

Descendants of Henry (Johann Heinrich) Greninger

Generation No. 1

1. HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)² GRENINGER (*GRENINGER*¹) was born 24 October 1758 in Germany, and died 11 September 1833 in Sugar Valley, Logan Twp., Centre Co., (now Clinton Co.) Pa.. He married ANNA MARIA ZARTMAN Abt. 1780 in Northumberland Co., Pa., daughter of JACOB ZARTMAN and ANNA RIEHM/REAM. She was born Abt. 1762 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., and died 26 April 1834 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa..

Notes for HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH) GRENINGER:

The surname "Greninger" may have been spelled:

"Groninger/Gronninger/Greeninger/Croninger/Groeninger/Gruninger/Kroninger".

Johann Heinrich "Henry" Greninger, Sr., served as a private in Captain Benjamin Weiser's Company, German Regiment, Continental Line, stationed at Philadelphia, Pa., on 30 Jan 1777. He was a Revolutionary War Veteran. In 1832 he was a pensioner. His birthdate may have been 24 Oct 1758.

JOHANN HENRY GRENINGER, SR. was commonly referred to as "Henry" Greninger. He was a Revolutionary War Veteran. It is unknown exactly whom his parents were, or the name of the village or town where he was born, but it is believed that he may have been born in Pfalz, Bavaria, a sector of the Palatinate area in Germany. He was born in the month of October, 1758.

Henry Greninger, Sr. came to America as a small child, about 8 or 9 years of age, with Johan Nicholas Greninger and Lorentz (Lawrence) Greninger, on the Ship POLLY, (Robert Porter, Master), from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. (211 passengers); arrived at Philadelphia on August 24, 1765. Women, and children 14 years and younger, were not usually listed as passengers.

The family settled in Berks County (later changed to Northumberland County, near Derrstown (Lewisburg), along the west side of the Susquehanna River, where one Ludwig Derr had a trading post.

In December, 1776, at the age of 18 years, Henry volunteered for the Militia, under Captain Benjamin Weiser's Company, of Northumberland County. He was certified on January 30, 1777, at Philadelphia. Christopher Snyder was his First-Lieutenant. A Muster Roll of Captain Benjamin Weiser's Company of Northumberland County Militia, at Philadelphia, for January 30, 1777, shows:

4 Commissioned Officers,
4 Sargeants,
1 Drummer,
31 Privates

Henry Greninger, Sr. was listed as Private No. 26. (At the foot of the roll is this memorandum: "George Herald and Tobias Pickle deserted this morning)."

Henry's Company met at Mahanoy Township, Berks County, (changed to Northumberland County in 1777). His tour of duty was between 1 January and 10 March, 1777. They marched to Reading, where they lay some time; then marched to Germantown, where they spent some time. Then they marched to Philadelphia, where they camped for a considerable length of time (at Valley Forge)., and thence to Princeton, New Jersey. Then they returned home.

Adam Schafer was then elected Captain of the Company, and they marched to the West Branch of the Susquehanna River to Wallis' Farm, in the Muncy settlement, to guard the frontiers from the ravages of the Indians. Henry served as a Private in the 3rd Batallion, under Col. Hosterman, in the 7th Company, under Lieut. Adam Schafer. On 1 May 1778, they marched against the Indians on the West branch of the Susquehannah to Wallis Station. From the last of August until the end of October, 1779, he boated supplies (flour, etc.) by canoe from Coxtown to Sunbury for the use of General Sullivan. (From the time he volunteered in 1776 until 1779, he had three different tours of duty).

The "Great Runaway" took place in 1778, and there was Indian trouble off and on during 1779 and 1780.

Henry and Anna Maria were married in 1780 or 1781, at Mahanoy Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Anna Maria was born in 1762, in Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and was the daughter of Jacob Zartman, Sr. and his wife, Margaretha Ream.

Henry and Anna Maria were both members of the Himmel Lutheran Church before they were married. This church is located in the southern part of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, and is one of the oldest churches in the county. Settlers came into this section as early as 1765, as squatters on Indian land. After the treaty with the Indians in 1769, when this area was purchased from the Indians, settlers came more rapidly. Religious services were held in this section in 1771, or before, but it remained for the missionary, Rev. John Michael Enterline, to organize a congregation. The records of this church were recorded from 1776, and it is assumed that this is the date of the formal organization of the congregation. It is not known who translated these records from the German, but Dr. Charles A. Fisher, of Sellingsgrove, Pennsylvania, arranged it alphabetically, giving names of parents, name of child, and date of birth of child. In most cases, the date of baptism would be the same year as date of birth. Many of the men of this congregation served in the Revolution, including Henry Groninger, Sr.

There is no doubt in my mind that Henry and Anna Maria were married at the Himmel Lutheran Church. The Baptismal Records of said church (Births, 1774--1787), list them as parents of the following children:

Anna Maria, 10/01/1781; Elizabeth, 11/15/1782; John Henry, Jr., 11/27/1784; John Peter, 03/21/1787; Leonard, 1789; Magdalena, 01/14/1792; Philippina, 02/18/1785; Susan, 1793; and John, 06/26/1797.

The last five children, named above, to wit: Leonard; Magdalena; Philippina; John; and Susan; were not listed in the Church records, as the old records were incomplete.

In 1782, Henry was listed as a taxable person of Mahanoy Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. His name was listed as Henry Greeninger. He owned no acreage or horses at that time, but did have one bovine, and his tax was 0 pounds, 3 shillings, 4 pence; the kind was Federal Supply.

In 1783 and 1784, Henry was listed as Henry Kroninger, a taxable person.

In 1785, he was listed as Henry Groninger, a taxable person.

In 1786 and 1787, he was listed as Henry Greninger, a taxable person.

In 1793, he was listed as Henry Groninger, a taxable person, and owned 60 acres, as per Warrantees of Land, dated May 27, 1793.

In the First U. S. Census, of 1790, Henry was listed as Henry Creninger, Northumberland County, as head of household; 3 females; 2 males under 16 years.

Henry and Anna Maria moved to the area of central Pennsylvania known as Penn's and Brush Valleys, and then on to Sugar Valley. They had settled in this area around 1805.

The territory of what is now Clinton County was entirely deserted, the people fleeing to the lower townships of Northumberland and Cumberland Counties. The assessment of 1782 shows not a single settler in this place that year. Clary Campbell appears on the assessment list of Penn Township, but there are no returns of officials of Bald Eagle from 1777--1784. Col. Hartley, writing from Sunbury, August 10, 1778, said he had been up the West Branch of the Susquehannah River, and found all settlements above Wallis' Farm, near Muncy, evacuated.

Many of the first settlers took out leases for their land, but were not given Deeds until after the expiration of the term of the leases. Some of the leases were in force for seven years. The first inhabitants of Penn's and Brush Valleys were closely united by ties of friendship. Brush Mountain was at that time no barrier to social intercourse between the two sections. Several of the pioneer settlers came from Penn's Valley, where they had sojourned for a few years on their exodus westward from the eastern counties. These early settlers, including the Greninger family, had a taste of Indian warfare, while still residing in the lower counties. There are evidences that the Indians frequently visited these grounds at a period before settlements were made. The site of one of their camps has been alluded to, and it may be worthy of notice that there was an Indian path across the valley, parts of which are visible to this day, as it has been stated. This path began somewhere along the Juniata River, coming through Seven Mountains across Penn's Valley, entering Brush Valley through Minich's Gap, southeast of Wolf's Store, thence crossing the valley obliquely in the direction of the point where Brungart's road crosses into Sugar Valley. No attempt has been made to trace its course farther, but it is known to have terminated at a point opposite the mouth of Pine Creek, on the West Branch, where there used to be an Indian graveyard. At the foot of Nittany Mountain, north of George Brungart's farm, there was fitted through a small tree, a polished stone eighteen or twenty inches long and about three inches in diameter. It probably served as a "guide-board" to the path.

The Greninger family, and other settlers, endured many hardships, and had many a severe struggle to maintain existence. Their occupation was principally farming, or rather getting ready for farming. It was a tremendous task to build houses, barns, make roads and clear land, all of which crowded upon them simultaneously. It was a constant struggle to keep body and soul together; yet, in spite of their desperate exertion, the wolf often came very near the door. On more than one occasion, potatoes which had been planted were dug up again, pared, the parings replanted, and the rest used for food. After a time, more provisions were raised than were required for their own sustenance; this surplus was then hauled over frightful roads to distant markets. Much of the grain was converted into whiskey, which reduced the bulk of the commodity, and that portion which the people did not drink themselves was taken to market. At an early date, there was made ample provision to manufacture whiskey. In 1803, there were eight distilleries in the valley. Besides grain, wagon-loads of apples and peaches were hauled to the distilleries to be made into liquor. The exports were chiefly flax-seed and clover-seed, wheat and whiskey, and were transported in large covered wagons, to which were hitched four or six horses. Produce was thus hauled to Philadelphia, and it required from ten to fifteen days to make a round trip. Some of the produce was taken to Reading, Pottsville, and later to Lewisburg, which continued to be the chief marketplace until the railroad to Penn's Valley was opened. Taking one of those heavy teams over the roads of that period was not a mere pastime, and those hardy teamsters could tell many a tale of unpleasant mishaps and narrow escapes; how night overtook them in the mountains; how they drove down icy mountains at full gallop; how they forded swollen streams; and how they stuck fast in the mud, or, worse, upset into it. An adventure of the latter description would be accompanied by a vast amount of unnecessary profanity in the Dutch and English languages alternately.

The Greningers', and others, were industrious, economical, and honest, charitable, and sociable; bearing kind hearts under a rough exterior. Necessity made them rigidly economical in dress, in furniture, and in food. In those days, people did not travel in buggies and splendid carriage. There were no kid gloves nor luxuries of that sort. One pair of shoes had to last a year, and young men did not have their ambition to wear boots gratified until they arrived at the age of twenty-one. The men wore a short coat (or wamus) of home-made cloth, thick and tough as sole-leather, and fiery red. It used to be said that no man was rich unless he possessed a long-barreled shot-gun, a Brungart plow, and a red "wamus". Clothing was nearly all home-made, and there was heard in every house the humming sound of the spinning-wheel and the incessant stroke of the loom. This was the only "instrumental music" then heard. No carpets covered the floor, and articles of furniture were few and of simple construction. The children knew when Sunday had come by the appearance of coffee on the table, for it was served only on this one day of the week. Sugar was kept to be seen rather than to be eaten. But these people were a hardy race; their wholesome diet and vigorous exercise were calculated to develop them physically. They were strictly honest; it is said that a man's verbal promise then was of more value than a man's note with bail at present. Their dependence on each other made them more helpful in times of need and more sociable as well.

