5. CLARISSA CLAY¹, born Abt. 1760¹; died Abt. 1840 in FRANCISCO, STOKES CO.. NC¹.

Notes for TYRE RIDDLE:

[Woodyard]

LIVED IN THE NORTHWESTERN CORNER OF STOKES CO. NEAR BROWN MOUNTAIN,. ON OF TYRE'S DESCENDANTS WAS JOHN PAUL RIDDLE FOUNDER OF THE Embry-Riddle AERONAUTICAL university IN STOKES CO. NC., HAD LAND GRANTS IN STOKES CO., NC ON OCT 1790 TYRE RIDDLE BOUGHT 300 ACRES OF LAND FROM JOHN CHINAULT ON THE WATERS OF BIGG CREEK AND NORTH DOUBLES CREEK ADJOINING WESTERN NUNN ON THE WEST END OF BROWN MOUNTAIN,. TYRE'S LAND WAS ABOUT 15 MILES SOUTHWEST OF JOHN AND RANDOLPH began to research the

PALMER family around 1991. Since that time, it has grown to a much larger project than I ever dreamed it would be. The PALMERS of Stokes County, NC descend from Tyre RIDDLE (in part), who was born around 1765.

Tyre's daughter, Elizabeth RIDDLE, married William DOLLAHITE, a.k.a. Dollahite, Dollahite, Dollyhigh, Dollihide, Dollahite, etc. William and Elizabeth's daughter, Mary DOLLAHITE, married Elias PALMER, a.k.a. Parmer.

The land on which Tyre RIDDLE settled in Stokes county, NC was in the area of what is now Francisco, NC, off of Highway 89. Horseshoe Road comes off of Hwy 89 (on both ends of Horseshoe Rd), just outside of Francisco.

This is just a couple of miles east of the Surry county line, and a few miles south of the Virginia line. The Tyre Riddle land was quite a spread, in excess of a thousand acres (I'm not sure of the total amount at this point). It went from what is now Horseshoe Rd all the way past Big Creek to what is now Highway 66. The land that was left after Tyre's son, Asa Riddle moved on west, was divided between Tyre's 3 daughters, Ursula (B. 1795), Elizabeth (B. 1797) and Mary (B. 1800). Ursula and Mary never married, so much of their land was sold or willed to their sister Elizabeth Riddle Dollahite, and her children. Thus, the land of Tyre Riddle passed from the Riddle family into the Dollahite family.

in the 1800 census his first name is spelled Tyer, 1810 tere, 1820 Tyre
