Washington, County, Ohio with his parents, where he resided untill December 25, 1850, when he married Miss Sarah McKenna, and to this union was born five children.. They are Mrs. Mary Carpenter. of Monroe, Oregon; John Brabham of Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. Sarah Bell of Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. Rosilla Graham of Junction City, Oregon; James Brabham of Eugene, Oregon.

On September 28, 1861 he enlisted in the union ary of the Civil War for three years and three months in Co.

H., 77th Ohio Volunteer infantry. and took part in one of the bloodiest battles of the war, the battle of Shiloh, and several other battles and skirmishes, and while he was still in the army his wife died on February 9, 1864. He then got a 30 day furlough and returned home to look after his children, and on March 23, 1864 he married Miss Melissa M. Burris, whom he thought a woorthy woman and one capable of taking the responsibility of caring for his little children, and on March 28th, 1864, returned to his regiment at Little Rock, Arkansas, to serve out the remainder of his time, and was honorably discharged on December 21, 1864, and reached home on January 4, 1865.

On March 1, 1865 he moved to Mountrie county, Illinois, and to them were born seven children. Amelia Ann Brabham who died in infancy; Otto Brabham, Junction City; Edward Brabham who died November 25, 1895; Granville Brabham, Junction City; Alfred Brabham, Eugene; Richard Brabham, Junction City; Mrs Augusta Willson, Junction City.

He Moved to Ellsworth County, Kansas, February 10, 1876 and lived there until the fall of 1888. He then started for Oregon, arriving in Eugene on September 24, 1888, and resided near Springfield untill October 1, 1897, when he moved onto his farm where he now resides, and wher this great family reunion was held on November 26, 1908, this being the first and only time the ten living children have ever all been home at one time. He has 36 living grandchilren and 31 living great grand children. and the total number present on this occasion was 70. Mrs. I. Hudson of portland, a niece of Thomas J. Brabham, was also present as an honored guest. whom he had not seen for 43 years, this being a very enjoyable meeting and talking of olden times. She was also present at the Brabham reunion held in Benedict, Nebraska, on September 1, 1908.

An elegant Thanksgiving dinner was served at 2 o'clock. The table fairly groaned under its great load of good things to eat, and at which 45 guests were seated, all doing justice to this bountiful feast, consisting of turkey, geese, chickens, cranberry sauce, pickles, pumpkin pie, mince pie, and cake of all kinds, and other things too numerous to mention. The dining hall was decorated with beautiful chrysanthemums.

The birthday cake was made and presented to Thomas J. Brabham by his granddaughter, Miss Dana Brabham of Eugene. Around this cake burned 78 candles, representing his 78th birthday anniversary. The guest all cheered when the cake was presented to him.

The rest of the day was ocupied in music and singing and a general good time. Mr. Brabham is now is now hale and hearty and spry as an average man of 60 years, and he is a staunch republican haviving always voted the straight republican ticket from Lincolnto taft. Mrs. Brabham, his wife, was born in Washington County, Ohio. on July 4, 1839, and is now in her seventieth year.

At a very late hour the guests departed for their respective homes, wishing Grandpa and Grandma Brabham many happy returns of the day.

Info from Becky Kerr Rootweb page "The Tangled Web"

Henry Harrison Brabham served in the Civil War. He was a Mess Sargent with Company H of the 77th Regiment, Ohio Infantry Volunteers. He was never at the front as his job was to round up food. He was with the men at the battle of Shiloh. He was accidentally wounded in the knee. Our family has his mustering out roll and diary. His brothers John and Stanton were also in the war. Maybe even Enos. An older brother had many farms in Illinois so he paid one of his brothers to go to war for him.

Myrtle M. Linn Frasier

From the handwritten notebook of Elizabeth Jane Brabham-Linn dated April 1902

Some two years ago I received a letter from a Mr. Brabham of Bamberg S.C., who wrote me that in early days three Brabham brothers came over from England and in those days when immigrants were unable to pay their passage some one would come forward and pay it and then they were compelled to work for the party paying it until they were paid. (Indentured Servants)

One of the brothers was sold to a man in Virginia, one to a man in North Carolina, and the third to a man in South Carolina. The Virginia brother was our great-grandfather and was a shoemaker. The hammer with which he worked his trade is now in the hands of Aunt Rosena, Uncle Stanton's wife in Ohio.

You can rest assured that all the Brabhams that you ever heard of is a descendant of one of those three brothers and are all of good stuff. The one I got the letter from at Bamberg was a president of a bank at that place, but he reminded me that if ever any fortune came over from England that the one receiving it must divide up.