Many customs that formerly prevailed have disappeared. Women used to work in the fields during harvest, taking a hand at reaping with the sickle. Before cradles were used, wheat and rye were reaped with the sickles, a slow process, so that through some seasons, it required twenty or thirty days continuous labor to harvest those crops. Whiskey was considered indispensable in the harvest field; and, indeed, it was esteemed almost one of the necessities of life. Such must have been the opinion of one of the old pioneers, who made provision in his Will, that his widow should have, among other things, a barrel (or half a barrel) of whiskey annually. Whiskey was pure then, and less injurious to health than the adulterated beverages now manufactured; yet the excessive use of it bore its legitimate fruits of evil. Threshing was done by flail and tramping by horses. It was a whole winter's job to thresh a large crop. The cooking was done in an open fireplace. It was inconvenient, but those blazing log fires in the wide chimney were far more cheerful on cold and stormy nights than the lifeless, sombre-looking stoves that came later.

"Signs" (astrological) were a matter of great moment. There were special days for planting each of the different vegetables of the garden, sowing, or planting the various crops of the farm, building fences, covering a new building, butchering, setting a hen, filling up the vinegar keg. In short, everything was performed in its appropriate "sign". It is true there were as many different opinions as to what was the best "sign" in which to do certain things, as there were different persons; but that did not matter. The "sign" had to be duly respected nevertheless.

There were omens too--good and bad. A rabbit crossing the path of a hunter in from of him was a bad omen, and no game could be expected that day. To enumerate, would be useless. The world is full of such fancies, even now.

Although the Greningers', and their friends, endured many hardships, they contrived, nevertheless, to have their amusements. They had their parties for house-raising, log-rolling, and husking. Training days were occasions of great enjoyment. Shooting-matches were frequent, and hunting was a pastime in which nearly all took part, and it must be confessed, that some devoted the Sabbath to this purpose, at times.

In 1803, Henry Greninger, Sr. (listed as Henry Creninger), received a Deed for 200 acres from the Warrantees of Land, dated March 3, 1803, Berks County, Pa.

In 1821, Henry Greninger, Sr. was listed on the Roll of Logan Township, (Sugar Valley), Centre County, Pa., and assessed for 100-150 acres. His son, Henry Greninger, Jr. was also assessed in that same year for 119 acres. His son, Peter Greninger, was likewise assessed in the same year for 100 acres that had been transferred to him by Daniel Bail. Henry's son, Leonard Greninger, was listed as a single free man, in the same year, in Logan Township, Centre County, Pa.

In 1831, Henry Greninger, Sr. was assessed for 90 acres, and had a Sawmill on his land. Henry Greninger, Jr. was assessed for 102-119 acres that year. Peter Greninger was assessed for 100-90 acres for the same year. John Greninger was assessed for 91 acres that year. And Leonard Greninger was assessed for 150 acres that year.

Henry Greninger, Sr., and his family, were among the first pioneer settlers of Sugar Valley, Centre County, Pa. The first actual permanent settlement in Sugar Valley was made soon after the Revolution by John Christopher Culby, who had been a Hessian soldier, but deserted from the British and joined the American cause. His name is said to have been "MILLER" previous to his desertion. He located near what is now known as Logan Mills. Soon after Culby settled, others joined him; among them were Henry Greninger, Sr., a Revolutionary War Veteran; Samuel Jones, a Revolutionary War Veteran; Philip Schreckengast; John Philips; Henry Spangler; and John Strawcutter. Later, others moved over from Brush Valley. Of these, the most prominent were Frederick Womelsdorf; Philip Glantz; Michael Bressler; Michael Kettner; and Barnet Rockey.

Henry Greninger, Sr. died on September 11, 1833, at Logan Township, Centre Co., Pa. He was survived by his widow, Anna Maria Zartman Greninger, and his children:

Henry, Jr.;
Peter;
Mary (Mrs. Christian Rupp);
Elizabeth
(Mrs. Philip Schreckengast);
Leonard;
John;
Susan (Mrs. Karstetter).

On April 26, 1837, Peter Greninger, the eldest living son of Henry Greninger, Sr., deceased, petitioned the Court to sell the assets of the estate of his said father. Since the time of his father's death on September 11, 1833, Henry's widow, Anna Maria Zartman Greninger, and their son, John Henry Greninger, Jr., had died. Said estate consisted of a certain tract of land, 91 acres, a house and barn, and about 40 acres of cleared land, thereon adjoining George Morgan's land and others. The estate was valued at $1,529.75 or $17.25 per acre. The farm was sold to the deceased's son, Leonard, on January 24, 1838. Leonard gave to each one named, the sum of $261.62, or the sum of the appraised value, including Henry Karstetter, a minor, who was the son of Susan Greninger Karstetter. Jacob Miller was the guardian for said minor child.

5. PETER (JOHN PETER)³ GRENINGER, SR. (HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)², GRENINGER¹) was born 21 March 1787 in Washington Twp., Northumberland Co., Pa., and died 20 April 1848 in Logan Twp., Clinton Co., Pa.. He married (1) MARY "MAGDELENE" KERSTETTER/CARSTETTER Abt. 1812 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa., daughter of JOHN KERSTETTER and CATHARINE WOLF. She was born 1788 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa., and died 20 April 1829 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa.. He married (2) MARGARET "PEGGY" BIERLY Abt. 1830 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa., daughter of ANTHONY BIERLY and ANNA WARNER. She was born 31 October 1773 in Springfield Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., and died Aft. 1876 in Venango Co., Pa..

Notes for PETER (JOHN PETER) GRENINGER, SR.:

John "Peter" Greninger/Kreninger, Sr.'s God-parents were Peter Zartman and his wife Catharine (nee Troutman), his Uncle and Aunt.

JOHANN (YOHANN) PETER GRENINGER, SR., AKA KRENINGER, (John Peter).

Peter was approximately 18 years old when he moved with his father's family from Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, to Sugar Valley, Centre County, Pennsylvania about 1805). Sometime about 1811 or 1812, he married Mary Magdalene Carstetter, the daughter of John Carstetter and Catherine Wolf Carstetter of Logan Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

In April of 1829, Mary Magdalene Carstetter Greninger died, leaving seven minor children under the age of 14 years. Peter petitioned the court for legal Guardianship of his minor children, as said children were the legal heirs of their mother's estate and entitled to receive one-half of a certain tract of land that had been inherited by their mother from her father, John Carstetter, deceased. Said land consisted of 250 acres in Logan Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania. The Guardianship case is on file as docket No. 1433, at the Court House in Bellefonte, Centre County, Pa.

After the death of his first wife, Peter married Margaret Bierly, who had formerly been married to John Phillips. It is not known whether John Phillips was deceased or whether they were divorced. I have not found any record of any children born of Peter's marriage to Margaret.

In 1819, Peter was listed as a taxable inhabitant of Logan Township, which was erected in April 1819. This township embraced the township of Greene, in Clinton County, and all of what is known as Sugar Valley.

In 1821, Peter was listed as a taxable person in Sugar Valley. Anthony Klechner was named as the tax assessor. Peter owned 100 acres of land. Apparently, this acreage was transferred to Peter by Daniel Bail. In 1831, Peter was listed as a taxable person for Sugar Valley, and he was the tax assessor for that year. He owned two parcels of land. One was 100 acres, and the other was 90 acres.

Peter died on April 30, 1848, at the age of 62 years, 1 month. He is buried at the Tylersville Cemetery, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

At the time of his death, in 1848, his wife, Margaret, was not mentioned in his Will. She apparently predeceased him. His seven children were all named as heirs of his estate. His sons, Peter, Jr. (Petter) and Samuel E. Greninger were the executors of his father Peter's estate. His Will is on file at the Court House in Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for MARGARET "PEGGY" BIERLY:
Margaret "Peggy" Bierly:

Notes I received from Suzanne Rice in e-mail of March 11, 2000:

Margaret BIERLY d/o Anthony BIERLY and Anna Maria WARNER was born 1773.

In 1825, she is mentioned in her father's will, but not her married name.

She m/1 abt 1797 John PHILIPS according to Dr. Charles FISHER.
She and John had 5 children bapt. at Rebersburg and the sponsors are her relatives.

She m/2 abt 1830 John Peter GRENINGER 1787-1848. They had no children.

She m/3 26 Apr 1838 in Cherry Tree Twp, VenangoCo Thomas CARTER. It was a 3rd marriage for him. He was born abt 1754 or 1758, married 1st in 1777.

The marriage license lists her as Margaret CRANINGER.

One witness was Anthony PHILLIPS, probably a son from her first marriage.

His pension application in 1832 stated he was 74. In 1855, Margaret CARTER applied for the pension as his widow, stating he had died in 1852.

1850 census VenangoCo 37/ Thomas CARTER 96, Peggy 77 b PA

1860 census Oaklandtwp, VenangoCo Margaret CARTER 90 b PA l/w Robt GREGG 27, Mary 25 and near John PHILIPS Jr. 36

History of Venango Co:

Thomas CARTER-at an advanced age he married a widow whose years were almost as many as his own. He lived to be 98 years old, and she died at one hundred and three.

The question is whether or not we have her married to the right GRENINGER.

1. The age difference - he was b 1787, she was b 1773.
2. He died in 1848, but she m Thomas CARTER in 1838. Did they divorce?
3. His will mentions his deceased wife, but doesn't mention Margaret who was far from deceased.

John Peter GRENINGER had been married to Mary KERSTETTER who d in 1829. His marriage to Margaret PHILIPS (her name at the time) could have been for the help in raising his young children.

Barb SEYLER copied the pension and marriage license after I found Margaret CARTER in the 1850 census.

Online, I found RootsWeb Dempsey Genealogical Exchange with information about Thomas CARTER. He had Margaret BIERLY b 1756 d 1859 m 1838 Thomas CARTER. I wrote to him, but he has had computer problems and lost his source information. He is going to send some when he finds where the information came from.

