Notes for Priscilla Jean Roberts:

The memory I have is the morning after my Dad was Shot. (the story is told on Mom's page) I was kneed and glasses wearing, snotty nose little girl. I cried a lot and people would talk about how pret Ronnie were, and then who does Jeanie look like? We lived in the Defence Area, it was built during people that worked for the Western Defence Plant in Alton, IL. The defence Area was a very rough neighborhood. In our back yard was separated from the ball diamond by the sidewalk. Dad coached of very rough boys. If people drove down our street slowly to slum, they would jump on the running the cars and turn the car on it's side. This would leave terrified people in the stranded in their cars, would called the police to come and set them up right. They drove away never to return. They was the faint hearted, I had my leg cut to the bone, when I was about five, by a boy who just threw a m feet.

I was about four when a girl came by and asked me if I wanted to take a ride. She took me about six my house and then kicked me off her bike at a vacant lot and said,"Now see if you can find you way" cried all the way home, but walked straight home.

We were playing King of the mountain on the coal boxes and this boy hit me while I wasn't looking on my shoulder breaking it. I wore a sling to school because it was my Shoulder not my arm. This his arm would chase me everyday to show everyone I didn't have a broken arm since I wasn't wearing In the first grade a boy in our class was discover to have a brain tumor. He was operated on to remove was to deep into his brain so they just removed part of his skull hoping it would grow out instead of both. He lived about five years and we all played together everyday. He went into a coma just before Christmas a died three days later. We were so sad that he didn't even get to unwrap his Christmas

Notes for Emma Kathleen Skinner:

Mom's mother died when she was 5 and grandpa took her to Dick and Emma Flunker's house and I think he would be back to get her when school started. He never came back. She was within walking distance of her Grandpa and Ma Skinner (Who was raising the rest of the kids). When she would go there they would tell her to go home she didn't live there. She lived with Grandma and Dick until she married. Grandma Skinner died and the rest of the kids were on their own.

Daughter Jeanie's version of the shooting
I remember the day my dad was shot. It is one of my first memories. I woke up to a gray, dingy morning as if a cloud lingered in my bedroom. I heard the sounds of angry voices coming from the next room and it was as if I was invisible, and they talked loud and talking about Mom. I don't remember what they said just that I should take up for Mom, but I didn't know why.
I was told or remember stories that Mom came home, A car was sitting behind her car running with the engine. She got in her car and drove home with him in pursuit. She ran in the house when she got home. She was in the bedroom where Papa was lying in bed. They were talking while Mom got undressed. Mom suddenly saw a man looking in the window. Dad ran outside and he chased the man and tackled him football style. The man turned and put a gun against Dad's chin and fired. The bullet went through his chin, into his neck and his shoulder. He woke up with something over his head: so he uncovered his head and asked them to call an ambulance. The policeman leaned down covering him back up. Our neighbor Mr. Miller called the ambulance. He spent 6 months in the hospital and had the nerves of a new born put in his shoulder. This was at St. Louis Hospital in St. Louis it was experimental so it only Cost $500.00.
Dad's family blamed Mom and were going to take us kids and tried to keep her from the hospital. That happened in 1944 and in 1988 a knot came up on Dad's neck they operated and saw where the 44 year old bullet had gone thru the main artery of his neck clearly it had entered and exited without him bleeding to death. I should have, God wasn't done with him yet.