Your Cousin,

J.W. Brabham

Eldest son of Enos Brabham son of John and Elizabeth Brabham of Loudoun County, Virginia

Info sent to me from Becky Kerr:

The following excerpts are taken from the 1864 Diary of Henry Harrison Brabham written during the Civil War while stationed at Little Rock, Arkansas. I have tried to maintain the spelling much the same as he wrote it but I have added some sentence structure to make it easier to follow. I have noted throughout the diaries that Henry wrote many letters for Thomas and transacted his business for him and many others. I am guessing the reason is they could not read or write well enough to conduct their own business. In some cases it may have been because he was the Sergeant.

These entries deal with the news of Sarah McKenna Brabhams death.
the abbreviations for his brothers names are T.J. Brab and J.P. Brabham. They stand for Thomas Jefferson Brabham and John Power Brabham.

Monday, Feb. 22, 1864 Little Rock, Ark
Smokey and quite warm.

I went over the river to the P.O. office got a letter for T.J. Brabham from J.P. Brabham stating the Sarah, T.J.'s wife was very low, not expected to live.
yesterday James McKenna gave me ($50) to express to his wife for him and I put it in the Express office today.

Tuesday, Feb. 23, 1864 Little Rock
A little smokey and quite warm.

I started to the mill where; Thomas J. Brabham was at work. I stopped at the Post Office got a letter for him in, which was the sorrowful news that his wife was dead. I went to the mill with a heavy heart. Thomas came in to camp with me.

I have filled out his papers will try to get them approved to morrow so he can go home.

Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1864 Saw Mill

Day smokey and Pleasant out this morning. T.J. Brab and I went to Captain Robinson and presented furlough papers. He readily approved them. then we tuck to Brigade Ld2 then got ready and came out to the mill.

Thursday, Feb. 25, 1864 Little Rock

some little smokey but warm and pleasant. I bought a cook stove of a man at the mill got a negro to haul it in to camp. gave him two dollars for hauling it to the river.

T.J. Brab brought his things in from the mill. We went over the river to camp got furlough then prepared to get T.J. Brab started home. I lent him ($23).

Friday, Feb. 26, 1864 Little Rock

Smokey and warm. I went with Thomas J. Brabham to the Bluffs got a ticket for him to Memphis, Tenn., the boat started from the Bluffs for Memphis at about 2 o'clock. I could not wait to see it start or the train would have left me so when the Train started I bade him good by and started.....( That was all that was visible.)

Memorial and Biographical Record Compendium of Biography, Geo. A. Ogle. & Co. Publishers, Engravers, and Book Manufacturers 1899:

Henry H. Brabham, deceased, was for a quarter of a century one of the prominent and representative farmers of York County. In his life span of almost sixty years he accomplished much and left behind him an honorable record well worthy of perpetuation. He was a man of the highest respectability, and those who were most intimately associated with him speak in unqualified terms of his sterling integrity, his honor in business and his fidelity to all the duties of public and private life. He was faithful to his church, to his country and to his friends, and in his home was a most exemplary husband and father. His death, which occurred January 21, 1897, occasioned the deepest regret throughout the community, and York county thereby lost one of its most valued citizens. His portrait appears on another page of this volume.

Mr. Brabham was born in Morgan County, Ohio, March 14, 1838, a son of John and Elizabeeth (Powers) Brabham, who had removed to that state from Pennsylvania at an early day and there spent their remaining years. Our subject was reared and educated in Washington County, Ohio, and there followed farming and also worked some at the cooper's trade in early life. On the 28th of September, 1861, he manifested his patriotism by enlisting in Company H, Seventy-seventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and was in service for three years and three months, participating in the battle of Shiloh and many other engagements of less importance. While doing duty as a train guard in Arkansas, he was shot in the leg. He was honorably discharged December 22, 1864, with the rank of second sergeant.

At the close of the war Mr. Brabham went to Moultrie County, Illinois, where he made his home for seven years, coming to York county, Nebraska, in the fall of 1872, and taking up a homestead on section 32, Arborville township, on which he located the following spring. His first home here was a dugout, later he lived in a sod house for one year, and then erected a good frame house, in which the family still reside. He broke and improved his land, at his death left a good farm of three hundred and twenty acres, under a high state of cultivation and supplied with good and substantial buidlings.

On July 30, 1863, Mr. Brabham wedded Miss Margaret J. Fisher, a daughter of John and Margaret (Short) Fisher, natives of Illinois. Four children blessed this union, namely: Edward F., John H., George W., deceased; Elizabeth J. Mr. Brabham was an earnest Christian gentleman and as a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church he exercised a great influence for good in the community. His political support was always given the Republican party, but never cared for the honor or emoluments of public office. Mrs. Brabham is an estimable lady, of many sterling qualities, and has a large cicle of friends in York county.