The Web page said Margaret d in 1859, born in 1756, which would make her the wrong Margaret BIERLY to be d/o Anthony.

But, by the marriage record, she would still have married a GRENINGER.

I haven't done much with it except send it to Robert GRENINGER and check the Venango Co. page to see if I could find anything.

She is supposedly buried in Dempseytown Cemetery, Venango Co.

He married ANNA MARIA "MARY" MOYER 1818, daughter of WILHELM MOYER and ANNA (MOYER). She was born 27 January 1804 in Mahanoy Twp., Northumberland Co., Pa., and died 20 January 1869 in Tylersville, Logan Twp., Clinton Co., Pa..

Notes for JOHN (JOHANNES) A. GRENINGER:

The surname may have been spelled "Grininger" or "Croninger".

The sponsors at Johannes' baptism were Wilhelm Heim and wife Barbara.

John was 5' 6" tall; medium weight; stoop-shouldered.

He was a member of St. John's Reformed Church of Tylersville, Pa.

In 1877, John Henry, Jr. made a bedstead for him.

Settlement of John's estate was nicely conducted by his son, Benjamin. The attending doctor at his last illness was Dr. Hilbish. The bill was $9.50. Philip Wolf made the coffin. Alfred W. Schreckengast and James M. Womelsdorf appraised the property, and each received $.50. Estate totalled $1,648.02.

On his tombstone his birth date is 25 June 1797. This is a common mistake people make in subtracting incorrectly or relatives not exactly sure of the date of the birth.

History of Armstrong Co., Pa., pages 833-834, lists biography for Levi Schreckengost, of Mahoning township, Armstrong County, who has the largest apiary in the county, and has been engaged in bee culture for over forty years. He has a fine farm near Putneyville.

Additional excerpts are: "Levi Schreckengost spent his early life at Putneyville and obtained a common school education there. In 1862, he enlisted in the Union army, becoming a member of Company D, 103d Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and saw considerable active service. He was taken a prisoner on or about April 20, 1864, and was confined at Andersonville and Milan, Ga., and Charleston and Florence, S.C., being paroled March 1, 1865, at Goldsboro, N.C. He was honorably discharged after three years of service, and returned home with health so impaired by his imprisonment that it was several years before he could resume work regularly. He then entered the employ of G. S. Putney & Sons, at Putneyville, remaining with them for several years, until he purchased the tract of 124 acres near that place upon which he has since made his home. He finished clearing the land, and has been improving it continually, having a very attractive property as the result of his unceasing efforts. For over forty years he has carried on bee culture, of which he makes a specialty in his work, at present having over one hundred hives. He is an industrious and highly respected citizen of his township, and deserves the substantial position he enjoys."

"On March 4, 1868, Mr. Schreckengost was married to Mary Shaffer, daughter of Samuel and Julia A. Shaffer, of Red Bank township..."

"Also noted is the fact that Mr. Schreckengost is a life member of the Andersonville Survivor's Association. In politics, he is a Republican."

- v. CHARLES R. "CHARLEY" WARDEN, b. 07 April 1888, Joplin, Jasper Co., Mo.; d. 10 January 1938, Joplin, Jasper Co., Mo.; m. PEARL DOERGE, 23 September 1916; b. 02 January 1894; d. 25 December 1983.

Notes for CHARLES R. "CHARLEY" WARDEN:

Charley was born on a farm 15 miles east of Joplin and obtained his early education largely in rural schools. He taught at Fidelity school for two terms and then entered college, receiving his law degree from Marion College, at Marion, Indiana in 1913. He was admitted to the bar that same years. He became a member of the State Legislature of Missouri in 1923.

Charley was serving his second term as Jasper County Prosecutor, at the time of his untimely death. He had first been elected to that office in November, 1934. Previously he had served two two-year terms as assistant prosecuting attorney under Ray E. Watson, then circuit judge. Long-time friends and business associates, Judge Watson and Charley, did not permit the fact that the former presided over a grand jury session at which the prosecutor was indicted for negligence in office last spring to disrupt their friendship. Prosecutor Warden was indicted by Jasper county's vice-investigation grand jury on the negligence charge, along with three other officers. The prior November, Circuit Judge Wilbur J. Owen dismissed the case, sustaining a demurrer in which the validity of the indictment was attacked. The decision was appealed to the supreme court and was pending at the time of Charley's death.

He died at St. John's Hospital from a gangrenous infection of the large intestine complicated by erysipelas. He underwent an emergency operation. An infection resulting from a cigarette burn on the left ear on December 22 preceded the fatal illness. His large intestine was found to be perforated and the gangrene well advanced when the operation was performed.

Funeral services for Charley were held at the First Community Church, Joplin, Mo. Hundreds of men and women from every walk of life--close personal friends and acquaintances, men and women he had helped through his profession and in countless ways, fellow members of the state bar association and fraternal organizations, all came to pay their respect. Aisles of the church were thronged and hundreds of others were unable to enter the crowded auditorium. A profusion of flowers attested to the regards of many friends and organizations. The Rev. Cliff Titus, pastor, and the Rev. Otto C. Seymour were in charge of the services. Members of the Masonic orders, Knights of Pythias and I. O. O. F. lodges and the Jasper County Bar Association attended the service in groups. Burial was in Ozark Memorial Park cemetery, with rites at the grave conducted by members of Fellowship Lodge No. 345, A. F. & A. M. The entire bar association formed an escort. Active pall bearers were Ben F. Putnam of Joplin, Morison Pritchett of Webb City and Frank Birkhead of Carthage, all assistant prosecuting attorneys; Probate Judge Adolph McGee of Carthage and Roy Coyne and A. H. Garner, Joplin Attorneys.

John Peter was born in 1864, and so was George Washington Carver. John Peter was supposed to have been about six years of age when they came to Missouri". Notes for IRA L. GRENINGER:

IRA GRENINGER, BORN 1878:

construction of Shasta Dam in the 1940s. The 1910 Census lists Ira Greninger as a Mine Foreman in Shasta County, CA. At the time his mother and father Rebecca and Daniel Greninger were living with him and his family. Intelligent and ambitious, Ira became interested in the law and through the tutoring of his Uncle John Andrew Buchanan of Glendale, Oregon, Douglas County, he was able to pass the Oregon State Bar. He eventually became a manager and superintendent of a large Mining Company in Santiago, Chili in South America and lived there for many years. He would come back to the states for visits and I remember he and Aunt Gunhild visited my family in Superior, Arizona in 1931. I have a picture of my brother Jack and me standing in front of Ira and Gunhild with my mother Nita Greninger Flanagan and my cousin Hazel peeking out from behind her father Ira. He was known to be generous and caring with his sisters. His sister Audrey lost her husband when her children were young and he helped them. He may have helped the others too, if they needed his help. In the fall of 1949 I drove back east with Uncle Ira and Aunt Gunhild and visited with them in Scarsdale, New York where they were living at the time. They showed me around New York State and even New York City. It was my first time on the east coast. Ira had retired from the South American Mining Company work by that date. They later moved back "out west" to Spokane, Washington where Ira died in 1960 at age 82. (Patrick Hosterman).

Notes for SARAH ELIZABETH WOLFE:

SARAH ELIZABETH WOLFE:

Sarah taught Sunday School for many years. She was very religious and very opposed to liquor of any sort, and would not allow it in her home; although some, but not all, of her children were known to enjoy some alcoholic beverages upon occasion. Sarah was heard to say on one occasion, "Not in the front door!--not in the back!--no beer in this house!!!", when her youngest daughter, Mary, and Mary's husband, tried to bring some beer into her home for a party. Unfortunately, many of her children did not share her same views. She was very strict with her children.

In her older years, her hair was gray, and she wore it in a bun on the top of her head. She had brown eyes and a fair complexion.

SARAH ELIZABETH WOLFE, b. 1858:

Sarah moved to Philadelphia with her husband, Ammon Miller Greninger, and their children, in 1900. Ammon died in 1901 of typhoid fever shortly after moving to Philadelphia.

The last time I remember seeing Grandmom Greninger (Sarah) was when I was 6 years old. She was bedfast. Her lower eyelids were taped down because her eyelashes were curled up and irritating her eyes.

SARAH EMILY⁶ SCHRECKENGAST (GEORGE W.⁵, JOHN⁴, ANNA MARIA (MARY ANN)³ GRENINGER, HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)², GRENINGER¹) was born 04 April 1872 in Jamestown, Ottawa Co., MI, and died 27 February 1946 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co., MI. She married CHARLES WILLIAM PUNCHES 18 September 1886 in Jamestown, Ottawa Co., MI., son of PERRY PUNCHES and MARY MUMBERS. He was born 13 November 1864 in OH., and died 23 March 1941 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co., MI.

Notes for SARAH EMILY SCHRECKENGAST:

Sarah E. Schreckengast, b. April, 1872:

OBITUARY: The Grand Rapids Press March 1, 1946

"PUNCHES--Mrs. Sarah E. Punches, aged 73, widow of Charles W. Punches, passed away Wednesday night at the home of her son, Leonard Punhes at 806 Jackson St., NW. She is survived by six sons, Lemuel of Seattle, Wash; Lavear and Lawrence of Muskegon, Mich; Lester, Leo and Leonard of Fran Rapids; three daughters, Mrs. Albert McDowell and Mrs. Cecil Clifford of Grand Rapids; and Mrs. Lillian Carrier of Sparta; 30 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, one sister and three brothers. Mrs. Punches reposes at the Alt Mortuary, where funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment is Wyoming Township Cemetery."

Sarah is buried at Granville Cemetery, formerly Wyoming Township Cemetery, Section B-47, Lots 3 & 4, there is a double marker for her and Charles.

The 1900 Census spells her name Sarah and the 1910 Census spells it Serra. The middle initial "E." could stand for Elizabeth. The 1910 Census record for Alvin Carrier lists him as a boarder living at the boarding house of Elizabeth Schucheagert in Grand Rapids, MI. This was Lillian Punches' grandmother according to Harold Carrier. More likely this was Lillian's Aunt Elizabeth.

From [Charles Punches.FTW]:

Shreckenghust spelling is from 1880 census; exact spelling unknown.

Charles Punches was supposedly 20 years older than Sarah Schrickingus. It was said by Lawrence and Flora Punches that she was only 12 when they married. Her parents decided later that she was too young and took her back home for a time to mature.

There are quite a few people with the name "Schreckengos" listed in the Soc Security Index in OH and a few in MI as well. Possibly the correct spelling of her name. There are at least 66 different spellings that sound much the same as Schreckenghust or Schreckengos.

Charles William Punches:

[Charles Punches.FTW

OBITUARY: Grand Rapids Press March 24, 1941

"PUNCHES--Charles W. Punches, aged 79, passed away Sunday afternoon at his home, 815 Wealthy St., SW. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Punches; six sons, Lemuel, Lester, Leaver, Leo, Lawrence, Leonard; three daughters: Mrs. Albert McDowell; Mrs. Alvin Carrier, and Mrs. Cecil Clifford; 31 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, one brother and two sisters. His body reposes at the Alt Mortuary. Funeral announcement later."

Charles is buried at Granville Cemetery, formerly Wyoming Twp. Cemetery, Section B-47, Lots 3&4. There is a double marker for he and Sarah.]

Charles' mother was called "Moon Peta". It is not known if this was her name or a nickname. The spelling is not necessarily exact.

Charles' father's first name is Not known. He was a Civil War veteran. He was also quite a drinker and so his son Charles apparently ran him off.

Charles married Sarah Schrickingus (sp?) when she was 12 years old and he was 32. Her parents decided that Sarah was not old enough to be married and so took her home for a couple of years to mature.

Charles went through a smallpox epidemic that was in Michigan around 1908 or so. He was in what they called the "Pest House" and was taken over the yellow line as dead three times. Each time he came back. The smallpox did not claim him although they did leave his face badly pitted. His son, Lawrence, believes this left him very self-conscious.

Charles worked as a junk man with his horse and wagon. He was a hardworking man. All 10 of his children have the initials "L. P."

It is believed that the Punches' name was derived from the name "Poynt" and that all Punches in the U.S. are one clan from this made-up name.

Traits in the Punches' family include narrow feet and curly hair.

The information below is believed to be incorrect.

This information was supplied by James E. PUNCHES, 7818 Daetwyler Drive, #35, Orlando, FL 32812:

Charles William PUNCHES was believed to be born on the French/German border which is believed to be Elsack or Alsace Lorraine. The family migrated to the US after living for a time in Quebec, Canada. They ended up in the Lorraine, OH area where they stayed until some of them moved on to MI. Charles lived to be in his 80's, and died when one of his granddaughters was a little over a year old.

He was born 20 June 1868 in Buffalo, N.Y., and died 11 April 1934 in Parma, Ohio.

Notes for TALITHA CUMI SCHRECKENGAST:

"My father recalls Talitha saying she was visiting a friend in Johnstown, Pa., when that horrible flood occurred - Alice".

TALITHA C. SHRECKENGAST - 1869-1931

Talitha Cuma (Cumi) Shreckengast was born 11 Oct. 1869 the daughter of Alfred Ammon Shreckengast and Samantha Lutz. Her mother died when Talitha was 4 years old and when she was 9 years old her father married Agnes Pruella Greninger, They had a son Charles H. Talitha's half brother, of whom she was very fond.

Talitha made her childhood sound like fun when re-telling stories to her sons; She liked to attend the dances in the Valley, telling one story of how she danced so much that after the dance she took off her shoes and stockings to walk home barefoot. It was noted in the 1880 Census that Talitha had the measles.

Another story her son Jess remembered was that Talitha was visiting a friend in Johnston, Pa. when the flood of 1889 occurred.

While working as a domestic at her aunts boarding house in Lock Haven, Pa., Talitha met a teamster from Jamestown, New York, by the name of John Martin Rolland. They married in Rebersburg, Pa. 8 July 1893. Returned to Jamestown, N.Y. where their first son, William Alfred Rolland was born 9 June 1894, They then lived in Tylersville a short while before moving on to Youngstown and Cleveland, Ohio, eventually settling on a small 55 acre farm in Parma, Ohio. John was employed for awhile as a railroad switchman, then a general builder contractor, Their second son, Jesse Waiter Rolland was born 11 June 1909 in Cleveland, Ohio.

Talitha was the disciplinarian, My father recalled that she chased him until he ran up a tree, but she waited for him to come down and used the tree "switch" on him for whatever his transgression was.

Their farm was quite self-sufficient, They had a cow, team of horses, chickens, apple orchard, grape vineyard, sassafras and mulberry trees, crab apple and plum trees, elderberries, wild blackberries and strawberries, a vegetable garden, well water, I remember Talitha making cottage cheese and leaving the bag of curd and whey hanging on the clothes line, letting the whey drip to the ground. She also made the most delicious kuchen, apple, plum or plain streusel. In the Springtime the carpets were taken up, hung over a clothes line and beaten by hand with a paddle shaped wire rug beater - terrible chore. They also made their own sauerkraut, canned fruits, vegetables, & jams. Even made their own root beer.

Talitha began complaining about back aches and allowed a chiropractor to come to her home for back treatments, By the time her sons could convince her to see an M.D. it was too late, She had uterine cancer which had spread throughout her entire body. Her husband John would not let anyone take care of her but himself, We were living with them at the time, and our parents did everything to help John in his care of Talitha, I remember making some butterscotch candy, Grandma's favorite, which did not turn out very well (just a kid learning to cook)- I took the candy to her bedroom and she thanked me for it, The next thing I remember is my father telling us that Grandma had died, the date being 1 November 1931, I thought my candy was the cause of her death because the plate was empty (someone probably threw the candy out when I wasn't looking), Grandma weighed about 65 pounds when she died. We were sent to our aunts house because Grandma was laid out at her home for others to pay their respects (a custom then plus a large wreath hanging on the front door), before burial at the York Road and Pleasant Valley Road cemetery, John died from heart disease II April 1934 and is buried next to Talitha.

264. CHARLES AMOS⁶ GRENINGER (*WILLIAM OMAN*⁵, *PETER/PETTER (JOHN PETER)*⁴, *PETER (JOHN PETER)*³, *HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)*², *GRENINGER*¹) was born 28 July 1871 in Diamond, Newton Co., Mo., and died 09 December 1955 in Fairland, Ottawa Co., Ok.. He married (1) CORA BELLE STONER 24 December 1890 in Carthage, Jasper Co., Mo., daughter of JOSEPH STONER and SIDNEY BUSH. She was born 30 January 1874 in St. Joseph, Mo., and died 30 August 1940 in Fairland, Ottawa Co., Ok.. He married (2) LETTIE SAPPINTON 16 November 1941 in Galena, Cherokee Co., KS.. She was born Unknown, and died Deceased. He married (3) FLORIDA SHERIDAN 11 November 1949. She was born Unknown, and died Deceased.

Notes for CHARLES AMOS GRENINGER:

Charles Amos Greninger took his family from the Carthage, Missouri area into Fairland, Indian Territory, Oklahoma because the Cherokee Outlet along the Oklahoma/Kansas border was purchased by the U.S. Government for homesteading by the white man. But, Cherokee Outlet was opened only, not the Cherokee Nation lands where Fairland was located. The Indians stated it was okay, but the white Indian Agent said no, because the land was to be divided thus: 80A for First generation Indians; 40A for Second generation Indians and Zero (0)A for then on. So, Rena May and Inez Bernice were born in Cherokee Territory near Fairland, Oklahoma, 11 miles south of Miami, OK. Rena May died and is buried at Seneca Cemetery, Seneca, Newton Co., MO. The Charles Amos Greninger family lived in a tent during this 1894-1895 time near Fairland, Oklahoma. Then Charles Amos Greninger returned to Carthage, Missouri area to live until 1919. The Indians told him that they would sell when they received their allotments. In 1919, he received a letter; he returned to Fairland, Oklahoma area, (area being 2 1/2 miles E. from Fairland) purchased 80 A (where his grandson, Everett Nathaniel Greninger, now lives. Later, Charles Amos was the second owner of additional 160A west, across the road, from the original 80 A. Later he moved two, two story houses, located on the 160A onto the 40A given to Chester Arthur Greninger. The other 40A was given to Gilbert Austin Greninger. Everett Nathaniel Greninger, son of Chester Arthur Greninger, purchased 40A from his dad Chester and 40A from his uncle Gilbert, making a total of 80A. Charles Amos built a native stone house on the 160 A, where he removed the other houses from which is still standing in very good condition. It is now owned by a Mr. Spark's. 240A total land purchased.

Notes for RENA MAY GRENINGER:

Rena May Greninger:

The Seneca Cemetery is not far from where the Greningers have their reunions every five years. Robert L. F. Greninger and his father went there to see Rena's grave site when Robert returned from Japan (USAF) in 1956. It is also not far from Fairland, OK.

Rena's full and correct given name may have been "Lorena May Greninger". Georgia Houk told Letha Greninger Hubbard of Joplin, MO., that "Rena" was named for a neighbor girl of ours--Lorena Riddle. All records show only the given name of "Rena May", not Lorena. Rena could have been named after the neighbor girl, but not fully. Child did not live very long.

Notes for SAMUEL KINLEY GRENINGER:

Sam was short, stocky, blue eyes. He was married at least three times.
He worked at Westinghouse Corp., Lester, Pa.

Samuel Kinley Greninger, born 1875.

Sam was my grandfather's oldest brother (which made him my great-uncle). Sam and Sarah Catharine "Kate" Diehl were divorced. "Kate" later married Israel Greninger. As far as I know, they didn't have any children. Sam did have children from his other two marriages, and some children born out-of-wedlock. He was quite a character and loved the ladies! I don't know what he had, but it must have been something!!! I only knew him in his later years, when I was just a young girl. Those "wild days" were over for him then. I heard that one of his wives pushed him down some stairs and he injured his back pretty bad. It always gave him trouble after that. His marriages were rather stormy! His drinking probably didn't help either! He wound up living in the basement of his mother's house in Philadelphia in his later years. I knew his daughter, Helen (Sarah Helen Greninger). On April 21, 1913, the Orphans' Court for the County of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, appointed John W. Conley, as Guardian of the Estate of Sarah Helen Greninger, minor child of Ada H. and Samuel K. Greninger. Said minor was an heir to the estate of her grandfather, John Marshall Heverly. The amount of the inheritance was only $167.13. I don't know why neither of her parents were appointed as her Guardian. As far as I know, Helen never married. She had an affair with a dentist that she worked for that went on for many, many years. I don't know whatever became of Marilyn, Sam's younger daughter. ("Bonnie" is what the family called her). There was a big age difference between Helen and Bonnie. I only saw Bonnie a couple of times at Grandmom Greninger's house on Warren Street. I believe Helen lived with Sam's mother and his sisters at the house at 5201 Warren Street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she was young.