(Memorial and Biographical Record Compendium of Biography of Butler, Polk, Seward, York and Fillmore Counties, Nebraska)

Richard B. Brabham. - In the Busy community located in the thriving village of Benedict, York County, we find several energetic and thorough-going business men, who have attained success through their own tact, good judgment and perseverance. Among the number is the gentleman whose name heads this biographical notice, and who is one of the leading grocers of the place. He is a native of Ohio, born in Washington County, October 30, 1845, and is the son of Enos and Catherine (Humphreys) Brabham, both natives of Virginia. The grandfather, John Brabham, was a prominent planter of the Old Dominion, and from that state removed to Ohio, spending his last days in Washington County. The parents of our subject, who were wellknown farming people, also died in that state. They reared a family of ten children, four sons and six daughters.

In his native state Richard B. Brabham spent his boyhood and youth in much the usual manner of farmer boys of his day, assisting in the labors of the fields and attending the county schools when his services were not needed at home. In September, 1861, he donned the blue and went to the defense of his country as a member of Company H, Seventy-seventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and among the engagements in which he participated was the famous battle of Shiloh. After two years of service, however, he was discharged on account of physical disability and returned to his home in Washington County, Ohio, where he remained untill 1867. In that year he made a trip to Illinois, and subsequently visited other western and southern states, finally deciding to locate in York County, Nebraska. In 1871 he took up a homestead on section 28, Morton township, which he improved and cultivated until 1887, when he sold the place and moved to the village of Benedict. He was appointed its first postmaster, and most capably discharged the duties of that office for six years. He also opened a grocery store, and soon succeeded in building up a good trade, which he still enjoys, his patronage extending over a wide range of territory.

On September 28th, 1872, Mr Brabham led to the marriage altar Miss Martha Tapp, of Ohio, daughter of Nathaniel and Harriet (Deacon) Tapp. To Mr. and Mrs. Brabham have been born two daughters, namely: Olie M. and Kittie C. Fraternally Mr. Brabham affiliates with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Ancient Order of United Workman; and politically is identified with the Democratic party, but has never been an aspirant for office, preferring to give his undivided attention to his business interests. In all transactions he has proved straightforward and reliable, and wins the confidence and respect of those with whom he comes in contact, either in business or in social life.

Notes for FRANCIS M. BRABHAM:

This Info. is from York County Nebraska and its people by T. E. Sedgwick Vol. II The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co. 1921:

A Man of well balanced capacities and powers is always a strong character and one who inspires confidence in others: he may not have genius or any phenomenal characteristics, yet he is capable of mature judgment of his own capacities and of the people and circumstances that make up his life's contacts and experiences. What a man does and what he attains depend largely upon his opportunities, and even-paced energy will generally will carry him forward to the goal of success. These thought are reflected in the life and work of Francis M. Brabham, born in Washington County, Ohio, June 17, 1846. now in his seventy-fifth year, living retired after the strenuous activity of a life on the farm.

His parents were John P. and Docia (Webster) Brabham, the former a native of the stste of Virginia and the latter of Connecticut. Early in life they found themselves in Ohio, were married in that state and there brought up their family. In 1867 they moved to Illinois and secured a tract of land for which John P. Brabham paid eighteen dollars per acre and there, assisted by his sons, he broke the sod and cultivated the fields, finally bringing the place to a condition of excellent improvement and he and his wife there spent the remained of their lives. Befor taking to farming he had been following the trade of a cooper. Mr. and Mrs. Brabham were the parents of five children: Walter and Leonidas, both deceased; David, living in Decatur, Illinois, employed as salesman by a whoesale house; Dianthy, deceased, and Francis M., subject of this sketch. the parents were Methodists and loyal to the teachings of their denomination. He had always been an active adherent of the republican party and displayed a progressive spirit in community affairs.

Francis M. Brabham attended the public school of Ohio in the acquirement of an education and in his early youth he learned the cooper trade and also worked at farming. In 1867, being then in his twenty-first year, he accompanied his parents to Illinois and worked at farming, receiving, as he asserts, fifty cents per day for his labor. In 1871 he purchased a tract of land which he operated for some time and finaly sold out, realizing a handsome profit on the investment. It was in 1882 that Mr. Brabham came to Nebraska and purchased two hundred and forty acres of school land located in Morton township, York county. He paid seven dollars per acre for the holding, proceeded to set it out to cultivation, improved and developed the tract as he went along, finally making it one of the best kept places in the township or county. His practical methods and his industry were rewarded by large crops and he gave careful attention to markets, and thus was able to dispose of his crops and stock to good advantage. He has had numerous offers made for the farm and has refused as high as three hundred dollars an acre for it. In 1910, feeling that he had earned a period of repose, he retired from active participation in the agricultural affairs of his place, and since that date has been living in comfortable retirement in Benedict. He is a stockholder in the Farmers Elevator Company at Benedict.