286. EDWARD AMON⁶ GRENINGER, SR. (*AMON MILLER*⁵, *SAMUEL E.*⁴, *PETER (JOHN PETER)*³, *HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)*², *GRENINGER*¹) was born 05 May 1883 in Logan Twp., Centre Co., Pa., and died 19 December 1964 in Bryn Mawr Hosp., Montgomery Co., Pa.. He married MARY BERNICE TAYLOR Abt. 1906 in Philadelphia, Phila. Co., Pa., daughter of SAMUEL TAYLOR and KATHERINE TWADELL. She was born 19 March 1886 in Philadelphia, Phila. Co., Pa., and died 21 January 1965 in Bryn Mawr Hosp., Montgomery Co., Pa..

Notes for EDWARD AMON GRENINGER, SR.:
Edward was 6' tall; brown hair; brown eyes; and a fair complexion.
He was a natural athlete. He played on a baseball team in Phila., Pa. He loved to play horse shoes. He was a bartender for many years, and later worked at Auto-Car Co., Ardmore, Pa., as a tool and die maker. He was a staunch Republican and served as a Committeeman in Phila., Pa.

Edward grew up in Logan Township. When he was nearly 18 years old, he went with most of his family to live in Philadelphia. His brother, Samuel, remained in Green Township, Centre County, with his own wife and daughter. Samuel later moved to Philadelphia. Thomas was married and had two or three children. Thomas, and his family, moved to Denver, Colorado, where Thomas contracted tuberculosis and died, while still a young man.

Edward's father, Amon Miller Greninger, had invented the switch-track for the railroad, and this took him, and his family, to Philadelphia, to further his ambitions. Not long after they arrived in Philadelphia, his father contracted typhoid fever and died on July 2, 1901.

When I was born, in 1939, my grandfather, Edward, was 56 years old. I remember him to have been about 6' tall; medium build; brown eyes; square jaw; and a full head of brownish gray hair. I last saw him in 1959, when he was 76 years old. This was just prior to moving to California with my parents. My grandfather died five years later, at the age of 81.

Edward married Mary Bernice Taylor, about 1906, at Philadelphia, Pa. She was the daughter of Samuel Taylor and Katherine Twadell. Edward and Mary were blessed with four children, to wit: Edward Amon, Jr., b. 12 Aug. 1907, (Never married); Hazel Mae b. 23 Mar, 1911, md. George Bragg; Marion Charlotte, b. 19 Mar, 1913, (Never married); and Robert Allen, b. 21 Mar, 1915, md. Elinore M. Rickard.

Edward's mother, Sarah Elizabeth Wolfe Greninger, was violently opposed to liquor of any sort, and would not allow it in her home; although some, but not all, of her children were known to enjoy some alcoholic beverages upon occasion. Sarah Elizabeth was heard to say on one occasion, "Not in the front door--not in the back--no beer in this house", when her youngest daughter, Mary, and Mary's husband, tried to bring some beer into her home for a party.

Edward worked as a Bartender for many years at John Conley's Bar at 62nd and Vine Streets, Philadelphia. The family lived at 63rd and Callahill Sts., and in the 300 block of Felton St., across from the Lady of Rosary Catholic Church.

Edward was a staunch Republican! He took much verbal abuse from his neighbors, when he proudly displayed the campaign signs of the Republican Candidates on his property, which was situated in the middle of a very Democratic vicinity. He was a strong, stubborn German, and intent on helping the Philadelphia G.O.P. organization. The Philadelphia Republican machine was strictly professional, fashioned after the Democratic organizations of Hague in Jersey City, and Kelly in Chicago. In its set-tos with F.D.R., it showed remarkable ability to roll with the punch and come back strong in city elections. When its henchmen found they couldn't lick Roosevelt, they shrewdly bowed to the inevitable, kept the good will of their constituents, and got them back in the G.O.P. fold when they needed them most--at the city elections. The structure of the Republican city organization followed the familiar pattern. There were thirteen hundred and forty-eight election divisions, each averaging about seven hundred and fifty voters and manned by two, twenty-five hundred to five-thousand-dollars-a-year, committeemen. Edward was one of these committeemen. In their neighborhoods or areas, these committeemen were supreme. They were "on the job" all the time--three hundred and sixty-five days a year--doing favors for constituents, from getting them jobs to having parking tickets fixed, and bailing them out of jail, etc. This personal service paid off on election day. In hundreds of well-organized Philadelphia divisions, the people did not vote for policies or candidates, but for "Joe, the committeeman"; or in our case, "Ed, the Committeeman". Frequently, the Committeemen, would even do the people the favor, on election day, of marking their ballots or pulling the voting machine lever for them. The divisions were lumped into fifty-two wards, some tiny, others as large as good sized towns. Division committeemen elected their ward leaders, jobholders in the upper brackets (five thousand to ten thousand dollars), who in turn, made up the City Committee, members of which were known locally as "The Band of Brothers". The City Committeemen elected the City Chairman, the titled leader of the party, who actually served as chief of staff to "The Big Boss", who may be a rich dilettante, or a professional. In Philadelphia, the "Big Boss" himself had bosses; the bankers, industrialists, and big businessmen, whose money made them a power. With few exceptions, these overlords lived in palatial showplaces in lovely suburbs outside of, and not a part of, the city. They were principally interested in the city as a place to make money--an interest shared in a more modest way by two hundred thousand commuters, who worked in the city and lived in the suburbs only twelve to thirty minutes from City Hall.

About 1933 or 1934, Edward, was able to purchase a large home at 1346 Virginia Avenue, Manoa, Montgomery County Pa. He lived in said home, for over 30 years, with his wife Mary, and his son, Edward, Jr., and his daughter, Marion, both of whom never married. After Edward's death, in 1964, and the death of his wife, Mary, one month later, the family home was sold, and his son, Edward, Jr. got his own apartment in Philadelphia; and his daughter, Marion, rented a small apartment in Lansdowne, Pa., near her sister Hazel.

After many years of tending bar, and working part-time, as a Security Guard, at Woodside Amusement Park, Edward secured a job at the Auto-car Co., in Ardmore, Pa., where he learned to make automobile parts. He worked for Auto-Car Co. until he retired. His son, Edward, Jr., also went to work for the Auto-Car Co., in the parts department, where he also worked until his retirement. His youngest son, Robert "Bob", (my father), likewise went to work for the Auto-Car Co., when he was 20 years old. He worked in the "Model Room" and the "Experimental Lab". Bob possessed an extraordinary creative ability, and it was there that he was given the opportunity to use his inventive talents. He became the youngest foreman in the company's history, at the age of 24. Bob invented the gear-shift on the steering column of the automobile. He also invented the half-track (caterpillar) tank that was used in world War II.

Sometime during the 1940's, Edward developed a tumor on his lung and had to have the lung removed. The surgery was performed at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, Montgomery County, Pa., by the same doctor that had performed this same surgery on the famous "Gossip Columnist"--Louella Parsons. Edward continued to smoke cigarettes without any problems until his death at the age of 80. (He used to roll his own cigarettes too!).

Edward and Mary had a little white dog called "Skipper" for many years that they dearly loved. When I was a young girl, I loved to play with the dog, when I visited my grandparents. There was a big cherry tree in their backyard, and I would climb the tree and pick the cherries. Of course, we would eat some of the cherries and take some home. There was a wooden swing on a rope, hanging from the cherry tree, and I always loved to see how high I could swing. Next to the big house, there was a large vacant lot. My grandfather, Edward Amon, Sr., planted grass, so it was like an enormous lawn. My brother, Bob, and I would run races, and play, and on summer nights, we would catch lightening bugs (fire flies).

Edward died at the age of 80, on December 19, 1964. His wife, Mary, died of acute pulmonary edema and arteriosclerotic heart disease, one month later, at the age of 78, on January 21, 1965. Mary did not know that her husband, Edward, had died. She was very ill herself, and her children thought it best not to tell her. They are both buried at Arlington Cemetery, in Drexel Hill, Delaware County, Pennsylvania. Edward's parents and most of his sisters and his brother Samuel are buried there.

Notes for MARY BERNICE TAYLOR:

MARY BERNICE TAYLOR:

My grandmother, Mary Bernice Taylor, was 53 year old when I was born. She was about 5'3" tall, rather stout, blue eyes, and gray hair. I last saw her when she was 73 years of age. She died five years later at the age of 78. She was Irish and had much affection for the old Irish Songs. She did not have much of a singing voice, but would, nonetheless, vocalize some of the old songs anyway--especially after having some refreshment. She was known to overindulge with the brew from time to time.

Her parents had come to this country, as newlyweds, from Belfast, Ireland. Mary's brothers and sisters were: Samuel, Jr.; Albert (Abe); Margaret; and Anna, who died of heart problems at age 27, Mary's; father learned the trade of "French Gardening" and did very well. He had beautiful handwriting, and would often sing Irish songs. They were Protestants. Her father referred to himself as an "Orangeman".

Mary, died of acute pulmonary edema and arteriosclerotic heart disease, on January 21, 1965, at the age of 78, one month after the death of her husband. Mary did not know that Edward had died. She had been very ill herself, and her children thought it best not to tell her. They are both buried at Arlington Cemetery, in Drexel Hill, Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

287. CHARLOTTE LETISHA "LOTTIE"⁶ GRENINGER (*AMON MILLER*⁵, *SAMUEL E.*⁴, *PETER (JOHN PETER)*³, *HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)*², *GRENINGER*¹) was born 03 August 1890 in Mill Hall, Centre Co., Pa., and died 30 January 1978 in Montgomery Co., Pa.. She married GEORGE DAVISH, SR. Abt. 1915 in Philadelphia, Phila. Co., Pa., son of GEORGE DAVISH and ELIZABETH BRINZER. He was born Abt. 1889, and died Abt. 1944 in Philadelphia, Phila. Co., Pa..

Notes for CHARLOTTE LETISHA "LOTTIE" GRENINGER:

CHARLOTTE LETISHA GRENINGER was commonly known as "Lottie".

She was born on August 3, 1891, at Mill Hall, Centre County, Pennsylvania. Lottie moved with her family to Philadelphia around 1901. Her father had invented the switch-track for the railroad and this took him to Philadelphia to further his ambitions. Not long after they arrived in Philadelphia, her father contracted typhoid fever and died on July 2, 1901. When Lottie was four years old, she tripped and fell against the old wood-burning stove in their kitchen at Mill Hall, and burnt the whole side of her face. It was a very bad burn and she carried the scar for the rest of her life.

She was a very small woman, about 5 feet tall. Her figure was slightly round in her later years. She had small hands and feet. She had a sweet face and was always smiling. Her eyes were blue and her hair was dark brown, with a little bit of gray in her old age. She had a twinkle in her eye, and I imagine she could be a devil when she was young. Her disposition was very pleasant, and she loved a good time. She could play the piano by ear. She never needed to read music; just hum a song and she would play it! Lottie was extremely friendly and would talk with everyone--even strangers. She loved people, and would make friends with people on the train or on the bus or wherever she went. She would go to visit them too! Lottie married George Davish, Sr., and they had two sons, to wit: George Davish, Jr., and William Davish. She outlived her husband and both sons by many years. Lottie would come to our house for visits and stay for weeks or months at a time. She loved being around family. She would tell us stories about the "old days", all the relatives, and relate some funny tales. We loved her funny sayings, like: "the sheets are as white as the driven snow". She would always go to the beauty parlor before coming for her visits, and then she would stop and buy candy to bring to us. She was always such fun to have around. Lottie lived to the age of 86, and is buried at Arlington Cemetery, Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania.

For a time Aquilla RUHL and his wife Amanda WOLFE lived at the residents of Fred Albert WADSWORTH and his wife Carrie Elizabeth RUHL in South Avis, Pennsylvania.

"Tylersville Topics" that appeared in the December 28, 1922 edition of the Lock Haven Express had an interesting story regarding the Christmas entertainment at Logan Mills. It reads...."The entertainment held at Logan Mills on Friday evening was we attended and would have been a success had it not been for the disturbance raised by a set of drunken boys said to be from Loganton and Greenburr." That's good. It couldn't have been "our boys."

Oral legend has it that, "Grandpa Ruhl's homestead in the valley was once his uncles place where a log cabin was. His uncle bought the log cabin from an Indian that lived in the "Gap.""

Original Baptismal record shows that Amanda Rebecca WOLFE, the daughter of William E. WOLFE and his wife Chestie, born on the 23rd day of September 1881, was baptized on the 27th day of November in the year of our lord 1881. Sponsors were her paren with the Rev. William M. Landis pastor of the Reformed Church presiding.

On March 8, 1928 Amanda Rebecca Ruhl signed a contract and power of attorney with Samuel H. Waltz and Dawson W. Light, Esq., and notarized by Joe W. Bressler, Justice of the Peace. Apparently Amanda was a decedent of John Nicholas Emerick a fur trader and partner of John Jacob Astor and she was suing for her share of the estate.

The obituary for Amanda Rebecca RUHL appeared in the February 9, 1957 edition of the Lock Haven Express and reads.....

"Mrs. Amanda Rebecca RUHL, 75, wife of Aquilla RUHL, and life-long resident of Tylersville, died yesterday at 3:15 p.m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred A. WADSWORTH, in South Avis, where Mr. and Mrs. RUHL had been living since last September.

"Coroner Roy L. Bryerton gave the cause of death as a coronary occlusion. Mrs. RUHL suffered a stroke last May and had been a hospital patient at that time. It was because of her health that the RUHLs went last fall to live in South Avis."

"Mrs. RUHL, a daughter of William and Christine CARIS WOLFE, had lived in Tylersville since her birth there. She was a member of the Reformed church in that community."

"She is survived by her husband, four daughters and two sons: Mrs. Carrie WADSWORTH, with whom she lived; Mrs. Bertha CALDWELL, Tylersville; Mrs. Edna KLECKNER and Roy RUHL, Boonville; Mrs. Jennie SIMCOX, Lock Haven, and Harry, Antes Fort; also 17 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren."

"Samuel WOLFE of Blanchard; Russell WOLFE, of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Dorothy CRABB of Millheim, are surviving brothers and sisters."

A funeral notice in the same newspaper indicated that the funeral was conducted by the Morris Funeral Home, Loganton with the Rev. Bruce D. HATT of Rebersburg officiating. Interment was to be in the Union Cemetery in Tylerville.

"Tylersville Topics" that appeared in the December 28, 1922 edition of the Lock Haven Express had an interesting story regarding the Christmas entertainment at Logan Mills. It reads...."The entertainment held at Logan Mills on Friday evening was well attended and would have been a success had it not been for the disturbance raised by a set of drunken boys said to be from Loganton and Greenburr." That's good. It couldn't have been "our boys."

Oral legend has it that, "Grandpa Ruhl's homestead in the valley was once his uncle's place where a log cabin was. His uncle bought the log cabin from an Indian that lived in the "Gap"..

Notes for BERYL HELEN KLECKNER:

BERYL HELEN KLECKNER AND CHARLES LAMEY:

I still haven't straightened out their children.

Beryl had Doris Ordain KLECKNER b 22 Jul 1926 bapt 23 Jan 1934

And Church Records Sugar Valley has Doris Ordain KLECKNER m 19 Apr 1947

Charles EISENHOWER

And it has Doris Ordain KLECKNER b 22 Jul 1926 bapt 23 Jan 1934 d/o

Ardye Tillman/Elizabeth Helen

Those were her grandparents, not her parents.

Church Records Sugar Valley also has Lois Dawn d/o Ardye Tillman

KLECKNER b 22 Jul 1926 which would make her a twin of Doris.

The book also has Robert Harold Mater KLECKNER b 23 Aug 1929 as son of Ardye KLECKNER.

If Lois and Doris were twins, they would be KLECKNER, not LAMEY.

Maybe the Doris KLECKNER b 1926 died young, and Beryl and Charles LAMEY had a dau abt 1936 named Doris.

I don't know. I don't have enough to figure this one out.

MABEL L. MUSSER:

"About Nevin Bierly and Mabel Musser: I am confused about the "Bellefonte Cem. lot #1027 NA Mabel Musser b 1917 lot owner Irv.
Bierly". Is this Irv. Bierley's lot and not Mabel Musser's burial lot?

The Bellefonte cemetery information was posted online.

The above is how the record was writtin and I assume Irvin Monroe

BIERLY, her father-in-law, was the lot owner. Here is his record

1027 NA Bierly, Irvin N Born-Died 1881-1956 Lot Owner Bierley, Irv

And her husbands:

1027 NA Bierley, (?) Richard Born-Died 1913-1974 Lot Owner Bierley, Irv (Nevin Richard son of Irvin Monroe BIERLY and Margaret Maggie Belle HOY and husband of Mabel L. MUSSER)

I don't know what the NA means in the lot #.

Notes for ROBERT ALLEN GRENINGER, SR.:

ROBERT "Bob" ALLEN GRENINGER, SR. (my father).

Bob was a handsome man. He was 5'10" tall; blue-gray eyes; dark brown wavy hair. He was everybody's favorite person. A natural born wit; a good dancer; loved music; lots of fun. He was highly respected for his fine mind; mathematical knowledge; and inventive abilities. He invented many designs used in nuclear submarines and aircraft carriers; and nuclear power. He worked for Westinghouse Corp. and Bechtel Corp.

Bob and Elinore met on May 8, 1937, and were married on December 24, 1937.

They had a small wedding at 9:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve. They didn't have enough money for a honeymoon. Elinore's mother and sister, Edna, lived with them. They all shared a small apartment. After their first year of marriage Bob and Elinore rented a large house in Philadelphia on Catharine Street.

Bob and Elinore were blessed with three children, to wit: Barbara Anne, b. Feb. 06, 1939; Robert Allen, Jr., b. Jun. 15, 1940; and Edward Amon, b. Aug. 17, 1944.

Bob grew up and attended school in the city of Philadelphia. When he was 18 years old, he went to work as an apprentice for the William Sellers Company. At age 20, he secured a job at the Auto-Car Company, in Ardmore, Pennsylvania, where he worked in the "Model Room" and the "Experimental Lab". Bob possessed extraordinary creative ability, and it was here that he was given the opportunity to demonstrate his inventive talents. He soon became the youngest foreman in the company's history, at the age of 24. He invented the gear-shift on the steering column of the automobile. He also invented the half-track (catapilar) tank that was used in World War II. The company made him sign a form that stated "anything he invented belonged to the company". The company did give him to honor of driving the tank in a parade up to the Park. Many military people were there, including Generals. There were newspaper articles written about this and a lot of publicity. He was about 25 years old at this time. He worked extremely long hours (from 5:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m.) plus overtime. Most of the time, he wouldn't get home until 8:00 or 9:00 a.m.

In 1942, Bob was hired by Westinghouse Corporation. He took a cut in pay, but the hours were better, and his chances for advancement were much greater. He worked in Steam Division at first, and then worked on the Jet Planes. He then designed and worked on the atomic-powered submarines and atomic-powered aircraft carriers. He was one of the key men involved with the refurbishing of the "Enterprise". He was very well known and respected in the field of Naval Nuclear endeavors. He had to answer directly to Admiral Hymen Rickover. At one time, he even went over Admiral Rickover's head, and wrote to Washington, D. C. about certain mechanisms that he found to be unsafe on some of the submarines. He insisted that the corrections be made and the designs changed. This probably saved the lives of many of our troops. He never abused his power, but used it when necessary. He worked for Westinghouse for almost 30 years. He tried to retire after 25 years, but the company called him back after two years.

Bob was given a private underwater tour of the Skip Jack, etc., by the military, at Groton, Connecticut.

A few years after Bob went back to work for Westinghouse Corporation, the Bechtel Corporation sought him out and offered him an important position with their corporation. He accepted the job because it meant that he could move back to California and be near his children and grandchildren again. They put him in charge of the Nuclear Power project for California. He covered the area from San Francisco to San Diego. His main office was in San Francisco at first, and then later in southern California. He and my mother were extremely happy to finally move back to southern California to be near their family again.