Mr. Brabham's marriage took place in Illinois, his bride being Rebecca Dieter, a native of Akron Heights, Ohio, and to their union two children were born: Carrie, Who died at the age of three years; and Ella, Wife of Fred Grobe, a York County farmer. The family are members of the Methodist church and Mr. Brabham is a staunch republican. Interested in the advancement of education, he served on the local school board for some years. He is a man of genuine worth and occupies a high place as citizen, unstinted esteem being extended to him on all sides.

Pioneer Farmer

Agile Octogenarian Still Running Farm

by Cornelia Weil of the Reminder

Three weeks ago, Will Brabham of Crow reshingled his barn roof. One week later, he celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday.

This white-haired octogenarian continues to carry out all the necessary chores around his 103-acre farm-- -- from plowing and planting fields to raking and pitching loose hay into his barn. He may also be seen driving his vintage truck around the small community and proudly displaying a recently renewed driver's license.

In fact, the one concession Brabham makes to his age is an extra two hours of sleep in the morning. whereas he used to get up at 4 a. m. , he now gets up at 6 a. m.

Born in Kansas in 1882, Brabham came to Oregon in 1888 with his parents, his two brothers and five sisters. "My father had tried homesteading back there but after three bad years, he decided to move on to Oregon,"

Brabham said. "We Came into Portland on what was known then as the 'immigrant train' "

Brabham distinctly remembers that it took three days to get from Kansas to Oregon. "I only remember to because I was wearing a pair of shoes that were too small," he said. "My mother wouldn't let me take them off for fear I would lose them, so I endured three seemingly endless of agony. "

When Brabham came to Eugene, the city had a population of 2,000. He first attended Central School- - "that was where Pacific First Federal is now "- -and Gray school.

Brabham was reluctant to talk of the past because "some people tell all the things they have done and everyone else thinks they must be really old." But he recalled with enthusiasm his settlement on 40 acres of land near Wolf Creek in 1927.

"Crow had only one store then- - there were hardly any roads and even fewer neighbors, " Brabham said.

"But now- -why just the other day we counted eight families around here. "

Over the years Brabham has Planted hay, grain and stock on his land. He says his diversified farming has saved him from many agricultural disasters over the past 40 years due to weather.

When he was still using horse teams to plow and mow, Brabham and a neighbor Alva McCullough would work together on their two fields. Mrs. McCullough recalled that the two friends "used to get up at 4 a. m. and race to the field to see who would get there first."

The advent of the tractor plow and electric lights stand out in Brabham's memory. He said the first tractor he ever saw was in Noti in 1936- - "an old Atlas Chambers model." McCullough and Brabham recalled that "Our horse teams could plow circles around that tractor."

Ten years later, Brabham ordered his first tractor, but he still had to wait over a year for delivery. "I'm using that tractor today, " he noted. "Just sent it down last summer to have the motor overhauled for the first time.!"

Brabham married Jenny Cruger of Crow in 1946, who had two Children by a previous marriage- -Francis Brabham and Margaret Hurburt of Junction City. About this time his farm, which now encompassed a total of 320 acres, was wired for electricity.

About eight years ago Brabham fell off the roof of his house while reshingling it. "I was in the hospital for seven weeks with a broken hip and arm, " he said. "The doctor told me I could never use the arm again."

But today, the sprightly farmer is again working his 103 Acres, Building Fences and Clearing land with the assistance of his long time friend, McCullough.

Remarking on his 30-year friendship, Brabham noted with a shy smile that a neighbor had recently asked him "if Alva and I were still married. "

Brabham attributes his longevity and agility to hard work that "keeps me too busy to get lonesome" and the early to bed" philosophy. But he conceded, somewhat ruefully, that "Probably next harvest I'll have to use a baler on my hay like other folks. "

This was done about 1968 or after May of 1968

Notes for WILLIAM WALTER REID, SR.:

On July 7, 2001 we took a trip to winchester bay, Oregon for the weeken. Christy Ofsthun And I took My 1978 Goldwing 1000 bike for the trip, we whent down Smith River road that goes from Crow, Oregon via Wolf Creek Road, Left home in Ventea, Oreogon about 9am and about 10:30 am just past the Smith River Falls Camp Grounds at Doe Creek Road a black bear about one year old or so was running down the side of the hill came up an out of the ditch and hit us on the bike right at the front of the motor, I was able to keep the bike up and got it to a stop to check what damage to the bike which was a little then check to see what had hapen to the bear and found that it had been killed from the inpact and was back in the ditch. We decided to go on with our trip. After we got to Winchester Bay we went to the bar there and I gave Christy $5.00 dollars and I took $5.00 dollars and we put it in the lotto machines and Christy won $71.50 dollars and I won $50.00 dollars so we just figured that we were lucky for not dumping the bike and getting hurt and we also caught some real nice size crab that weeken.