When Bob was in his early 50's, he learned that he had arteriosclerosis. He started to have serious medical problems for the first time in his life. He had to have a tumor removed from his intestines and they took out a portion of his stomach. Up until then, he never had any serious health problems and had never been hospitalized. His doctors put dacron tubes in his legs and performed by-pass surgeries several times. At one point, they thought that his leg might have to be amputated, but fortunately, this was not necessary. He suffered terribly from all the surgeries and the periods of recuperations, but the disease finally claimed his life at the age of 61, (just 3 days after his 61st birthday).

Notes for ELINORE MARIE RICKARD:

ELINORE MARIE RICKARD

Elinore Marie Rickard was the youngest child of Charles Henry Rickard, Sr. and Sarah Marie Breitmeyer. Elinore's family, being of some means, owned an automobile, commonly known as a "machine", in the early 1900s. They were among the first in their neighborhood to have one. It was a model-T Ford, that had to be cranked, and it had curtains. In those days, when you bought a car, the salesman showed you how to drive it. There were no driver's tests or licenses then.

When Elinore was four years old, about 1922, her mother, Sarah, crashed into an iron jardineire on Strawberry Bridge over the Schuylkill River in Fairmount Park, in Philadelphia. The front wheels went over the edge of the bridge and some Park Guards came to her rescue and pulled the car to safety. Elinore hit the windshield and cut her forehead. The Park Guards fixed her up and then took them home. Sarah never drove a car again for the rest of her life.

Charles bought his oldest daughter, Helen, a car also. She took Elinore for a ride and didn't know how to turn the car around. They rode out to the Bluebell Inn and kept going around in circles. Finally, Helen figured it out, and they made it home safely.

In the early 1920's, Charles bought a home at 4804 Market Street, Philadelphia, and moved his family into it. It was a very grand house. It had marble steps that led to the entry, a vestibule, then a very large reception hall. In the reception hall stood a Victrola phonograph machine encased in a Baby Grand Piano. The stairway went up four or five steps to a landing, then went up to the second floor. There was a built-in safe in the wall on the landing, where Charles kept the store receipts, etc., until he deposited them in the bank. There was a formal living room; two white marble columns at the entry to the large dining room, complete with China Closet, Buffet, large dining table and chairs. A beautiful Silver Service set upon the top of the Buffet together with fresh fruit and nuts at all times. Charles was a stickler about this and insisted that the fruit be shined every day. There was a large aquarium in the shape of the Liberty Bell under the living room window. Edna and Elinore broke the Liberty Bell Aquarium while doing stunts in the living room. The breakfast room had a built-in China Cabinet too, and a built-in icebox. The kitchen had a stove, sink, laundry facilities, and broom closet. Upstairs, there was a "tile" bathroom with a shower and tub; four large bedrooms. The entire house was furnished with beautiful furniture, teakwood tables, and Tiffany lamps. Charles loved lamps and was always buying more and more. Charles had an artist come to their home and paint flowers and ribbons on the bedroom furniture. He also had his portrait painted and it hung on the wall in Elinore's bedroom. We don't know what became of that portrait.

Charles bought a "model" house from a real estate office and had it wired and gave it to his daughter, Elinore, to use for her dollhouse. Elinore loved that dollhouse.

Charles owned the Farmer's Market and operated a Butcher Shop there. The business had been in the family for three generations. Charles would go to the Abattoir at 2:00 a.m. every morning, at 30th and Market Streets, to pick out fresh meat. Sometimes, Elinore would go with him. Then he'd stop at a Speakeasy to drink whiskey on the way back. Elinore would wait in the car and honk the horn, until Charles would come out. Her father always told her not to tell anyone about it, and he would bribe her with all kinds of treats.

Charles would take his family on vacation to Margate, New Jersey. They stayed at a hotel above the Rathskeller's Bar. Elinore nearly drowned in the ocean one summer, when she was nine (9). The lifeguards rescued her. She never told her parents about it for fear they would not let her go swimming anymore. Sometimes the family would go to Chesapeake Haven, Maryland, for vacation. The hotel where they stayed was on a bluff. There was a path that led to the beach. In Maryland, at that time, if a white person were walking on the sidewalk, a colored person would immediately walk out in the street. The colored people were treated awful then. They were not permitted to use public bathrooms, or be served in restaurants, and had to ride in the back of the bus.

Charles loved to go to the movies. He would take his family and sometimes-just Elinore. He would also take Elinore with him to see the "fights" (boxing matches) at 44th and Market Streets in Philadelphia. Charles loved to see the Minstrel Shows and would go see them frequently.

Elinore's older sisters convinced their mother to leave Charles. So on December 27, 1930, while Charles was at work, the family moved their clothes and little else out of the house. When Elinore, only 13 at the time, came home from school, she was shocked to learn that they were in the process of moving. She didn't have time to collect any of her personal belongings, except her clothes. They hurried so as not to be there when Charles came home from work. Home for them was to be a tiny, dark, dingy apartment between Market and Chestnut Streets, across from Losier's Ballroom. Elinore used to look out the window and watch the people dance. Later that year, Sarah and her daughters moved to Reno Street, and that's where Elinore had an appendicitis attack, or so the doctor thought. The doctor performed exploratory surgery on her when she was 13.

Sarah got a job cleaning houses; Helen and Evelyn worked as waitresses; and Edna continued at the candy store. They pooled their income to pay the bills. Elinore was still in school and not old enough to get a job. The following year, Evelyn and Helen moved out and went to live with their husbands. Sarah and Edna were the sole breadwinners of the family. They then moved into a three-story house on Samson Street, and shared it with Grandmom Breitmayer (Elizabeth Breitmayer) and Sarah's sister, Betty, and her children. Elinore was 14 year old at that time. The following year, Sarah and her two daughters moved to 62nd Street for a while, and then they moved back into their family home at 4804 Market Street. They rented the house (their former home) from the neighbors next door. Charles had left the family home and just walked away from everything. He was devastated after his family left him. It was quite a shock to him. He had no idea that his family was going to leave him. There had been no argument, fight, or any sign that they were all so unhappy.

No one knows what happened to any of the personal belongings or furniture. It is believed he probably gave it away or just left it when he abandoned the home. He also let his store go about a year after the separation. He moved to Wildwood, New Jersey, and rented an apartment there for a while.

In 1931 or 1932, Charles was injured in an airplane crash in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He broke his back and had to stay in the hospital for quite a long time. Elinore was the only one from his family that went to visit him in the hospital.

Over the years that followed, Elinore was the only member of her family that saw him until he was 64 years old. He went to live with Elinore and her family for a while, until it was learned that he had tuberculosis. He then had to be hospitalized and placed in isolation. He died in Philadelphia General Hospital at the age of 65.

Elinore and Robert "Bob" Allen Greninger, Sr., were married at 9:00 p.m. on December 24, 1937 (Christmas Eve). Her mother and sister, Edna, lived with them from the day they were married. Their "Honeymoon" was a riot. The best man, Watson Akins, spent the night with the "happy couple" and Elinore's mother and sister Edna. Elinore and Bob's bed broke during the night and caused a loud noise. The only bathroom in the apartment was off the bedroom, so there was a continuous parade all night through their bedroom. Elinore wanted to demonstrate her cooking skills to her new husband. She cooked him a fried egg sandwich and when he bit into it, the egg yolk ran all over his pajamas. They had lots of laughs on their "Honeymoon".

Sarah remained very close to all her daughters throughout her lifetime. She made her permanent home with Elinore and Bob and their family, but would often visit with her other daughters. Sometimes, she would spend the summer with Evelyn at her summer home at Avalon, New Jersey, or visit Evelyn at her home on Kingsessing Avenue, West Philadelphia. Edna lived in North Philadelphia with her family, and Sarah would visit with her also. Helen lived in West Philadelphia, and Sarah and her other daughters would visit with Helen for the day, as she lived close by.

In the mid-1940s, Elinore worked for a while as a key punch operator in Philadelphia, to help with the family finances. In the 1950s, she worked for a dentist, Dr. Shad, as a dental hygienist for a couple of years.

In 1948, Elinore and Bob sold their home at 5446 Pine Street, West Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Sarah moved to 439 Wilde Avenue, Drexel Hill, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, with Elinore and her family. This was a three bedroom "twin house" in the suburbs. It was a much smaller house than the one in the city, but it was nicer in the suburbs, and had better schools. Shortly after, Edna and her family moved to Westbrook Park, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, a couple of miles away from Elinore and Bob's home.

In 1953, the family moved to 742 Mason Avenue, Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania. This was a large three-story house in a very nice suburban neighborhood. The family was very happy there.

In May of 1959, Bob's employer, Westinghouse Corp, transferred Bob to California. The family then moved to 422 Lucille Avenue, West Covina, Los Angeles County, California. This was a nice ranch-style home with a swimming pool. A few months later, Elinore's sister Edna, her husband Bill, and their family moved to California. They stayed with Elinore and Bob until they found a house to rent, and Bill secured a job. Then Edna and Bill moved to Alhambra, Los Angeles County, California.

Elinore and Bob traveled quite a bit and lived in several different states. They went from West Covina, California, to Willoughby, Ohio, Denver, Colorado, Decatur, Illinois; Downersgrove, Illinois; Euclid, Ohio; San Francisco, California; and finally Huntington Beach, Orange County, California.

Elinore's husband, Bob, died on March 24, 1976, at Huntington Beach, California. A little more than a year after Bob's death, Elinore started to date John Williamson. They were married in November of 1977. Elinore moved to North Shore (Salton Sea), Riverside County, California with John. Sarah and Edna remained at the mobile home in Huntington Beach, California. After Sarah died, February 23, 1984, Elinore and John sold the mobile home and Edna went to live with her son, Bill. Edna soon got an apartment of her own in San Dimas, Ca.

Las Vegas was one of Elinore's favorite places to go. She loved to play Blackjack, the slot machines and Bingo. She enjoyed traveling and was able to visit her son, Edward, in Kauau in the 1980s.

In her later years, Elinore she suffered very poor health. She had arthritis, scoliosis, underwent by-pass surgery for her heart, and removal of her breast due to cancer. Elinore was stylish in her manner of dress. She was highly respected for her knowledge and intelligence.

Elinore died on February 19, 1995 in her mobile home at Oceanside, California. She is buried with her first husband, Robert A. Greninger, Sr. at West Minster Memorial Park, West Minster, Orange Co., Ca.

Notes for LESTER HEFFLER:
LESTER HEFFLER:
[Bletheff2.FTW]

Lester Drowned while on a family outing on July 11, 1954 at Carmel, Pennsylvania. He was fishing along the shore when Bill the oldest son got caught in an undertow. Lester dropped his fishing rod and went in to the water and tried to save him; but got caught in the tow himself. Bill managed to get out but Lester didn't. Charles, the second son, also drowned this day. Charles and Lester both could swim but Bill couldn't.

Bill said that Lester had him on his shoulders at one time and that is probably why he survived and Lester and Charles didn't.

Charles spent the majority of his young life in Clinton County Pennsylvania. Mainly in a Community called Sugar Valley, with town named Loganton, Greenbur, Bull Run, Bonneville, Tylersville, Logan Mills and Carroll.

When he wasn't in school or playing with his brothers and sisters he spent his leisure time Hunting and Fishing, with his father whenever possible, otherwise with one of his brothers or by himself.

One day when we were living on the Meyers Farm on Fishing Creek Lester picked Charles up at school to go Bear Hunting with him. While waiting for dad to get his gear ready Charles was out on the back porch, he came running in and told Jane that there was a Bear out by the barn and she said if there is one out there go shoot it. That is just what Charles did.

Charles died of drowning at a family picnic outing at Carmel a Favorite swimming hole Near Jersey Shores, Pennsylvania along with his Father, Lester on July 11, 1954. (Lester's Birthday). They were caught in an Under-tow in a creek and swept under and were not found for many hours.

He moved his family back to Missouri in 1973.

839. ROBERT ALLEN⁸ GRENINGER, JR. (*ROBERT ALLEN*⁷, *EDWARD AMON*⁶, *AMON MILLER*⁵, *SAMUEL E.*⁴, *PETER (JOHN PETER)*³, *HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)*², *GRENINGER*¹) was born 15 June 1940 in Philadelphia, Phila. Co., Pa.. He married (1) ALTHEA JANE KRAMER 26 December 1959 in Drexel Hill, Delaware Co., Pa.. She was born 18 July 1942 in Allentown, Lehigh Co., PA.. He married (2) DIANE OLSEN Abt. 1970 in Mexico. She was born 22 April 1940.

Notes for ROBERT ALLEN GRENINGER, JR.:

Robert A. Greninger, Jr., commonly known as "Bob", is a handsome man. He has been kidded about looking like the movie star "Paul Newman".

Bob is very intelligent and a born salesman with a gift of gab. He won a College scholarship at the time of his graduation from high school, but elected to join the US Air Force instead. He wanted to get his military duty behind him. He married his highschool sweetheart, Althea Jane Kramer, while he was in the Air Force. He was stationed at Biloxi, Mississippi, where he was chosen as Airman of the Month several times. They had a little house they rented off the base and were very happy. Bob was sent to France during his second year in the Air Force. He was able to take his wife with him. Their first child, Laurie Anne, was born in St. Miguel, France. In 1961, I flew to France for Laurie's baptism. (I am her God-mother). Bob got a military leave and the three of us and the baby toured Europe for several weeks in Bob's car (an English Ford). We had a wonderful time.

When Bob was discharged from the Air Force in 1962, he, Althea and Laurie moved to West Covina, Los Angeles County, California to join the rest of the family. Bob attended Mount San Antonio College and obtained his AA degree. He was always popular wherever he went. He didn't know a living soul when he first went to MT. SAC, but he somehow managed to get elected ASB President in 1962-63. He worked for Allstate Insurance Co. as an insurance salesman for a couple of years, and then he went to work for McNeil Laboratories, Inc. He started as a pharmaceutical salesman, and climbed the ladder to success. The company is famous for Tylenol.

Bob and his first wife, Althea, were divorced about 1970. Bob married Diane Olsen about 1971. They lived in Semi Valley at that time, and then moved to San Diego area, and then to Dallas-Ft. Worth area of Texas, and then to Prescott, Arizona.

He retired from McNeil in 1996 and now has his own Consultant company. He currently resides in Prescott, Arizona. Bob and his wife, Diane, raise horses and Diane travels to horse shows.

Notes for ALTHEA JANE KRAMER:

ALTHEA JANE KRAMER is a very pretty and lovely lady. She is a wonderful mother and has a very generous nature. She weighs about 98 lbs. dripping wet, and yet she is very industrious. She does a lot of her own home repairs; can put up TV antennas; Xmas lights, etc. Has a wonderful talent for interior decorating, gardening, loves animals, a superb cook and charming hostess.

Although my brother Bob and Althea were divorced many years ago (1970), Althea has remained a very close family member. I have known her since she was 14 years old and she is like a real sister. I was a bridesmaid at both her weddings. She married Bill Brown about 20 years ago and they are very happy. Bill is a very gentle of loving person, besides being good looking.

EDWARD AMON⁸ GRENINGER (*ROBERT ALLEN*⁷, *EDWARD AMON*⁶, *AMON MILLER*⁵, *SAMUEL E.*⁴, *PETER (JOHN PETER)*³, *HENRY (JOHANN HEINRICH)*², *GRENINGER*¹) was born 17 August 1944 in Philadelphia, Phila. He married (2) BELINDA SWEENEY 14 February 1979 in Las Vegas, Clark Co., Nv.. She was born 02 August 1955.

Notes for EDWARD AMON GRENINGER:

Edward Amon Greninger born on August 17, 1944, a very hot summer night, in the city of Philadelphia, Pa. His mother had a very difficult pregnancy with Edward and had to stay in bed during the last four months before his birth. The doctor indicated that there was a chance that either the child or his mother may not survive the birth. Therefore, Elinore refused to go to the hospital for the delivery of Edward. Her doctor set up a surgical rubber boat on the bed in the master bedroom and sterilized everything. All the windows were wide open because of the extreme heat that night. Elinore never let out a sound during her labor and the birth of the child. Both mother and child were fine after the birth and Edward weighed in at over 9 lbs. The baby had a large concaved indentation on his left leg that became a very large dark brown birthmark that he still carries to this day. This indentation was caused by a very large tumor that pressed against the baby's leg during the pregnancy. The doctor and Bob (the baby's father) lit the furnace on that extremely hot August night to burn the afterbirth, etc. Then Bob and the doctor enjoyed a strong drink in both relief and celebration of the joyous event.

Edward was a brilliant child! His parents were called to school for consultations regarding his very high IQ. All during his school years, Ed was placed in advanced classes, when possible, or he did a lot of extra-credit work. He graduated from high school with the highest honors and awards. He went on to college, but lost interest after the first year. Ed had a thirst for knowledge and read continually. He was self-educated on many subjects, especially history.

When Ed was in his late 20s, he moved to Hawaii. He fell in love with the island of Kauai and has made that his home in more recent years. He spent many years going back and forth between Hawaii and California. He would get what he termed "rock fever" and had to come back to the "mainland" from time-to-time. In his earlier years in Hawaii he lived in the wilderness. Ed loved nature. He found a place on the island of Kauai that could only be reached by boat or by hiking over the mountains for three days that was home to him for a few years. He lived in a tent, took showers in a water fall, and gathered fruits and berries to eat. This was when he became a vegetarian for several years. Ed disposed of all his "material possessions" at this time as he wanted a simple lifestyle. He had a Persian rug and a water bed in his tent. It took him 35 trips to the stream to get water to fill up the water bed. Hence his nickname became "Water Bed Ed".

He burned incense and became a type of guru.

Ed was quick witted, a trait that he no doubt inherited from his father and his Uncle Eddie. His artistic abilities were likewise inherited from his father. Ed's imagination in creative writing and art was most unusual and outstanding! A couple of his college professors wanted to have some of his stories published, but Ed was never satisfied with his work. He never considered his work finished. Unfortunately, he never had anything published. This is too bad as he was very gifted.

Ed liked a challenge and he loved to win! He was a big gambler with money when he had it. His friends would make bets on Ed to win at pool, chess, cards, and games of all kinds. He often bet on sports of all kinds and usually picked the winners correctly. He knew how to figure the odds. He did very well with his betting in Las Vegas too!

Ed was married twice. He first married Joy McAllister, in 1971, at Las Vegas, Nevada. They were married for two years. No children were born of his first marriage. He was divorced from his first wife in 1974. His second marriage was to Belinda Sweeney on February 14, 1979, at Las Vegas, Nevada. One son, Benjamin Ogden Greninger, was born of this marriage on February 15, 1982, at Kauai, Hawaii. Ed was divorced from his second wife in 1986.

Ed died on February 9, 2003, at the Manor Medical Center in Las Vegas, Nevada. He was only there for one week. Prior to that he had spent about two months at the Nathan Adelson Hospice in Las Vegas, Nevada, where he received wonderful care during his suffering and his battle with cancer. As per his wishes, he was cremated. My brother, Bob, took Ed's ashes to Kauai where he and Ed's son Ben scattered them at sea -- a place where Ed had spent many happy times. (Source: Barbara A. Notes for MARK CHRISTOPHER YEATER:

MARK CHRISTOPHER (YEATER) BALL:

Mark (my grandson) is a delightful young man. He is 19 now and a pleasure to be around. When he was in his early teens, he liked to rollerblade, bike ride and go on mountain hikes with his father Dennis. He enjoys fishing, boating, swimming, movies, games, and his cats. He has grown up around computers and has learned a lot from both his mother and father. He is extremely computer literate.

Mark graduated from Bonita High School, in La Verne, Ca., in 2002. After attending Citrus College in Azusa, Ca., for a semester, he decided to join the Navy. He expects to be activated for duty in May, 2003. He will be attending Culinary School while in the Navy. He worked at an Italian Deli and Catering business while in high school and loves to cook.

When he was 18, Mark was on a very popular morning radio show broadcast in Hollywood, Ca., called "The Mark and Brian Show. His appearance on this show was related to his Senior Project while still in high school. The show hosts kept teasing him about looking like Donny Osmond. They kidded him about it and told him that he should learn to sing the famous "Puppy Love" song that Donny Osmond made famous. Mark surprised all of them when on the second day he appeared on the air, he produced a CD recording of himself (Mark) singing "Puppy Love". His Aunt Lisa has a small recording studio and she obtained the back up music and recorded Mark singing. They were shocked and very pleased that he did this and they played it on the radio. He was definitely a star that day!
